World From Behind Bars Looks Gloomy To Fred Hosclaw

"They got me in here for 25 days, boys," said Fred Hosclaw Monday evening through the bars of one of the cells of the city jail. "And I tell you it is mighty tough. I'd like to get out of here, live everything. 'I have been working with Moffett & Parker up at Seventh street. I am a rock man. Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock I went down to Portland with my week's money to have a good time. I stayed over Sunday and this morning I started back to Oregon City to go to work. When I got off the car a big man, they call him 'Chief Shaw' got me and brought me up here. This afternoon they took me to the court and the judge said 'Twenty-five days for you. I don't want money, you are to go to jail.' I wanted him to give a fine so that I could go to work. I could pay the fine at $5 a week."

GERMAN PROGRAM GIVEN BY VEREIN

Klemens; address, Franz Kraxberger of Mackaburg; song and chorus, "Freut Euch des Lebens"; Verein; closing address, President Schnoor. The close of the program all partook of a German dinner, after which a social hour was passed in music songs and games.

RECORDS ARE BROKEN AT MILWAUKIE BEE

180 PAGES SPELLED BEFORE THE YOUNGEST CHAMPION IS ANNOUNCED

One hundred and eighty pages of the spelling book were covered before little Miss Charlotte Nash, age 11 years, could be declared the champion of the 28 picked spellers at the bee held at Milwaukie Monday afternoon. Charlotte Nash who is the youngest to win any of the spelling bees held in the schedule now being worked out in this county, is a pupil in the Milwaukie school. Another record was made in the number of pages spelled before the spellers were eliminated to one. The previous mark was 140 pages which was set at a recent bee held at Estacada. Seven schools took part in the spelling contest: Milwaukie, Oswego, Wichita, Oak Grove, Harmony, East Mount Scott and Ardewald. Superintendent of Schools Calavan presided at the meeting and Supervisor Vedder acted as referee. The bee was opened by a program as follows: Piano solo, Ruth Alexander; songs, girls of the eighth grade, and piano solo, Dorris Martin.

NEW SCHOOL PLAN AT SPRINGWATER

A parent-teacher association and a new school building are the latest plans being considered in the progressive community of Springwater. Superintendent Calavan and Supervisor James spoke at a meeting held at Springwater Saturday and thoroughly explained the nature of a parent-teacher association and recommended that such a body be organized there. There has been a feeling in the town for some time that a new school should be built and a number of the large property owners are backing a plan to erect a new structure.

THREE MARRIAGE LICENSES Saturday was a record day for marriage licenses with the county clerk, three being the number issued. The licenses are as follows: Mary M. Green to Walter E. Hickok, of Portland; Hilda Peterson to Roscoe Clark, of this city, and Ethel M. Mann to Harry A. Brown.

CHASE PROPERTY VALUED AT $1,600

JURY DECIDES STRIP IS WORTH BUT $76 MORE THAN PREVIOUS OFFER

APPEAL FROM DECISION IS POSSIBLE

Further Action May be Taken by Attorneys—Verdict is Returned At 1:30 O'clock Thursday Afternoon

The valuation of $1,600, $76 more than a jury had offered, was returned by a jury in the circuit court at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the condemnation proceeding filed by the city against Mrs. Sarah Chase to secure property for the landing bridge of the Seventh street elevator.

The case opened before Judge Campbell Wednesday morning and went to the jury Thursday shortly before noon. The attorneys for Mrs. Chase, J. E. Hodges and C. D. Latourrette, maintained and attempted to prove that the property involved was valued at $5,000.

The property consists of a strip along the edge of the bluff extending from Sixth to Seventh. The strip is in the form of an arc with the bow in the middle lying on the edge of the bluff at a point halfway between Sixth and Seventh streets.

The strip will be used for the landing bridge from the elevator shaft. Although the tower is now completed and the material for the bridge is on the ground, all work has been stopped until the condemnation proceedings could be settled. Lots of the property to be taxed for the improvement will be sent out Friday and work on the bridge will be begun as soon as possible, said City Attorney Schuebel Thursday afternoon.

There is some possibility that Mrs. Chase may appeal from the decision of the jury here and her attorneys refused to say what action they would take when asked Thursday evening.

The city appraised the property in several months ago at $1,225 which is but little less than the amount awarded by the jury Thursday. Mrs. Chase refused to accept this sum and the city was forced to take the action into the courts to secure possession of the strip.

If no appeal is taken from the decision reached in the circuit court, the last legal barrier in the construction of the elevator is removed. The action decided Thursday was the first of two suits filed by Mrs. Chase, the other having been assigned to Judge Benson at Klamath Falls. City Attorney Schuebel, William Stone and L. Stipp appeared for the city.

MONTE CRISTO RECORD IS BROKEN AT STONE

134 PAGES ARE SPELLED BEFORE WINNER OF BEE CAN BE DECLARED

The Monte Cristo spelling bee record was broken at Stone Friday afternoon where 134 pages of the spelling book were covered before the speller of the 29 contestants could be declared. Page after page was spelled without hesitation on the part of the pupils and interest was held tense all through the meeting. Each of the five schools represented, Stone, Holcomb, Evergreen, Linn's Mill and Sunnyside, had an organized rooting section and were well supplied with pennants and school colors. School yells were given and at times the coast resembled a football game. The contest was a spelling bee. Supervisor Vedder, who presided at the meeting, declares that the bee at Stone was by far the most enthusiastic of any at which he has been present.

Martha Watts, age 15 years, a student in the Stone school won the bee. Each school was represented by four of their best spellers as decided by try-outs after weeks of preparation.

The two room school house at Stone is so built that the room can be made into one large one with a seating capacity of about a hundred. This room was crowded, every seat was taken, and students and parents lined the walls. Farmers came with their rigs for miles to hear their children spell and one or two of the schools came in a body.

The spelling bee was preceded by a program given by the combined schools as follows: Instrumental music, Misses Brown, and Holcomb; Mr. Henrich's song, "Has Anyone Here Seen Rover"; by Verville Mumpower; reading, "One Standard for Both Sexes"; by Treva Uptegrove; song, "A Frog, He Would A-Wooing Go"; by four girls; recitation, "When Dad Keeps House"; by Henry Theoney; song, "Daisies"; by four girls; duet, "Stars of the Summer Night"; by two girls; recitation, "The Lazy Little Cloud"; by Aetha McDonald; recitation, "The Gladness of Nature"; by Martha Schneider; reading, "The Dutchman's Mistake"; by Harry Schmidt. The Stone school was well decorated for the occasion with flowers and plants. An exhibit of school work, showing all the studies taken up at the school, adorned the walls. The next spelling bee will be held at Milwaukie Monday evening when six schools will compete for spelling honors of that district of the county.

SHOP, SOLD MONDAY, IS RETURNED FRIDAY

Henry W. Streibig sold his meat market on Fifth and Main streets Monday and regained possession Friday morning. The purchasers, Ort & McEwan, gave him a check on a Seattle bank for $450 and Streibig received the money on it. But a second check for $700 was unpaid, as Ort & McEwan stopped payment. They have left the city after having collected several small bills owing to the market.

Love is considered the ruling passion, but occasionally the almighty dollar administers a terrific jolt.

In The Social Whirl

Current Happenings of Interest in and About Oregon City

THE home of Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding Saturday afternoon, when Miss Hilda Peterson, of Duluth, Minn., became the bride of Roscoe Clark of this city.

Rev. W. T. Milliken of the First Baptist church performed the ceremony at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the parlor of the Woodward home under an arch of Oregon grape and calla lilies.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine and wore a tulle veil, which reached the hem of her dress. The veil was held in place with forget-me-nots. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Mammie Hardy was the maid of honor. George Woodward attended as best man and ring bearer was Master Gilbert Woodward.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was given for the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home in this city after a short wedding trip.

A WEDDING of unusual interest in the Molalla district, was that of Miss Leota Pearl Taylor and Mr. Charles Franklin Dohrs.

Rev. R. S. Coleman of the Methodist church of Molalla performed the wedding ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Taylor of Molalla at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The bride was neatly gowned in a blue serge tailored traveling suit and carried white carnations, her sister Mrs. William Kowski acted as bride's maid and her brother, Mr. Walter Taylor, was best man.

Mrs. Dohrs has lived in Molalla about one year, she formerly resided in Oakville, Wash., and came to Molalla with her parents, where her father is editor of the Molalla Pioneer. Mr. Dohrs, an enterprising farmer of Molalla, where he was born and raised, has lived with an aunt, Mrs. J. C. Simmons, for a number of years, his mother, Mrs. Antonia Jensen resides in British Columbia.

Following the wedding ceremony a small reception was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Dohrs left for a short honeymoon, they will reside in Molalla where the groom has a nicely furnished home in readiness.

Friday evening about fifty of the bride's friends called at her home and surprised her in the form of a kitchen shower.

THE Home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mann of Clackamas Heights

was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday evening, when their daughter, Miss Ethel Mann, became the bride of Harry A. Brown, of the same place.

Rev. J. R. Landsborough of the Presbyterian church of this city performed the wedding ceremony under a bower of cedars and spring blossoms. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Isabel Mann, and Raymond Brown, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown are both well known throughout the county, where they have lived a number of years. They will reside at Clackamas Heights where the groom has a home in waiting.

Oregon City Girl Weds Portland Man

Walter E. Hickok, of Portland, and Miss Mary Marquerette Green, daughter of Mr. S. R. Green of this city, were quietly married at a pretty home wedding Saturday afternoon.

The bride entered the parlor, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march as played by her cousin, Miss Genevieve Green, on the arm of her father, S. R. Green, who gave her in marriage. Here they were met by the groom and the minister, Rev. A. J. Ware, uncle of the bride, who performed the ring ceremony.

Mrs. Hickok was attractive in a blue tailored suit with hat to match, and she carried bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The house decorations were of white lilies, dogwood and ferns.

Mrs. Hickok is well known in Oregon City, where she was born and has resided since, and Mr. Hickok is an electrician connected with the Western Electric works at Portland.

After May 1st Mr. and Mrs. Hickok will be at home to their friends at 232 Twelfth street, Portland.

Home of Mr. and Mrs. David Canfield Scene of Petty Wedding

A charming Easter wedding took place Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Canfield of this city, when their youngest daughter, Miss Ethel, became the bride of Mr. Harland Grover Thompson, of Spokane, Wash.

Rev. Geo. Nelson Edwards of the First Congregational church used the ring ceremony in performing the wedding.

The bride looked her prettiest in a neat tailored suit of blue, with her blue silk poplin waist with real lace overdrap. The bride's maid, Miss Pearl Montgomery, a teacher in the Portland schools wore navy blue charms. The groom was attended by Carl F. Canfield, of Portland, a brother of the bride.

Following the wedding the bridal party and a few relatives went to the Stipp home, where a large dinner was served.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. David Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Livy Stipp, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes, of Portland, Miss Pearl Montgomery and Carl F. Canfield, of Portland.

Mrs. Thompson was born in Clackamas county, where she was raised and educated. She has many friends throughout the county but within recent years she has worked as cashier in the office of the Oregon Journal at Portland, where she won many friends. Mr. Thompson has business interests in Spokane, where they will make their future home.

Williamette Couple United At Charming Ceremony

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Pauline Koellmeier and Mr. Melvin Young, both of Williamette, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Koellmeier, by Rev. George Ulrich, of the Wilsonville Reformed church.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried white carnations. Miss Leota Young, sister of the groom, as bride's maid, wore a dress of white embroidery and carried pink carnations. Mr. Blake Bowland was best man.

The decorations in the living room and dining room were of dogwood and

GRAND COUNCIL OF ARCANUM GATHERS

FIRST ANNUAL ELECTION IS HELD

Luncheon With Live Wires Is Feature of Day—Candidates Are Initiated Into Clackamas Council

All of the eleven councils of the Royal Arcanum in Oregon were well represented at the first annual meeting of the grand council of Oregon, held in Oregon City Tuesday. Business sessions were held at Woodmen of the World hall in the afternoon and evening, at which Grand Regent George W. Hazen, of Portland, presided.

Much enthusiasm was created by a telegram from Supreme Regent Frank P. Wickersham, which conveyed the information that the grand council of Oregon had enjoyed a greater net gain in membership than any other grand council in the United States during the grand council year. J. W. Upper, past grand regent of the state of Washington, came down to represent the supreme council and to install the newly elected officers. After the close of the grand council meeting, a class of candidates was initiated by the grand officers in Clackamas council, of Oregon City, which has shown the greatest percentage of gain this year of any council in Oregon.

The next meeting of the grand council will be held at Portland on Tuesday, April 29. A feature of the meeting Tuesday was a luncheon given to the visitors by the Live Wires of the Oregon City Commercial club.

The newly elected officers of the grand council are: Frank Willmot, Oregon council, grand regent; Earl C. Bronaugh, Mount Hood council, grand vice-regent; E. R. Reed, Multnomah council, grand orator; R. J. Kirkwood, Lewis and Clark council, grand secretary; Frank M. Sherman, Willamette council, grand treasurer; Norris R. Cox, Mount Hood council, grand chaplain; Charles A. Nelson, Sacajawea council, grand guide; E. E. Cable, Peninsula council, grand warden; W. H. Dancy, Champoeg council, grand scribe; A. A. Courtney, Oregon council, grand trustee.

white crepe paper, which was artistically arranged. Mr. and Mrs. Young are well known in Clackamas county. She was born in Stafford, where she resided until last September, when she moved to Willamette with her parents.

The friends who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Koellmeier, Mr. and Mrs. E. Young, Mr. and Mrs. L. Koellmeier, Mrs. Bremer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greaves, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koellmeier, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young, Miss Leota Young, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Bookman, Blake Bowland, Mrs. Kuntz, of Portland, and Mrs. Margaret Kuntz, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts consisting of cut glass and chinaware.

Society Notes

Saturday evening, April 18, the teacher and pupils of the Beaver Creek school will give a basket social in the Beaver Creek hall.

Everyone is invited to attend and the young ladies are especially requested to make baskets. The proceeds will be used to improve the school in general.

THE POMONA GRANGE MEETS AT PARKPLACE

PARKPLACE, Ore., April 16.—Clackamas County Pomona grange, in session all day Wednesday with Abernethy grange here, passed resolutions opposing the proposed $600,000 bond issue for Clackamas county roads, against which resolution have been passed by Milwaukie grange, No. 268, and other granges of the county. Several speakers spoke in favor of good roads construction on the pay-as-you-go system.

In the morning, favorable quarterly reports from the 17 granges of the county were received. In the evening 16 members were initiated into the fifth, or Pomona, degree and Abernethy grange presented an entertaining program. Large delegations attended from all over the county and the grange hall was crowded.

PATIENT OF MICHIGAN ASYLUM SENT TO SALEM

Emery D. Church, of Sandy, was examined and committed to the state hospital for the insane Thursday. An attendant of the hospital came to Oregon City late that evening and took Church to the asylum.

Church was found wandering about the woods near Bull Run several days ago and brought to the county jail here where he was held until an examination could be made. Church's insanity was caused by sunstroke and at times is perfectly sane. During these periods he says that he was formerly confined in a Michigan asylum and that his relatives live in that state.

WORK ON SCALES BEGUN

The work on the foundation of the city scales which will be located on the corner of Main and Fifth streets was begun Friday. The foundations will probably be completed by the first part of the coming week and the scales installed by Wednesday or Thursday. The machine will weigh 10 tons and will cost the city $235.

45-POUND SALMON CAUGHT

One of the largest salmon caught this season was landed recently by William Hesseldin, superintendent at the Oregon City Manufacturing company. The fish weighed 45 pounds. William Hodges earlier in the week caught a fish weighing 52 pounds, one of the few larger than the salmon caught by Hesseldin.

"Best State in Union" Says Man As He Sends For Family

"This is the best country in the union. There are more opportunities in Oregon in one week than in the east in a month," these were the words of S. E. Mathews as he bought four tickets from Pennsylvania to Oregon City for his wife and three children.

Mathews came to the west in October, 1913, leaving his children and wife in the east. One brief winter in Oregon has so convinced this man of the possibilities of the Willamette valley that he claims that his family "cannot get out here quick enough" so that he can establish a permanent home here. Mathews will probably move on a farm when his furniture arrives from his home town in Pennsylvania.

L. O. PERKINS ARRESTED ON FISHING CHARGE AND IS FINED $20—CASE CONSIDERED TEST

L. O. Perkins was arrested Thursday afternoon on a charge of catching more than three salmon in one day, was taken before the justice court where he pleaded guilty, and was fined $50. The fine was remitted.

Perkins is the first man to be arrested on this charge this season and the local sportsmen look upon his case as a test of the fish laws. It has been a custom that when a fisherman caught two fish and a small one on his line he would allow someone else to land it so as to save the third catch allowed by law for a larger fish. Perkins claimed at first that he did this and that he landed but these fish himself as the law allows.

Water Warden Clark made out the complaint and appeared against Perkins at the hearing before Justice Sievers.

BOARD OF EDUCATION REFLECTS PRINCIPALS

The board of education of the Oregon City schools Thursday night held a three hours session and disposed of a large accumulation of routine business.

The principals of the three buildings were re-elected at salaries of $1200 per year each. They are: H. F. Pfingst, high school; N. W. Bowland, Eastham building; A. O. Freel, Barclay building. Peter D. Forbes, instructor in manual training, was re-elected. The board will probably choose the remainder of the teaching corps within a few weeks, but formal announcement of the choice of the grade teachers will not be made until the end of the school year in June. The board made an appropriation of $10 to purchase oak lumber to be used in fashioning articles of furniture by the students of the manual training department and which will be sent as exhibits from Oregon City to the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco.

An appropriation was also made to cover part of the cost of sending the high school debating team and coach to Eugene April 17 when they will meet the Klamath Falls High school team for the championship of Western Oregon.

WIFE WANTS DIVORCE AFTER 26 YEARS

After 26 years of married life, Mrs. Alice Averill has decided that her marriage is a failure and has filed a complaint in the circuit court asking for a divorce from her husband, James P. Averill. She alleges that her husband has a vile and unchangeable temper and that time after time has made threats and called her names. They were married April 18, 1888, in Nevada. Two sons, James P. Averill, Jr., age 20 years, and Mark Averill, age 24 years, are mentioned in the complaint.

Using the old charge of cruel and inhuman treatment Josephine W. Turner has filed a complaint in the circuit court asking for a divorce from George W. Turner. They were wedded June 30, 1897, in Buffalo, N. Y.
