Photos by American Press Association.

MEXICANS were thoroughly aroused by the Tampico incident and the subsequent serious complications which followed. The top picture shows how volunteer soldiers flocked on train tops and in box cars to Mexico City to enroll in the federal army against the United States. The bottom picture shows the federal fort in Mexico City, with crowds of native Mexicans talking war under the shadow of its walls.

GIANTS PRACTICING SLIDING AT POLO GROUNDS

MANAGERS this year have awakened to the opportunities of the slide more than ever before and devoted much of the training season to practice in the pits. For the first time in the history of a number of the club pitchers and catchers as well as out and infield men were forced to hit the dirt. There is a common superstition that batters were no good on the path, and the managers are out to disprove it. The photo shows two of McGraw's Giants practicing sliding and tagging at the Polo grounds, New York.

5 AUTO ACCIDENTS ONE DAY'S RECORD

THREE WOMEN ARE SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN CAR OVERTURNS

TWO HAPPEN NEAR PARKPLACE

Dr. Stuart Bumps Auto Truck and Axle of Machine Is Broken—Cars Crowded Off the Road

No less than five automobile accidents took place in Clackamas county Sunday. In seriousness they varied from broken axles to an overturned automobile where several persons were injured.

Three women sustained serious injuries Sunday evening in the most serious of the five, when the touring car of Ernest J. Randa was crowded off the grade on the Oregon City-Portland river road near the Peter Blain road north of this city. Mrs. W. A. White's ankle was broken, Miss Florence White had her shoulder dislocated, and Mrs. Randa's collar bone is broken. The other occupants of the car, Miss Jean White and Mr. Randa, escaped with a few bruises.

Mr. Randa was driving down the hill towards Oregon City, when he noticed a heavy touring car approaching him at a terrific speed, evidently trying to negotiate the hill on high gear. The car swayed from side to side of the road in its mad flight and Mr. Randa put his machine in low gear and pulled off to one side of the road. In order to avert a collision he was forced over the grade and his car went into the dirt, causing a partial excavation of the Portland Gas & Coke company for a main, and the machine turned turtle. The other car sped on. Mr. Randa's car was not seriously damaged and he was able to put it back on the road and drive home.

Sunday afternoon about 6 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McAlphin and their little son, Bobby, were in the former's large touring automobile, when a man and a woman in another automobile crowded the Hood car off the road and down a four or five foot embankment. No one was injured and the machine was not damaged. The accident happened between the Baby Home and the railroad crossing, near the place of the Randa's accident. The party had been on about a one hundred mile drive and at the time Mr. Hood was taking Mr. and Mrs. McAlphin to their home at Medford.

The third accident was to the automobile belonging to Dr. C. A. Stuart. His car was struck by an auto truck on the South End road, and the axle broken besides several other minor parts.

The other two accidents were both broken axles, one in the Colton district and the other at Willamette. Both cars, which were Michigans, were taken to Oregon City and repaired. The Michigans belonged to Portland men.

Prizes have been offered by the general committee as follows: 1st prize, $20.00; second prize, $10. Oregon City Automobile. 1st prize, $20.00; second prize, $10. Oregon City automobile.

MRS. ROSENBERG IS CHIEF WITNESS

"DAGO FRANK'S" FINAL WORD IS DICOUNTED IN SENSATIONAL N. Y. CASE

ALL BLAME IS PLACED ON BECKER

Gunman's Widow Says She Lied to Save the Life of Man She Loved—Valtion Re-mains Firm

NEW YORK, May 15.—Miss Lillian Rosenberg, the young widow of "Lefty Louis," one of the four gunmen electrocuted for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was a witness today for the state at the trial of Charles Becker, charged with being the "brains" of the plot her husband helped to carry out. In swearing she heard Jack Rose urge her husband and his three companions to kill Rosenthal because Becker wanted them to and that she saw the quietest dividing the money they received in payment for the crime, the widow of the gunman contradicted testimony she gave at his trial and furnished what District Attorney Whitman declared to be "proof beyond all doubt that the witness for the state have told the truth."

On cross-examination Mrs. Rosenberg was asked why she had not testified at the trial of the gunman as she did today. With tears in her eyes the girl answered: "I lied then because I wanted to save the man I loved from the electric chair."

Mrs. Rosenberg's statement discounts the confession alleged to have been made by "Dago Frank" Cloufid, just before the gunman were electrocuted.

STATE GRANGE MEETS FOR ANNUAL SESSION

MONMOUTH, Ore., May 20.—Over 100 delegates of the granges of Oregon and nearly 200 grange members were assembled for the first annual session of the state yesterday. Incoming trains were taxed Monday and yesterday in carrying delegates and others, and transportation rates were reduced for the convention. The day was given to general arrangement for work, presenting of credentials and outlines for committee work. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon a banquet was served the visitors by the citizens of Monmouth and Oregon Normal school faculty, on the school campus. Mayor P. H. Johnson welcomed the grangers to the city, followed by other addresses, and numerous responses. Besides the visitors, hundreds of citizens of Monmouth and farmers in Polk county attended. Last night the Monmouth training school orchestra entertained a large audience in the normal school auditorium for the benefit of the grangers. Business men furnished automobiles for the necessary conveyance of the delegates to the various homes in the city and the normal and high school students assisted in the general welcome.

SOCIETY FACTOR IN FESTAL DAY

MANY PARTS OF BIG CELEBRATION ARE IN HANDS OF ROSE SOCIETY

EXHIBIT OF BLOOMS A BIG FEATURE

General Committees Report Favorably—Merchants Requested to Put Boxes on Sidewalks For Seats

Saturday will be a busy day for the members of the Oregon City Rose society. Their part in the Rose Festival, Booster Day and Stock Show program is important and features directly under their control constituting some of the day's biggest drawing cards. Besides having complete control of all the parts of the day's entertainment taken from what was in previous years the Rose Show, the Rose society is equally represented in all general committees with the Commercial club. The general planning of the day and the arranging of the attractions of the celebration were as much in the hands of the members of the Rose society as of the Commercial club.

The Rose Show proper will last during the afternoon and evening, but for the ladies of the Rose society it will be an all day affair. At 8 o'clock in the morning the members of the society will gather in the hall on the third floor of the Masonic building, where the display will be made, to prepare for the exhibit. Shortly afterwards the entries will begin coming in. At 11 o'clock the time for making entries will stop and half an hour later the three judges, Alfred Tucker, E. B. McFarlin and J. Ladd, Jr., will begin their work.

About 120 entries were made last year, but there is no way to tell how many will be made Saturday. The members of the society expect a greater number than ever before. No one will be allowed in the hall during the judging.

In the big afternoon parade the Rose society will play an important part. The children's parade is directly under the supervision of the society. One of the features of the children's section will be the decorated go-carts and doll carriages. Prizes have been offered those entered in this parade. The Rose society will also play an important part in other parts of this parade, such as the automobile section.

The rose queen will reign supreme in the big afternoon parade. She will ride with her attendants in a decorated carriage.

During the afternoon and evening an orchestra will play at the Rose Show and in the evening a drill will be given by 20 girls. Mrs. John F. Raley will sing a solo. The general committees report that all is progressing well for the celebration. All merchants along Main street are requested to place boxes on the edge of the sidewalk about 6 feet apart. The committee will furnish boards so that the first line of persons seeing the parade will have a seat.

ONE LONE BALL TEAM RESPONDS TO CALL

SECRETARY H. E. CROSS HAS TROUBLE IN ARRANGING CHAUTAUQUA GAMES

In the opinion of Secretary H. E. Cross of the chautauqua, there is a dearth in the bush-league market this year.

This conclusion was reached Saturday when, in arranging the ball schedule in the 1914 chautauqua program, soon to be published, it was discovered that only one lone ball team had hurried its hat in the ring for the 1914 chautauqua pennant.

Mr. Cross, who by the way is himself a 33rd degree fan, was winded by the discovery. "It's the first time in fifteen years that we haven't been besieged by at least a half dozen teams at this date, with chautauqua only two months away. Why last year there were seven Clackamas county ball nines asking entrance into the chautauqua league. I hate to believe that this is the work of the Federal league!" However, unless the applications of three or four more first class amateur nines are received at once, Secretary Cross intimated that he would take it for granted that the far-reaching tentacles of the "Feds" have been scooping up the Clackamas county bushers.—unless of course, a more satisfactory explanation can be given.

H. A. COLT DIRECTOR OF NEW ASSOCIATION

H. A. Colt, of this city, has been elected one of the directors in the recently reorganized association of Willamette valley creameries. The other members of the board of directors are: O. Vogel, of Hubbard; W. E. Bohle, of Lebanon, and F. C. Bate, of Albany. At a meeting of the stockholders at the Imperial Hotel, Portland, it was decided to reorganize the company completely, place it under new management and strengthen its financial position. Above all, it was decided to retain it as an independent association of Oregon creameries. The capital stock of the company was increased from $10,000 to $20,000 and the new capital will be subscribed by valley creamery men. The company, it was emphatically declared, has not passed out of the hands of the valley creameries. Rheumatism Quickly Cured. "My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm," writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone." For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Sold by all Dealers. (Adv.)

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters: CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 1135 Knight St., Camden, N.J.

And this one from Mrs. Haddock: UTICA, ORE.—"I was weak and nervous, not able to do my work and scarcely able to be on my feet. I had backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, trouble with my bowels, and inflammation. Since taking the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am better than I have been for twenty years. I think it is a wonderful medicine and I have recommended it to others."—Mrs. MARY ANN HADDOCK, Utica, Oklahoma.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

GLADSTONE SHOWS RECORD GROWTH

OVER TWENTY NEW HOMES ARE PLANNED OR CONSTRUCTED SINCE FIRST OF YEAR

1914 GREATEST YEAR, SAY MANY

Residents of Town on Banks of Clackamas Enthusiastic Over Change in City—List of New Homes Compiled

GLADSTONE, Ore., May 19.—Gladstone is now basking in the sunshine of a most phenomenal growth. Over twenty new homes have been constructed since the first of the year, or are now being built or planned by the owners. The building boom which began early in the spring of 1913 and continued all through that year has run well into 1914 with increased activity, and at present there is little sign of any slack in the building era. During 1913 forty-three new homes were constructed, but if the present activities continue, 1914 will see a record in home construction in the thriving little city on the Clackamas, which very few cities of much larger size, could duplicate. With but 4 1/2 months of the new year gone by, approximately half of the total number erected last year has been reached and conservative estimates place the 1914 record to be way up over the fifty mark. Houses to rent are almost an unknown quantity and so great has been the demand to purchase homes that several have been gobbled up before they were ever finished by the builders. Among these were the Catto & Nelson bungalow on Dartmouth street to Engineer Rayburn of the Willamette Co., the Frank Nelson home on Harvard avenue to Mrs. Ross, mother of Mr. Arch Ross of Gladstone, and the Emil Nelson bungalow on Dartmouth to a Mr. Clark. Among the homes which are now being constructed or which will be started in the immediate future, and the approximate costs are:

Table listing home construction details: A Conover $1,000, Straight & Salisbury 1,500, Jno. W. Loder 700, Guy LaSalle 2,500, Leo Burdon 2,000, Emil Nelson 1,500, Ralph Parker 1,000, Wm. Janin 1,500, Wm. Lewthwaite 1,500, L. L. Lydell 1,000, Wm. Money 1,800, Frank Nelson 2,000, L. D. Mumpower 1,500, H. B. Miller 1,500, Jesse Dunmore 1,000, T. G. B. Williams (improv.) 1,000, Ed Kent 1,000, Henry Salisbury 1,500, Mrs. Eva Hardy 1,250.

As can readily be seen practically all of these are, or will be, when constructed, good substantial homes. For over a year at Gladstone the demand for homes has greatly exceeded the supply. On Dartmouth street about half way out to Chautauqua park three pretty bungalows are being constructed in the same block, those of Leo Burdon, William Janin and Emil Nelson. Gladstonians naturally are much enthusiastic over the growth of their city and predict that 1914 will be the greatest year since their thriving little burg was first put on the map.

BOARD IS AFTER NEW MAIN STREET

ORGANIZATION TAKES A DEFINITE STAND ON IMPROVEMENT QUESTION

MEMBERS WILL 'CONVERT' LANDLORDS

Body Has About 30 Members at Close of First Week of its Existence—Membership Increase Probable

The first regular meeting of the newly organized Oregon City Board of Trade was held Monday night in the parlors of the Commercial club and the evening was spent discussing one subject—the improvement of Main street. The members of the club have taken a determined stand for the improvement of the street and an active but quiet campaign is being mapped out to accomplish that purpose.

"We are doing missionary work among our landlords," said one of the officers of the organization Monday evening at the close of the meeting. "Each member is a committee of one to interview the person who owns the building which he rents, and to convince the property owner that a permanent improvement is the only solution to the Main street problem. Some remarkable conversions have resulted in several cases when the member of the board explained the relationship between the tenant and the landlord."

The membership committee reported that the club had about 30 members and that the prospects were that this number would be increased. The club completed the first week of its existence Monday evening.

Members of the new organization are reluctant to discuss the objects of the Board of Trade, but stoutly maintain that the purpose of the body is to do and not to talk, or least not to talk until after the object is accomplished. In working for the improvement of Main street, their campaign includes no publicity work, but merely personal solicitation.

RIVER UP AT MOUTH BUT THE SAME HERE

Although the Willamette river at Portland is rapidly rising and a number of the docks of that city are already under water, Oregon City is now in danger, according to one of the local mill managers who keeps in close touch with the rises and falls of the river. The high water at Portland is caused by back water from the Columbia and not from the amount of water going down the Willamette. Owing to the fall in the river between Oregon City and Portland there is no danger of the water in Portland reaching such a height that Oregon City would be affected.

MILWAUKIE SCHOOL CLOSES FRIDAY The Milwaukie grammar and high school will close Friday night with exercises in the city hall. At that time the first class will graduate for the Milwaukie High school department. Mrs. M. D. Reed, chairman of the board of education, will present the diplomas. Thursday night the directors will meet to elect teachers for the year.
