OREGON CITY IS VICTOR

DEFEATS ARLETA IN HARD GAME—SCORE 9 TO 0

In an interesting game on the Canemah park field Sunday afternoon Oregon City won from Arleta by a score of 9 to 0. The score came from a touchdown and a place kick. The home team was considerably heavier than their Arleta opponents, and Oregon City shone in individual plays, although the team work of Arleta was the better. Mass, who played quarter on offensive and fullback on defensive, starred for the home team, and the work of Ross, Long and Kelly stood out. Although greatly handicapped by the fact that at the last minute the regular Oregon City backfield was unable to play, nevertheless the new men put up a fine game, at straight football, and without a good knowledge of the signals. The locals speak highly of the work of the lighter Arleta aggregation. The visitors put up a good clean game and did better than was expected. The result of Sunday's contest was encouraging to the local eleven. It was very apparent that with better team work, the aggregation would be able to hold its own with any of the town clubs in the vicinity. In preparation for their battle with Lents next Sunday the locals will practice hard during the week. Lents has a fast, snappy eleven which has been winning consistently during its gridiron battles this season.

HIGH SCHOOL WINS 41-0

LOCAL ELEVEN RUNS ALL OVER WOODBURN WARRIORS

Oregon City high school defeated Woodburn at Canemah park Saturday afternoon by the score of 41 to 0. Clever forward pass receiving by Miller, the local left end, was largely responsible for the overwhelming score run up on the visitors. Both elevens weighed about the same but the local bunch showed better team work, and played snappy, fast football throughout the contest. Armstrong's defensive work was a feature, for time and again the plucky right end smashed the Woodburn interference and nulled the runner unassisted. Sam Arnold officiated.

MRS. THOMSON TELLS WOMEN

How She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the pains were intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I tried it at once and found much relief. After that I had no pains at all and could do my housework and shopping the same as always. For years I have praised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it to a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way."—Mrs. THOMSON, 649 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

BEAVERS WIN PENNANT

PORTLAND TEAM WINS FIFTH CHAMPIONSHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Whatever slim hopes the Angels entertained relative to the Coast League pennant of 1914, were dispelled as the result of today's play. The Beavers walloped the Seals over in Oakland, 8 to 3, and the Angels fell before the Tigers in the south, making the chase for the bunting one iron-bound, double-riveted cinch for the Portlanders.

LAND SHOW OPENS IN BLAZE OF GLORY

PRESIDENT WILSON TOUCHES BUTTON IN WASHINGTON—OPENS BIG DISPLAY

WEST AND ALBEE SPEAK ON PROGRAM

O. E. Freytag, of Oregon City, in Charge of All the Displays—Monster Crowd Visits on Opening Night

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 26.—The first Manufacturers' and Land Products Show of Portland is on—from the start an auspicious success. Jammed to the doors, the army last night was the scene of the formal opening, which was set in motion away back in Washington by President Wilson, who touched the golden key that unfurled the great American flag on the stag of the army, and drew forth an enthusiastic and vociferous welcoming applause from the throng assembled.

Every exhibit was in place, or almost so. Before the opening was even well started, the big display arena was in apple order, and the expectant crowd literally gazed in wonder at the representative and convincing exposition of Oregon-made and Oregon-grown products. O. E. Freytag, of Oregon City has general supervision of the displays.

The Manufacturers' and Land Products Show proved to be the biggest exhibit of its kind, in a class so much of itself, that Portland has entertained. There was speechmaking and a programme, but the crowd was anxious to see as well as to hear of the Oregon resources, and while some hear the speakers heard the welcoming address of the mayor and the talk by the governor and by business men, others found their ways around the maze of displays and exhibits.

While there were exhibits, unique and novel to see, and speeches enthusiastic and factual to hear, there was also music and merriment enough to make the opening gala as well as impressive. The unfurling of the flag, arranged as all big events are, to attune with the golden key manipulations of the President of the United States, was the big ceremony, immediately following which the Campbell band marched by the model of the battleship Oregon and set the air vibrating with the "atmosphere" of the occasion.

Mrs. O. M. Clark formerly raised the flag on the battleship, and Manager Buckley directed the great crowd to the theater where the official opening exercises were to be staged. D. M. Dunne, president of the big show, named W. W. Cotton chairman of the evening at the onset, and the programme moved from the start with a precision and accuracy that presaged success from the start. Oregon-made speeches flowed then for the next hour, among the speakers being Mayor Albee, H. D. Ramsdell, president of the Portland Commercial club, Governor West, A. H. Averill, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and George M. Hyland.

"Forget politics" was the theme and "boost" was the plot of the addresses. George M. Hyland made an interesting and important announcement immediately following the formal addresses to the effect that many of the exhibits would be sent to California for the San Francisco fair.

PEOPLE AFRAID OF DEMOCRATIC RULE

CONGRESSMAN WOODS SAYS ALL SIGNS POINT TO RETURN OF REPUBLICAN ERA

PATERNALISM POLICY IS DEPLORED

Final Week of 1914 Campaign Finds Democrats Clinging Desperately to Alibis for Its Own Faults—urges to Make Good

WASHINGTON, October 28.—Congressman Frank P. Woods, of Iowa, chairman of the National Republican congressional committee, made the following statement today: "The Democratic party enters the concluding week of the campaign of 1914 with only two assets—the war in Europe and the ephemeral Bull Moose party. The Republican party is coming back into power, indications to-day point to the obliteration of the present Democratic majority in congress. There is no longer the least doubt of sweeping Republican gains in every quarter of the United States.

"The people are disgusted with Democratic incompetency. They are weary of Democratic experiments. They are tired of Democratic deceptions. There is good reason for this. The American citizen has fared poorly both at home and abroad. Industry is stagnant. Business is demoralized. Labor is unemployed. The people are ready for the restoration of the principle of protection, advocated by William McKinley under which industry thrived and the people prospered.

"The Democrats in congress have been guilty of gross extravagance. The money they have spent with profuse waste has come from the constituents of the very men sent to congress to conserve the nation's wealth and to administer its fiscal affairs economically.

"The Democratic administration has embarked on a policy of paternalism unequalled ever before in this country. The Democrats claim Jefferson as their patron saint, yet, at the same time, they are burying even the memory of his principles deeper and deeper by executive usurpation of the legislative function.

"The Democratic administration has shown thinly-veiled hostility to individual effort and the Democratic members of congress have begrudged the success of all individual enterprise.

"The Democratic congressmen should be held individually responsible by their constituents. "The people had already come to a realization of Democracy's inefficiency and of its hostility to their interests and rights when the world war came along to obscure the true issues. The eagerness with which the Democrats seized upon the terrible conflict in Europe as an excuse for all their failures which they found themselves as a result of their visionary experiments.

"The people are afraid of the Democratic party."

RECALL LOSES BY BIG VOTE

PORTLAND MAYOR AND COMMISSIONERS ARE UPHELD BY BIG MAJORITIES

RESULT A REBUKE TO ASPIRANTS

An Unexpected Large Vote Cast and "No" Vote Predominates—$25,000 is Cost of City's Verdict

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 27.—The attempted recall of Mayor Albee and Commissioners Dieck and Brewster yesterday failed miserably and decisively, according to the early returns. By a heavy majority each of the three officials was re-elected to remain in office, unless late returns completely reverse the early count.

Early last night it appeared that Mayor Albee would get a vote of more than two to one over his two competitors. Dieck and Brewster have been re-elected by a closer margin, but each of them will have votes to spare. The vote on the so-called Daly water ordinance is close, but it probably has carried. Most of the precincts are returning slight majorities for the measure.

An unexpectedly large vote was cast. Based on the total number of votes in 255 out of the 257 city precincts, it is estimated that nearly 60 per cent of the registered voters in the city went to the polls. With a total registration of 88,447 in these same precincts, the total vote cast therefore is figured at more than 52,000.

It is evident that the voters registered their disapproval of the recall by their answers to the questions on the ballot. The answers to the questions, "Shall H. R. Albee be recalled?" "Shall Robert G. Dieck be recalled?" and "Shall William L. Brewster be recalled?" were answered in the negative in each instance.

With 112 precincts incomplete the vote for the recall of Mayor Albee is 249; against his recall, 5673.

The same number of precincts give 3188 for the recall of Commissioner Dieck and 4103 against.

The vote for the recall of Commissioner Brewster was 2597, with 4067 against.

Mayor Albee also received a majority of first choice votes over B. E. Kennedy and Eugene E. Smith.

Likewise Commissioner Dieck was given a majority over Dr. George H. E. Alby and Dr. George Parrish.

As W. A. Leet was the only candidate against Commissioner Brewster the vote was restricted to first choice.

It is apparent from the early returns that those who voted for the incumbent officials did not exercise their second choice privileges. On the other hand those who voted for either one of the recall candidates almost invariably vote for the other one on second choice.

The same precincts above referred to gave 2587 for the Daly water ordinance and 3145 against.
