

United States California State New Pennants

Retail Value 75 cents and $1.00

Every Home Should Contain a Pennant of the United States

THE ENTERPRISE is anxious to put one of these fine pennants in every home in Oregon

A FINE PENNANT CHEAP

These pennants are made of the very best grade University Felt in an impressive size, 36 inches long and 15 inches wide. Pennants brighten every spot in which they are placed and make glorious decorations for the home, the club, the porch, the summer home, the motor boat and the automobile. FLY YOUR PENNANT NOW!

!! Every Oregonian Should Have One !!

Pennants Changed Every Wednesday and Saturday

PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED, OREGON AND WASHINGTON STATE.

Pennant Coupon

Good for any four pennants announced.

Name _____

Address _____

Pennants Desired _____

This Coupon and 15c (to cover incidental cost of handling), entitles the holder to one or more Pennants when presented at the Circulation Department of the Enterprise. By mail, 20c in cash or stamps, or two Pennants by mail 35c.

This Coupon Good for One or More Pennants Ready for Delivery

Pennant Coupons appear in the daily and weekly issue of The Enterprise. Any coupon is good for one or more pennants which have been announced.

In ordering Pennants by mail it is necessary to send one coupon and the incidental handling price for each pennant desired.

Mail orders are sent out the same day received, if the Pennants are in stock. Should the Pennant desired be out when the order is received it will be held until we are notified to send another.

On mail orders kindly send 20 cents in stamps. Address

PENNANT Department

THE OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE

Oregon City, Oregon

HUERTA TO GATHER FORCES—REPORT

WORD RECEIVED THAT FORMER DICTATOR WILL ATTEMPT TO RESTORE POWER

CRUISERS ARE OFFERED TO GENERAL

Plans for Sharing Exile of Diaz Have Not Been Made Known—Arrival is a Solemn Incident

VERA CRUZ, July 17.—It was reported here from constitutionalist sources that General Huerta and several of his high army officers intend to gather in Nicaragua to seek Latin-American assistance with a view of forcing his restoration to power in Mexico.

PUEBLA MEXICO, July 17.—General Victoriano Huerta, who recently resigned as provisional president of Mexico, arrived here shortly after 9 o'clock tonight. He was accompanied by General Blanquet, his minister of war. General Huerta will remain aboard his train tonight.

When he expects to leave his country and share the exile of General Porfirio Diaz, whom he escorted to the coast three years ago, is yet unknown except perhaps to himself.

Captain Kohler, of the German cruiser Dresden, offered him his ship "for any use he cared to make of her," but General Huerta merely thanked him, adding that he would return his call tomorrow before noon.

The trip to this port was without incident or unpleasantness other than that caused by the terrible heat of the tropical lowlands. With Huerta and Blanquet were the general staff. The party occupied a train of nine sleeping cars, four of which were given over to troops.

Two trains, loaded with nothing but troops, proceeded General Huerta's train and arrived here an hour before the Huerta train. Behind him came another train, also loaded with soldiers to guard against any rear movements.

Captain Kohler and staff, in formal dress uniforms, were at the station and were officially presented to General Huerta. He thanked the captain for his call and for the offer of his boat.

Answering inquiries as to the state of his health, General Huerta assured the officers that he felt very well, although somewhat tired from the heat.

MME. CALLIAUX, BLAYER OF PARIS EDITOR, WHO IS NOW ON TRIAL

Mme. CALLIAUX

CALLIAUX TRIAL GROWS DRAMATIC

HUSBAND OF ACCUSED WOMAN 'CRIES' 'I ACCUSE MYSELF' FROM STAND

HISTORY OF LIFE IS REVIEWED

Ravages of Calumnies on Madame's Soul Unrealized—Ex-Premier Spends Day as Witness to Tell of Case

PARIS, July 21.—Joseph Calliaux held the court for two intense hours today, testifying in defense of his wife, who sat in the prisoner's enclosure, charged with the killing of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, on March 16 last. The appearance of M. Calliaux was hardly less dramatic than that of Mme. Calliaux yesterday.

The former premier, still one of the most powerful men in France, dominated the proceedings, imposing on them his personality and uncommon gifts of leadership.

"I accuse myself," he cried in the climax. "I committed a fault. I should myself have acted, but absorbed by public affairs, I failed to realize the ravages Calmette's calumnies had made on the soul of my wife."

M. Calliaux spoke as if in the chamber, his voice of high tenor, softened in quality, sometimes rising to falsetto in moments of excitement. He articulated freely, pointing a singularly long forefinger as he addressed the judges or the jury, and occasionally it moved in the direction of his wife.

The trial had entered on its political phase, and those who sat in the courtroom had occasion to bring to mind that Calliaux is the strong man of the radical groups now ruling France.

He would, he said, tell the jury the history of his private life from his first marriage down to the sad events which caused his presence on the stand. He explained the incident of the two letters, which he divorced had been destroyed before his divorce from his first wife. He only knew of their existence when a friend warned him that they were about to be published.

When he married Mme. Raymond he knew for the first time what true happiness was. When he spoke of her, Mme. Calliaux blushed crimson and bowed her head in her hands and sobbed silently.

CALLIAUX AND LAWYERS CLASH

EX-PREMIER DISAGREES WITH ATTORNEYS IN SENSATION. AL FRENCH TRIAL

SCENES IN COURT ARE EXCITING

Riots in Street Grow. Out of Discussion of Case—Crowds Show Sympathy for Accused Woman

PARIS, July 22.—Joseph Calliaux, ex-premier, was again today the central figure in the proceedings in the court of the Assize, where his wife, Mme. Henriette Calliaux, is on trial for the killing of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro.

The courtroom was crowded to its utmost capacity in the expectation of sensational revelations arising from M. Labori's closing ultimatum last night when he declared, he would refuse to plead unless a full statement was made by the government regarding documents which, it was alleged, were important enough to crush Calliaux.

On the opening of court the procurator general said he was authorized by the government to declare the documents referred to in yesterday's testimony did not exist. Instead, therefore, of utterly discrediting the ex-premier, the incident ended in his triumph, as his brilliant antagonist, M. Chenu, counsel for the Calmette family, was obliged to acknowledge.

The radical leader, from his seat in the body of the court, followed the case with the closest attention. Occasionally he would look tenderly in the direction of his wife, with an encouraging smile or gesture. Not a word uttered by the witnesses escaped him as he leaned forward, his hand cupped around his ear, the better to hear.

Twice in the course of the session today there were exciting scenes. Once when M. Chenu declared it did not become M. Calliaux to endeavor to soil the grave which his wife had made, the ex-premier sprang forward and exclaimed:

"Since I must take notice of what this lawyer has said, I will ask him if he will take personal responsibility for his words."

When the uproar which this accusation occasioned had subsided, M. Chenu replied:

"I take the entire responsibility. You cannot menace me here."

BOY SHAW CROWNED RIDES IN GLASS COACH

TEHRAN, July 21.—Ahmed Mirza, aged 16, was crowned Shad of Persia today, formally succeeding to the throne abdicated several years ago by his father, now an exile in Russia. The boy was driven to the parliament house in a glass coach.

You can't flatter an honest man by telling him that he's honest.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

LEAGUE RECORD BROKEN

RUBE MARQUAD PITCHES IN 21-INNING CONTEST

PITTSBURG, July 17.—Rube Marquard pitched the Giants to a 3-1 victory over Pittsburgh in a 21 inning game here today, breaking the National league record for long games, as well as for low scores.

After the third inning both teams battled along scoreless for 17 innings. Then the Giants got to Babe Adams for enough hits to score two runs. The Pirates failed to score in their half of the 21st and it was all over.

Pittsburg was first to score. In the opening inning Menner was hit by a pitched ball, advanced on Mosey's sacrifice, and came home on a corking three bagger by Hans Wagner. New York tied it up on the third. Beacher and Doyle singled in succession. Burns sent a long fly to center field, scoring Becher.

The former National guard record for long games was established June 30, 1882, when Chicago and Cincinnati battled to a 7-7 twenty inning draw. This record was tied August 24, 1905, by Chicago and Philadelphia, the Cubs winning, 2-1 after 20 innings of fast playing.

BEAVERS LOSE IN SOUTH

SEALS TAKE SECOND GAME OF SERIES; 7 TO 3.

Pacific Coast League.

Portland	548
Los Angeles	537
Venice	545
San Francisco	509
Sacramento	481
Oakland	383

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 22.—The Portland Beavers lost the game today with the Seals with a 7 to 3 score. The Seals put in a challenge line-up with Fanning in the box, while the Beavers were represented by the same players who appeared yesterday.

The Seals put up a good game in every department. Fanning held the Beavers down to seven hits, while the winners were able to land 10 hits off of Martindale, who pitched for the champs. The Beavers and the Seals each scored a run in the first inning, but in the third two Beavers crossed the plate. The Portlanders were able to maintain the lead until the sixth inning when the locals sent three men across home. The other three runs came in for the Seals in the eighth.

Today's batting order: Portland—Bancroft, ss; Derrick 1b; Rodgers, 2b; Doane, rf; Ryan, cf; Kores, 3b; Lober, lf; Fisher, c; Martindale, p. Francisco—Fitzgerald, rf; Cartwright, 3b; Schaller, lf; Downs, 2b; Mundorf, cf; Howard, 1b; Corhan, ss; Schmidt, c; Fanning, p.

BODY OF WOMAN IS FOUND UPON BEACH

GALVESTON, Tex., July 21.—With a bullet wound in the head and half buried in the sand, the body of a handsome woman was found on the beach near here today. The police believed the woman was murdered, robbed and that her assassin then dragged her body to the beach, hoping it would be carried away by the tide. There was no clue to her identity. The victim looked to be about 22 years old. The body was clad in white and the underclothing was of the finest. The bullet had gone through a Panama hat the girl wore and completely penetrated the brain. There were no powder marks.

If a friend pulls his watch on your funny story cut it short.

CHAMP CLARK VOICES REVENGE IN ONE WORD

HOUSE APPLAUDS WHEN MEMBERS RECALL RECENT HISTORY OF HIS PARTY

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—Secretary Bryan, in view of the approaching chautauqua season, asked congress for an appropriation for a "special assistant secretary of state," to be appointed by himself. The presumption was he desired a man who would be responsible to him and not to the president, the senate or the country.

The salary of the special assistant which Mr. Bryan desired to leave on the job was to have been $4,500 a year. Bryan's proposition was up before the house. The arguments had been heard and the roll had been called. The vote was 217 against the premier's special assistant.

"Call my name," growled Speaker Clark.

"Mr. Clark," called the clerk. "No."

The speaker's vote came like an explosion. It was a short word, but its mingled growl and roar voiced revenge for treason at Baltimore and all the pent up hate of two years' reflection.

When the house heard the speaker's vote and recalled the events of the last two years there went up a round of applause seldom equalled in that body.

YALE OARSMAN COMING

THOMAS GORE WILL BE SEEN ON WILLAMETTE SOON

PORTLAND, Ore., July 22.—Tommy Gore, who was a member of the Yale freshman eight of 1910 and the varsity crew of 1911, will join the Portland Rowing club before the end of the present season. This information was brought to Portland yesterday by the Portland Rowing club members, who returned from Nelson, B. C., where they participated in the rowing regatta last week.

Gore rowed stroke on the Nelson doubles crew, which won the doubles event of the regatta, and was in seat No. 2 in the senior four oared crew. He will likely try for a position on Portland's senior four oared crew next spring.

He is 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs in the neighborhood of 163 pounds. While at Yale he was coached by Averill Harriman.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

At Sacramento—	R. H. E.
Los Angeles	0
Sacramento	1

At Los Angeles—	R. H. E.
Oakland	0 5 1
Venice	6 8 0

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE

At Tacoma—	R. H. E.
Seattle	2 7 0
Tacoma	3 11 0

At Seattle—	R. H. E.
Victoria	5 0 0
Ballard	7 10 1

At Vancouver—	R. H. E.
Spokane	0
Vancouver	2

KRAFT SOLD

NEW YORK, July 22.—Infielder Clarence O. Kraft was purchased today by the New York American league club from the Newark Internationals. Kraft is the player whose sale to the Nashville Southern association club almost caused a strike of National and American league players. The threatened walkout was averted by the action of Charles Ebbetts of Brooklyn, who also owns stock in the Newark club, in purchasing for $2500 Kraft's release from Nashville.

Huerta had been practicing for life in exile for a long time. His favorite resort in Mexico City was a French cafe.