CAUCUS OF DEMOCRATS DECIDES TO STAY AT WORK DURING SUMMER

A DEFINITE NOTICE IS SERVED

Members Not Bound as to Votes But New Caucus Will Be Called if Party Clash is Necessary

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Democrats of the senate, in conference late today, adopted a resolution declaring their purpose to stay in session until the trust legislation passed by the house has been acted on by the senate.

The resolution is designed to serve definite and final notice to business and the country that anti-trust legislation is to be passed before congress quits Washington.

Senator Stone said it was intended as an answer to the propaganda for immediate adjournment of congress.

If the party leaders decide in the future that it will be necessary to make party measures of the three house bills or the substitutes offered for them, another conference will be held for the purpose of binding Democrats to definite legislation.

The explanatory clause attached to the resolution reads as follows:

"The resolution herein before adopted is intended merely as an expression of the purpose of the majority party in reference to adjournment."

Senator Kern, as majority leader, will ask the senate to hold night sessions next week to take up the calendar and "other business."

The trade commission bill already is before the senate and a vote may be asked for any day.

UNITED STATES NAVY NOW IN 'DRY' COLUMN

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Except among the surgeons' stores, there was not a thing alcoholic today on any United States fighting ship or any American naval station on earth.

John Barclay has sailed the seas on American naval vessels in the officers' mess rooms ever since there was an American navy, and some of his old friends thought it only right to give him a rousing farewell on his last night among them.

There was plenty of difference of opinion here concerning the order's propriety. Chairman Padgett of the house committee on naval affairs and Senator Martine of New Jersey, summed up compactly for the rival schools of thought on the subject.

FIVE ARE HURT AS AUTO FALLS

BRIDGE OVER SANDY RIVER IS SCENE OF AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

DISASTER IS CAUSED BY A HORSE

Driver Trying to Make Way For Frigthened Animal, Goes Out Too Far—One Passenger Escapes Unhurt

TROUTDALE, Ore., June 27.—Five persons were hurt when an automobile plunged over a 20-foot embankment at the east end of the Sandy river bridge at 8 o'clock tonight. A sixth person escaped injury.

To give a frightened horse a clear road, J. R. Welty, 496 East Twenty-eighth street, Portland, turned to the left and drove his seven-passenger, 4000-pound car over the bank of the river, precipitating a picnic party, consisting of himself, Mrs. Welty, M. A. Zollinger, a lawyer, residing at 225 Tillamook street, his wife and two children, onto the rock shores, 20 feet below, planning all but Clifton Zollinger underneath the car.

Little Miss Zollinger may be fatally hurt, as she was picked up unconscious and reports from the Multnomah Poor Farm, where she was taken for medical attention, give little encouragement.

The Ambulance Service company took Mr. and Mrs. Welty to the St. Vincent's hospital and Aaron Fox, who conducts a general merchandise store here, took Mr. Zollinger, Mrs. Zollinger and Clifton Zollinger to the Good Samaritan hospital, although Clifton was not injured.

Mrs. Zollinger's shoulder was badly wrenched and probably was broken. Mr. Zollinger, too, is badly shaken up. Little Miss Zollinger was in such a serious condition that it was deemed advisable that she be not moved.

Mr. Welty's leg was fractured and he may have been injured internally.

Both were taken to Portland hospitals later.

PHILADELPHIA TO HEAR WILSON SPEAK ON FOURTH OF JULY

MAYOR BLANKENBURG

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—Philadelphia expects to make its Fourth of July celebration this year not only safe and sane, but the greatest it has held since 1876, when the one hundredth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence was observed through the holding of the Centennial exposition.

President Wilson, who has consented to be the orator of the day, will speak from a platform close to the spot where the document was signed. The celebration will be under the auspices of a committee headed by Mayor Blankenburg and is expected to include a military parade.

BIG NEW HAVEN PLOT IS CHARGED

MELLEN, FORMER PRESIDENT OF ROAD IS INDICTED BY JURY

FINANCES ARE FOUND IN TANGLE

Alleged Conspiracy Also Involves Boston Business Men—Road Costing Millions is Never Operated

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 29.—Eighteen persons, including Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford and Boston & Maine Railroad company; Frederick C. Moseley, of F. S. Moseley & Co., Boston brokers; the late Ralph D. Gillett, of Westfield, and the investment committee of two savings banks of this city, were indicted today by the Middlesex county grand jury on various charges in connection with the finances of the Hampden Railroad from Bondville to Springfield. Mr. Gillett was president of the Hampden corporation.

The road was built a year ago as a link to connect the Central Massachusetts division of the Boston & Maine with the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, but has never been operated, an attempt to obtain the legislature's consent to its lease to the Boston & Maine having failed.

The indictments against Mellen, Moseley and Gillett allege conspiracy to induce the investment committee of the two banks to lend a total of $450,000 to the corporation. The notes securing the loans were endorsed by the Hampden investment company, organized by Mr. Gillett to finance the construction of the road, which coast about $4,000,000.

The investment committee of the East Cambridge Savings bank is indicted on three counts of conspiracy to lend sums of $20,000, $16,000 and $5000 to the Hampden railroad. These indictments charge that the Hampden investment company was not a substantial surety or indorser of the notes of the railroad corporation given to the bank.

SALEM, MASS., IS SWEEPED BY FIRE

SEVERAL DEAD AND MANY ARE INJURED WHEN HISTORIC CITY BURNS

LOSS OF PROPERTY IS LARGE

Every Effort to Stop Flames Proves Useless—Authorities Receive Aid From Several Neighboring Towns

BOSTON, June 25.—At 6 p. m. a third section at Salem, separate from the main fire and the one at South Salem, burst into flames.

To that hour dynamite had been used fruitlessly.

Mayor Hurley had ordered all school houses and public buildings filled with cots for the accommodation of those who have been burned out.

The restaurants were ordered to prepare coffee and sandwiches. Fifteen hundred were homeless.

The wind shifted to the southwest as the evening progressed, swinging the flames directly in the direction of the business section. Governor Walsh was on his way from here to the burning city by automobile. He had ordered Adjutant General Cole to rush 500 cots.

At 5 p. m. the fire was within an eighth of a mile of the city's center, according to a message from there.

Seventy-five more houses had been destroyed to South Salem, 40 firefighters had been overcome and 50 others had been taken to hospitals.

The water pressure was very low. The Lincoln high school had been dynamited in an effort to check the flames.

Women were running about the streets as if demented. The situation shows no signs of improvement.

Salem's exclusive residential section in Lafayette street was crumbling from the fire this afternoon.

The new French Catholic church and many colonial mansions had been consumed. Householders were rushing their possessions through Broad street into the cemetery. Militiamen were preventing looting.

Scores of children were separated from their parents and wandering about the city panic stricken.

The Salem authorities had again called on Boston for aid, saying the fire was getting completely beyond control. Three more engines were on their way from here and Lowell and Lawrence were also sending aid.

It was impossible to estimate the loss, nor dared any one estimate how many had been trapped and perished in the flames.

The fire severed wire communication between Salem and Boston at 4:30 this afternoon after a square mile of buildings had been burned with $1,000,000 damage. The structures destroyed included 100 residences and 12 factories.

Besides the fire department four companies of militia and the police from neighboring cities were fighting the flames. At latest accounts dynamite was being used in an effort to check the fire's spread.

Incomplete reports indicated tonight that five persons were known to be dead in the fire at Salem and that 50 were missing.

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief After Many Years

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief.

Mrs. Daniel Kintner, of Defiance, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"I had stomach trouble when I was eighteen years old that broke down my health, and for years I suffered with nervousness, headache, indigestion and nervous spasms. The spasms got so bad I would have them three or four times a week. After trying nearly every remedy recommended, I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I must say I regained my health wonderfully. I have had no severe nervousness for several years."

MRS. DAN KINTNER, 1602 Pleasant St., Defiance, O.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble.

Dr. Miles' Nervine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.

PROMISES BROKEN BY DEMOCRATS

PARTY IS AFRAID OF ITS OWN POWER, SAYS EX-PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

POLICY IS CALLED INADEQUATE

Tariff is Declared Unfair and Trust Policy "Hopelessly Wrong"—Warning is Given to Administration

PITTSBURGH, June 30.—Theodore Roosevelt delivered tonight the first political address that has come from him since his return from Brazil. It was divided, generally speaking, into three parts—an attack on the Wilson administration, an indictment of "bosses" and an exposition of the principles of the Progressive party.

The administration's tariff laws Colonel Roosevelt declared a colossal failure, particularly hard on the farmer; its anti-trust programme he branded as an economic absurdity. Its foreign policy he styled as "wretched," but on this he did not elaborate. The Democratic tariff, he insisted, had brought distress on the nation, had lowered the cost of living and had chiefly benefited foreign rivals of American business.

The solution rested, he argued, in support of the progressive movement and the enactment of laws providing for tariff revision by a non-partisan commission.

Of the "bosses" Mr. Roosevelt said what he has heretofore—that they thwarted the rank and file of the Republican party by the nomination of Mr. Taft at Chicago and in so doing "deliberately put the Democratic organization and Mr. Wilson into power."

In conclusion the colonel sketched the Progressive idea of needed anti-trust regulation by "properly empowered commissions," contrasting such proposals with legislation now pending in Washington, which he found "profoundly inadequate." Such a program alone, he contended, proved the inadequacy of the Democratic party.

"It is, and always will be," he said, "the states-rights party, the 'party afraid of power.'"

Yet the colonel warned those dissatisfied with the administration not through their resentment to throw their support to the leaders he had attacked. To do so, he said, would only insure a continuation of "government by convulsion, of a governmental seesaw between two sets of policies."

DEMANDS OF WOMEN REFUSED BY WILSON

PRESIDENT SAYS SUFFRAGE IS STATE AND NOT A NATIONAL ISSUE

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Five hundred members of the General Federation of Women's clubs marched to the White House today and drew from President Wilson a final refusal to accede to demands that he support the movement for a woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution.

The president reiterated his statement to previous delegations that his party had not embodied this question in its platform, and then for the first time announced his personal conviction that the suffrage issue was one for settlement by the states and not by the federal government.

The women went away plainly disappointed and chagrined, some of them talking of immediate action against the Democratic party. Headed by such leaders as Mrs. Ellis Loran, Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, Miss Rheta Chiles Dorr and Miss Alice Paul, they had marched to the White House with bands playing and banners flying. They massed themselves in the historic east room, many carrying babies who added their share to the unusual scene by cooing or crying accompaniments to the speeches.

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—Aviator Silas Christofferson flew over Mount Whitney today, establishing an American altitude record, according to a telephone message received here late today from Lone Pine, Inyo county, on the Los Angeles aqueduct.
