THOMAS READ, OF MOLALLA, IS TAKEN TO PORTLAND

Molalla, Ore., April 10,-(Special)-Thomas E. Read, a farmer living near Liberal, was taken to the hospital in Portland yesterday. Wednesday noon as he was unhitching his horses, his sister-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Odean, who also lives at that ranch, saw him fall to the ground and the horses run away. She rushed to his side and found him in a dead faint. Then she called his wife. Mrs. Marie Read, who came with Walter Finally. The sick man was restored to consciousness.

About a week ago Mrs. Read accidently spilled a quart bottle of formaldehyde on the kitchen floor. Being overcome by the fumes she called her husband in. Mr. Read spent considerable time trying to clean the disinfectant up but did not wholly succeed. In doing this however he inhaled the fumes of the formaldehyde and was
