THE AGE LIMIT FOR TANGOISTS has been extended. Otto Koster, who is white haired, limps, and says that he is 61 years old, is made defendant in a New York court of domestic relations, his wife being the plaintiff.

"Why, Judge," cried the woman to the magistrate, "the tango and these other newfangled dances have spoiled him. Some young people in my neighborhood have taught him the tango. Now he stays out all night, tangoing, and when he does come home he always has to practice the steps before he goes to bed. And the first thing he does in the morning is to start right off tangoing. He goes over all the new steps he has learned the night before. Then he goes out and maybe he won't be back for days."

In the cast presented by Mrs. Koster, her husband has surely discovered the fountain of youth. The health faddists had better destroy their motto: "Breath fresh air" and substitute "Learn to tango."

HAT A NATIONAL DAILY is to be established for the purpose of helping the national prohibition cause is the latest news from Washington, D. C. It is stated that three wealthy men have each offered $50,000 for the cause and that another gift is yet to come.

But persons who have studied the successes of the greatest papers, the failures of those now dead, and the history of journalism in general have long ago given up the hope of ever seeing a national daily. In the first place the United States is too large, its territory is too big.

The subscriber, if he likes the news, wants it when it is fresh. He is not satisfied if his news is two or three days old. One of the largest newspapers in New York several years ago tried to build up a circulation in Washington.

Such a paper would never be financially independent. And such a paper would not be the most effective way of campaign by any means. People opposed to prohibition would not spend day after day reading lengthy arguments on the subject.

THAT THE GREATEST 10 years in the history of Clackamas County, the greatest 10 years in growth, in expansion, in substantial improvement, and in progress will be the next 10 years is the opinion of those who are acquainted with the local conditions.

With the Willamette Valley Southern, backed by local capital, building almost the full length of the county, the recent completion of the Molalla branch of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway, the Carver project from Portland to Oregon City and into the Logan country, the plan of the Southern Pacific to build up the west side of the river, the assurance of a new line in eastern Clackamas either by the Clackamas Development Company or the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, besides several smaller schemes it is certain that the year 1914 will be a worthy start for a record decade.

Of the railway projects the line planned by the Willamette Valley Southern will probably affect the county more than any of the others. Piercing the very heart of the rich Beaver Creek, Mulino, and Molalla countries and extending south into the northern part of Marion county, an immense territory will be brought closer to Oregon City as a trading center.

But the building of railways, even if they are important in the development of a county, will probably be but a part of the changes and improvements in Clackamas County during the next 10 years. Places that are now villages will become towns and towns cities.

By 1924 the people of Clackamas County will have good roads. Although now the activities of those who are opposed to road improvement may be strong enough to block progress, the time is coming when every farmer and every townsman will realize the value of a hard surfaced road and will work for a complete system of modern highways throughout the county.

All the reason for this is the Panama canal. When the "big ditch" is opened and great steamships ply from the ports of the old world to those of the North Pacific, thousands of hardy and industrious Europeans are coming to Oregon. Germans, Swedes, Danes, Scotch, as well as the poorer class from Southern Europe are coming to the great Northwest to seek new homes.

and Clackamas County will be through their broad back, their hard muscles, and their frugal industrious habits. Clackamas County has had a chance to learn the merits of the German and in some of the country sections the broadest and richest fields, the best stock, and the happiest homes belong to men who were born in the "old country."

In The Social Whirl

Current Happenings of Interest in and About Oregon City

SUNDAY afternoon the 85th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. E. E. Waldron was celebrated at her home in this city, 413 Willamette street. Mrs. Waldron is enjoying the best of health and was able to take a prominent part in the festivities of the day.

Dinner was served at one o'clock, the table decorations corresponded with those of the rooms, of cut flowers and ferns. After dinner was served a toast was given, while each member of the party was drinking water from a well that was dug by Mr. Waldron on their donation land claim at New Era over fifty years ago. Following is the toast:

"Here, brothers and sisters, in sparkling water, From the moss grown depths of a rock lined well Made fifty years ago by the hands of father, The happy memories that cluster round the dear old well, And in memory we hear like music the bounteous overflow, as it fell, And today this water from Clover Hill will draw us near together As we renew our pledge and drink to the health of mother."

"Here's to the boyhood chum you recall, The sincerest friend of your youth, Here's to the sweetest sweetheart of them all, You'll all say I'm telling the truth, Come boys' here's one to our mothers."

The family history of the Waldron family is an interesting one, since they are old and respected citizens, known throughout the entire county. In 1852 Mrs. Waldron, who was then Mrs. Charles Hancock, crossed the plains with her husband and family, she buried her husband and one child while enroute. A year after arriving in Oregon City she married Samuel Waldron, who had also crossed the plains in 1852 and buried his wife while in Eastern Oregon.

At the time of this marriage Mrs. Waldron had three children and Mr. Waldron had four by the first marriage, as a result of the second marriage there were ten children born, all them living except one, who died when a child. Mr. Waldron died in 1888.

At the family reunion held Sunday thirty one of the children and grand children were in attendance. Mrs. Waldron has forty-two grand children and twenty great grand children living.

Those present Sunday afternoon were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Waldron of Jennings Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. John Waldron, Silver Springs, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. George Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waldron, Oregon City, Mrs. Burton Colvard, Newberg, Mrs. Anna Sperry, Brownsville, Mrs. Mary Craft, Lewiston, Idaho, Mrs. S. J. Seaman, Mrs. D. Marshall, Mrs. C. J. Forner, Mrs. Dot Knowlton, Miss Arlet Seaman, Portland, Mrs. Jess Hyatt, Mr. Waldron Hyatt, Miss Una Hyatt, Willamette, Mrs. C. Barber, Ralph Barber, Doris Waldron, Guy Waldron, Oregon City, Mrs. Emma Harrington, Sellwood, Alden Waldron, Oregon City, Mildred Waldron and John M. Waldron of Jennings Lodge.

DELIGHTFUL surprise birthday party was given Sunday afternoon in honor of the 74th anniversary of the birth of Charles Moehke at his home in West Linn.

Oregon grape and dogwood were used effectively as decorations. Music and social chats furnished enjoyment for the afternoon.

The large dining table in the spacious room seated the merry crowd who were immediate friends and relatives of the honor guest.

Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. E. A. France, Mrs. M. Schwichtenberg, Fred Schwichtenberg, Ray T. France, Misses Geneva and Geraldine France, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fisher, Mrs. E. Burke, Roger and Wendell Burke, Miss Alice Burke, Miss Elsie Bluhm, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Moehke, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moehke, Mr. and Mrs. John Heft, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heft, Mr. and Mrs. William Bluhm, Mr. and Mrs. Cligby May, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. George Volpp, Mr. and Mrs. August Moehke, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moehke, William Bluhm, John Moehke, Lavean Moehke, Howard Moehke, Kenneth Fisher, Vernal Moehke, Misses Athleen Moehke, Marie Bluhm, Nina Moehke, Rita Moehke, Vesta Moehke, Bernice Heft, Alma Fisher, Pearl Fisher, Evelyn May and Freda Volpp.

Local Couple Arr. Married at Seattle.

Mr. Harry Confer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Confer of this city and Miss Ruby McCord, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCord also of this city, were quietly married at the home of friends in Seattle March 25, by Judge McIntosh of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Confer came to Oregon City Tuesday and are at the home of the former's parents, but later will move into their own home at Ellyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Confer were both born in Clackamas county, where they have a number of friends who wish them success.

Ladies Improvement Club Entertained by Mrs. C. W. Swallow. The Ladies' Maple Lane Improvement club were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Swallow. Plans were completed for a social and spelling bee to be given Saturday evening at the school. A quilt that was made by the ladies will be raffled off, the proceeds will be used in making improvements, such as building sidewalks, repairing roads, etc.

In the treasury of this club there is a membership sinking fund, for the purpose of buying flowers and small remembrances for their sick members.

Oregon City Man Married in Seattle. R. W. Brown, a former Oregon City business man surprised his many friends in this city when he went to Seattle to claim Miss F. M. Rhodes of that place as his bride.

After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home in Milwaukee, where Mr. Brown has business interests.

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

Barton Adopts Resolutions.

BARTON, Ore., April 1.—(Editor of the Enterprise)—At a mass meeting held at Barton, Clackamas county, Friday, March 27th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Barton pupils attained the victory as not one of the four was spelled down by an opposing contestant.

That Barton had just cause for such measures can readily be seen. On Friday p. m. at Estacada, was held one of the spelling contests, being conducted by Supervisor James Ten schools being represented by four pupils from each school, each of which made a fine showing.

At the last there remained but five pupils standing. No. 1, from Curranville, Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5 from Barton, thus Barton was spelling against Barton. Nos. 2 and 3 being spelled down by No. 4.

Final No. 1, (Curranville) was given the word "endorse" and missed spelling it "endorse." No. 4 (Barton) spelling the word correctly.

Mr. James immediately gave Barton the honor of announcing their victory and winners of the prize.

When the crowd had about dispersed, some person, unknown to writer, discovered in Webster's dictionary a word spelled "endorse" and instantly demanded a new contest between Barton and Curranville.

Mr. James then reversed his decision and agreed to their demands.

Naturally Barton resents this injustice. All pupils in the county studied the Champion speller for this contest. Mr. James gave the words from the same book. In that book the word under discussion is spelled "indorse."

Therefore Curranville failed and as the Barton contestants were not spelled down by anyone of the opposing schools but by one of their own number, Barton claims a victory seldom, if ever, equalled in such a contest.

Out of forty contestants, four from the same schools, remained undefeated.

The victorious pupils are: Paul Devine '13, Garnet Davis '14, Charlotte DeFord '13, Lorna Davis '13. Miss DeFord being the one to spell down Curranville and the two first named of the Barton school.

MRS. S. J. DEVINE.

OPENING GAME GOES TO PORTLAND BEAVERS

WOLVES ARE BEATEN TO SCORE OF 8 TO 1—4000 FANS SEE FIRST CONTEST

At Sacramento—Portland 8, Sacramento 1.

At San Francisco—Venice 9, San Francisco 1.

At Los Angeles—Oakland 12, Los Angeles 2.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 31.—There'll be another army of the unemployed here if the Portland Coast League baseball champions continue to stage such moneyshines as were on the tapis in the opening game this afternoon.

Score: Portland 8, Sacramento 1. Portland simply kicked and cuffed the downtrodden Wolves all over the turf at Buffalo park.

Buddy Ryan "came back"—strong—with a couple of screaming hits; Doane poked a shrieking home run over the right field fence; Bill Rodgers kicked through with two hits, so did Derrick; in fact every man save Higginbotham secured one or more of the 11 safe blows off Klawitter.

There seemed to be a sort of hoodoo against the home teams in all coast league parks today, but the sad part of it was here—the Senators did not even have a look-in at any time.

Wolverton's athletes had plenty of opportunities to tighten the score, but could not avail themselves. They fell down woefully, even with the entreaties of 6000 wild-eyed opening-day fans—shrieking and begging for action—ringing in their ears.

FORCE TOLL BILL IN SENATE, PLAN REACHED

SENATORS CONFER WITH PRESIDENT AND DECISION IS REACHED. PUBLIC HEARING PLAN REJECTED.

Measure is Referred to Committee Without Debate—Chairman O'Gorman Will Call Meeting Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The administration bill to repeal toll admission for American ships in the Panama canal, which passed the house yesterday amid spectacular scenes, reached the senate today and was referred to the committee on inter-oceanic canals without debate.

Senator O'Gorman, chairman of the canals committee, who is marshalling the anti-administration forces, announced tonight that he would call a meeting for Tuesday. Until then no formal consideration of the repeal measure or proposed amendments can develop. Although friends of President Wilson had hoped to have the canals committee meet earlier, they decided to make no effort to influence Senator O'Gorman to change his plans. They will insist, however, on an action within a reasonable time.

Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, the majority member of the committee, who will lead the fight in committee for the administration, conferred with the president today. Later he made the emphatic declaration that friends of the repeal bill would not submit to delay in preliminary consideration of the bill and flatly declared that the gauntlet of committee discharges would be hurled an attempt be made to impede the progress of the bill.

That some members of the committee who oppose exemption repeal desire to have public hearings on the bill was apparent, but administration senators insisted that such hearing were unnecessary and there could be no other reason for them except to cause delay.

VALLEY LEAGUE FORMED

UPPER WILLAMETTE TOWNS ORGANIZE FOR CONTESTS

EUGENE, Ore., March 31.—Eugene will be the center of an upper Willamette valley baseball league this summer. Steps were taken at a meeting in this city Sunday to organize a league with Eugene, Junction City, Springfield, Cottage Grove, Marcola and Wending represented. The Atlas club, a young men's organization, is backing the Eugene team, and players have already been selected. The baseball grounds at Midway park, half way between this city and Springfield, on the P. & E. electric line, have been leased by the local club and all league games scheduled for Eugene and Springfield will be played there. The teams will be strictly amateur and games will be played every Sunday and on holidays.

How to Detect the Alum Baking Powder

"Which are the alum baking powders; how can I avoid them unless they are named?" asks a housekeeper.

Here is one way: take the can of a low-priced powder in your hand and read the ingredient clause upon the back label. The law requires that if the powder contains alum that fact must be there stated. If you find one of the ingredients named alum, or sulphate of aluminum, you have found an alum baking powder.

There is another and a better way. You don't have to know the names of the alum powders. Use Royal Baking Powder only; that assures you a cream of tartar powder, and the purest and most healthful baking powder beyond question.
