Woman Finally Recovers From Nervous Breakdown

Impoverished nerves destroy many Impoverished nerves desiroy many people before their time. Often before a sufferer realizes what the trouble is, he is on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown. It is of the utmost importance to keep your nervous system in good condition, as the nerves are the source of all bodily power. Mrs. Anna Konnz, 211 Mechanic St., Pueblo, Colo, says:

"For many years I suffered from nervous prostration; I was unable to do any house work and doctors failed to help me. Remedies I tried from draggists did not do me a particle of good. A neighbor told my husband about

Dr. Miles' Nervine

ARTHUR DALSTROM, 17, DROWN WHILE ATTEMPTING TO SWIM IN LAKE

BODY SINKS IN 50 FEET OF WATER

Booy Binks in 50 Feet of Water at Upper End of Lake-Coroner Wilson on Scene in Few

The third drowning accident in Onwego lake this month occurred early Saturday afternoon, when Arthur Dalstrom, age 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dalstrom, who live in the Mt. Tabor district, Portland, sank in 56 feet of water while attempting to swim. Up to 7 o'clock Saturday evening the body had not been recovered and those who had been working gave up for the night.

With two boy companions, Charles Wickersham and Porest Phey, who both live in Portland, young Dalstrom had left early Friday to spend several days on the lake shore. The boys arrived at the upper part of the take Saturday morning and were rowing in a skift when Wickersham and Dalstrom skift when Wickersham and Dalstrom decided to try to swim.

Dalstrom was not an expert swim-ner and after he had left the boat a few feet, he sank. Wickersham, who is 14 years old, went to his rescue, and for a short time he held Dalstrom's head above the water only to be forced to let go of the older boy to save his own life. Fhey, who was left in the boat, made an effort to row to his companions, but he was not skillfull enough with the oars to reach the place

Coroner Wilson was in Oswego at the time of the tragedy and a few minutes after the drowning he was on the spot. With County Health Officer Van Brakle, he hurried to Portland to secure a pulmoter, but the men dragging for the body were unable to bring it to the surface.
