It is remarkable how few people really know Chinese eggs when they see them, although they can be detected instantly by their direy chocolate brown with reddish tint. The eggs are smaller in size than the American product, and so far as looks are concerned are very uninviting. Even when they first arrive nere they are not fresh as it takes perhaps 50 days to get them from the producer to the market. As storage stock they cannot be

HOP PRICES GO STILL

LOWER; SALES FORCED

Still lower prices are being named for hops in the orders now coming forward from the east. Present orders generally call for the payment of 9 %c as the extreme limit to growers for primes, which means practically 10c a pound f. o. b. Even choice goods are said to be ranging no higher than a fraction better than 10c. Late last brewers have beaten down the price being anxious to sell despite the further reduction in values. Klaber,

Wolf & Netter purchased the Crissel lot of 300 bales of primes in the Aurora sales in that section for similar qual-

The Nelson lot of about 100 bales was reported sold in the Newberg asction at 9%c, although some dealers re-
