

FEWER AND BETTER LAWS, HUNT'S AIM

Guy T. Hunt.

Guy T. Hunt, of Garfield, who recently filed his petition for the Republican nomination for Representative in the state legislature, was asked to become a candidate by hundreds of people living in his own section of the county, where he is best known. In reply to the petition, Mr. Hunt issued the following statement:

"I will use every honorable effort in support of any measure that I feel is for the best interest of the people of this county and the state at large, regardless of origin.

"We need fewer and better laws. We are spending too much money yearly in our county and state affairs for the results obtained.

"The Oregon Code as regards roads and highways needs thorough revision.

"Laws regarding schools, taxes and labor should have careful and thoughtful consideration. If nominated and elected I will use every effort to the end that when my work is done, you will feel that your confidence and judgment was not betrayed, and that you can truthfully and willingly say 'well done.'"

ABUSE OF CARRIER'S HORSES MUST STOP

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 16.—Prompted by the Oregon Humane society, aided by Mrs. Minnie Madden Fiske and Ira E. Bennett of the Washington Post, the government postoffice department at Washington has issued an order intended to stop the abuse and overwork of horses in rural mail service throughout the country.

Judge Robert Tucker, president of the Oregon Humane society, this morning said:

"Although they have been compensated for the additional labor and burden in handling the parcel post material, rural carriers have failed to increase their stock to meet the increased burdens laid upon them."

The order issued by the postoffice department is as follows:

"Reports received at the department indicate that in some instances carriers on rural delivery and star routes are mistreating animals used in the mail service. The department requires that rural carriers and star route contractors shall provide adequate stock and vehicles for conveying the mails, and that proper care shall be taken of animals used in the service. Postmasters are directed to report promptly any cases where these requirements are not being met."

BANQUET SUCCESS OPINION OF ALL

BETWEEN 170 AND 200 ATTEND FORMAL OPENING OF NEW CLUB ROOMS

ALL EXPECTATIONS ARE SURPASSED

Speeches, Splendid Menu, Vaudeville, Sparring Matches and Moving Pictures Combined in Evening's Program

That the commercial club banquet was a success, a success which surpassed the best wishes of the committee in charge, was the verdict of every one of the persons who were present Friday evening. From the time the first course was brought on the tables to the last round in the exhibition boxing matches, there was "something doing" every minute.

Besides being the annual banquet of the club, the gathering was the official opening of the new commercial club rooms. The long tables were arranged in the main club parlor and between 170 and 200 persons attended.

T. W. Sullivan, president of the organization, presided and delivered the opening address. This was followed by the Commercial Club Quartette with well worded verse in which the names of prominent members of the club played a prominent part. So popular was the quartette with the members of the club that encore followed encore and the singers completed their list of songs and were compelled to begin on the list a second time.

While the dinner was being served a musical program was given as follows: Oscar L. Woodfin, piano solo; selection by the Commercial Club Orchestra; Miss Tillie Meyers, vocal solo; and selections by the Commercial Club Quartette.

John Bexell, dean of the school of education of the Oregon Agricultural college, made a brief talk in which he spoke of the banquet as being done by the members of the Commercial Club on the spirit shown by the members of the commercial club.

When most of the members of the club had finished their last course and had leaned back in their chairs waiting for the next "stunt," Mr. Sullivan arose and explained that an oratorical contest would be one of the features of the evening. George A. Harding, Charles Caulfield and T. L. Charman were appointed judges and the chairman called on a number of the members for two minute talks. Rev. T. B. Ford with a brief eulogy on Oregon City received the vote of each of the judges and was presented with a large check.

Probably the biggest surprise to those who attend the banquet was the miniature elevator, fire bell tower, and second streets steps which were unveiled. The models which were perfect in every detail, were the work of Robert Crawford an employee of the Willamette Pulp & Paper company who presented them to the club. O. Eby presided over the unveiling ceremonies. The elevator was dedicated to Mayor Linn Jones, the bell tower to Councilman W. A. Long and the steps to Councilman Fred Metzger.

A vaudeville act from the Star theatre, Marshall and McDermott, entertained the guests after the speech making. Dances and songs by the club, proved so popular that they were encored time after time. A four reel moving picture show followed the vaudeville act.

The evening was closed by two boxing exhibitions. Bruce and Woodward sparred three rounds and Lewis Spigle six. The boxing was fast and clever.

The dinner was served by the Episcopal Guild and the King's Daughters.

DENVER, COLO., April 21.—That at least 25 persons met death in the clash between strikers and militiamen in the Ludlow district yesterday was the latest word received here from John McLennan, district president of the United Mine Workers of America, at Trinidad. BEAVERS WIN OPENER

11,000 YELLING FANS SEE OAKS DEFEATED, 2 TO 4.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 16.—Portland won the first game here today to the tune of four to two. The Oaks made 11 errors to nine by the Beavers. Although Portland came out on top of the contest, the Beavers made no hits while the losers batted out three.

Eleven thousand yelling fans, a 30 piece brass band that could hardly make itself heard above the opening big uproar, the flowers for Judge McCredie, and lastly, the boosters in large bunches, all were equal sized features at the opening of the Pacific Coast league baseball season here this afternoon, when Arthur Devlin's Oakland hopefuls met McCredie's champions. The big pennant flag out in the field flaunted defiance to the visitors and there was enough spontaneous enthusiasm flying through the air to have won the whole 1914 season for the Beavers, if their success depended upon cheers alone. Every seat in the park was taken.

The real opening game of the season of course, was the one inning festival of joy, for the fans, between a nine composed of creaky jointed business men and the champs, and which resulted, after one round of strenuous batting, in a score of 3 to 3.

Irve Hirsinboham, as predicted, opened by the Beaver with Gus Fisher receiving. Everyone on the Beavers' team came in for a big hand of applause in batting practice, but judges of the noise would have said it was greatest when Buddy Ryan and Bill Rodgers stepped up to the plate to take a few pre-game whangs at the ball.

The line-up was: Oakland—Quinan, lf; Furphy, 2b; Kaylor, rf; Zacker, cf; Hettling, 3b; Nee, 1b; Mitze, c; Cook, ss; Ramey, p. Portland—Doane, rf; Speas, 1b; Rodgers, 2b; Ryan, cf; Korea, 3b; Lohr, lf; Davis, ss; Fisher, c; Hirsinboham, p. Umpires—Hayes and Guthrie.

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. RICHMOND, 109 Waldo Street, Providence, R. I.

A Minister's Wife Writes:

CLOQUET, MINN.—"I have suffered very much with irregularities, pain and inflammation, but your wonderful medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has made me well and I can recommend the same to all that are troubled with these complaints."—Mrs. JANE AKERMAN, c/o Rev. K. AKERMAN, Cloquet, Minnesota.

From Mrs. J. D. Murdoch, Quincy, Mass.

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. MURDOCH, 25 Gordon St., South Quincy, Mass.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MARKET FOR WHEAT CONTINUES TO LAG

The market for wheat continues to lag, although country holders are showing no inclination to accept lower bids. The indications are that the present inactivity is only temporary and that as soon as the former purchases are out of the way, millers will again invade the market for the small remaining stocks.

It is still several months before new grain can find its way to millers, therefore they must either purchase old stock or else close their plants until early in the fall months. Oats and barley trade is quiet, with practically no change in either the situation or the price.
