UDGED by human standards, man is far better prepared to write a Bible now than he was when our Bible was written. The charac-J ters whose words and deeds are recorded in the Bible were mem bers of a single race. They lived among the hills of Palestine in a territory scarcely larger than one of our counties. They did not have printing presses, and they lacked the learning of the schools. They had NO GREAT LIBRARIES TO CONSULT, no steamboats to carry them around the world and make them acquainted with the various centers of ancient civilization.
