MOLALLA ACREAGE IS SOLD

MOLALLA, Ore., Oct. 10.-A syndi-cate of Oregon City men have purchased the 100-acre farm, known the O'Dean ranch, one mile and a half from Molalla, and intend to cut it up into smaller tracts and resell it. This is on the bench of the Molalla river and is irrigated. Athough irrigation is seldom needed, in dry seasons like the past one, it has been found profitable to be able to flood the fields.

L. W. Nightengale has purchased the Davidson farm on the outskirts of the city and will transform it into a modern farm. Royal Davidson purchased the Eva Colvin farm at Meadowbrook, two miles and a half from Molalla and at the end of the Meadowbrock bridge, across the Molalla river.

McCredie has picked up Herbert Sal veson for the purpose of giving him the once over since he performed to the Northwestern league, and Balls will come in handy to finish up the games in which the regular pitchers have been knocked out of the box. In this way McCredie will be able to save his regulars for the final dash to the pennant pole.

The series last week with Venice re-calls the fact that the beavers have al-ways had it on the Tigers in the last mad scramble for the pennant. They have given Hogan's crew a sound walloping every season since the Los Argeles suberb has been in the circuit.
