Current Happenings of Interest in and About Oregon City

COUNCIL CUTS IN ALL DEPARTMENTS

Whole Family Benefited By Wonderful Remedy. There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The busy, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well. A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something like Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills to relieve the strain on the nerves. Mrs. J. B. Hartsfield, 33 Corput St., Atlanta Ga., writes: 'I have on several occasions been vastly relieved by the use of your medicine, especially the Anti-Pain Pills, which I keep constantly on hand for the use of myself, husband and two sons. Nothing in the world equals them as a headache remedy. Often I am enabled by the use of one or two of the Pills to continue my housework when otherwise I would be in bed. My husband joins me in my praise of the Anti-Pain Pills and Nervine.' Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are relied upon to relieve pain, nervousness and irritability in thousands of households. Of proven merit after twenty years' use, you can have no reason for being longer without them. At all Drug Stores, 25 cents 25 cents. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

JUDGE DIMICK IN RACE FOR MAYOR

Former Executive Accepts Call of 250 Citizens—Statement Issued. Declares Office is Not Wanted. Amendment Providing for Bonds to Take up Warrants is Advocated—Turn Off Officials, Not City Lights, He Says. Judge Grant B. Dimick is a candidate for mayor. This was made certain Saturday afternoon when he issued a formal statement in which he outlines his views and platform and accepted the call of the 250 citizens who signed the petition presented to him Thursday. Judge Dimick's entrance into the field will make the contest for mayor this year a two-sided affair. Mayor Jones seeks re-election on a platform in which he advocates pure water, the improvement of Main street, the operation of the elevator, and the management of the city under the budget plan. Mayor Jones has filed his petition and the other of Judge Dimick will be recorded within a few days. Judge Dimick outlines his platform in the following statement: 'I have recently been presented with a petition signed by a large number of the residents of Oregon City asking me to become a candidate for the office of mayor, and while that action upon my part is distasteful to me and also to my business associates, nevertheless, I feel that the conditions now existing in Oregon City should be changed in order that the good name of the city will not be continually embarrassed by unfavorable newspaper reports, which lead people throughout the state to imagine that the corporation of Oregon City is ready to go in to the hands of a receiver. 'Regardless of who is elected to the office of mayor or councilmen, the business policies of the city should be regulated so that the citizens or banks who purchase outstanding warrants would have confidence in the ability of the city to redeem its warrants in the due course of business. Financial Cuts Favored. 'The number of officers and the amount of their compensation, together with other fixed charges of the city as established by the saloon licenses were paid to the city treasury, and under the old saying, 'come easy, go easy,' extravagance prevailed, and after the local option election last year the source of revenue derived from the saloon licenses was cut off, and then the running expenses of the city depended almost entirely upon direct taxation, therefore, a few months after the license revenue was cut off and the running expenses of the city continued as before, a deficiency on our balance sheet naturally presented itself, which caused the citizens and banks, who usually handle our warrants, to refuse to purchase them, as there was no possibility of the city being able to redeem within a reasonable length of time. 'One of the first things to be done with our city is to cut off every dollar of useless expense, and at the same time not cripple the efficiency of municipal government. There should be a large deduction from the present expense in the city engineer's office, if the city recedes to the police department and by eliminating to a large degree the system of fines, and install instead a system of jail sentences without indulging too freely in the parole system, a marked decrease in petty offences will immediately become noticeable. Amendment Needed, He Says. 'We now have a large amount of indebtedness represented in outstanding general and warrants which are causing considerable anxiety among the holders. These warrants are drawn 6 per cent interest, and it will be necessary to marshal this warrant indebtedness and amend the charter so as to issue bonds for the amount of that indebtedness and as municipal bonds at 5 per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, are in demand, the city recede effort of saving 1 per cent between the rate of interest represented in the bonds as compared with the present rate of interest on the warrants. This character amendment should not carry with it an extra arbitrary levy, as the taxpayers will not permit a heavier levy than we now have, unless after a liberal reduction of our present municipal expenses shall have been made, and they are convinced that a heavier levy than the charter now permits is necessary to pay the running expenses of the city, make the necessary improvements and pay the interest on our present municipal indebtedness, and also create a sinking fund to be used to diminish the principal. Pure Water Favored. 'This is not true to the fact about providing jobs for a few "pats." We must not let such trifles of personal interest obscure the big question, which is the welfare and upbuilding of the whole city. Before we talk about turning off street lights for economy's sake, we should look about us to see if some "turning off" can't be done in places where the city's welfare will not suffer in the least. 'There is a growing sentiment in this city for a supply of water free from the possibility of contamination, and I was one of the first who contributed private funds toward a survey with that purpose in view, and sincerely hope that some day in the near future our dreams of mountain water will be a reality. This question however, is one for the voters of the city and not a question for the mayor or council to determine. I have always been opposed to a wooden pipeline, which is subject to early decay, and believe that when a water system has once been established at great cost, its permanent character will be an asset and not an expense to keep in repair. How to Prevent Croup. It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Johns, Elida, Ohio, relates her experience as follows: 'My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and when he began having that croup cough I would give him one or two drops of it and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine because children take it willingly, and it is safe and reliable.' Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)

HACKETT NOT IN RACE FOR MAYOR

COUNCILMAN QUITS CANDIDACY TO LET VOTERS FACE ISSUE SQUARELY. 250 SIGN PETITION FOR DIMICK. Former Executive Has Reached No Decision But It is Considered Probable He Will Run—Woodward Files for Council. With the announcement from E. C. Hackett Thursday afternoon that he would not file his petition for mayor, the local political situation has been changed considerably. Mayor Jones has already filed his petition with Recorder Loder for re-election. Judge Grant B. Dimick was presented with a petition containing 250 names Thursday and although announced at the time that he has reached no decision, it is generally understood that he will be a candidate. No other possible candidates for the mayor's chair have been mentioned and it is fairly predicted that the race will be between Mayor Jones and Judge Dimick and not a three-cornered fight as was thought only a week ago. Clear Choice, Hackett's Object. In retiring from the field, Mr. Hackett wishes the voters to face clearly a choice between Mr. Jones and Judge Dimick. He asks his friends to vote for Mayor Jones if they wish a continuation of the present administration and for Judge Dimick if they wish a change. Mr. Hackett announced early last week that he would be a candidate although many of his friends at the time were of the opinion that he might withdraw before December 2 when all petitions must be filed. He is now completing his first year as councilman and during his service with the council, has always stood for strict economy. If he had remained in the race, it is known that he would have expressed drastic cuts in the city's expenditures. The petition which was presented to Judge Dimick Thursday has been in the hands of his friends for several weeks. The statement which was signed by the 250 voters follows: Dimick's Record Approved. 'We believe that the city administration during the coming year, should have the counsel of a strong, experienced and capable executive. In subscribing our names hereto we express our conviction that Judge Grant B. Dimick, in the capacity of mayor can again, as heretofore, render the city splendid service and we call upon him, even if it require a personal sacrifice, to allow his name to be presented to the electors at the December election. Both Mayor Jones and Judge Dimick approve of a policy of economy. The present executive indorses the plan of the council to draft a budget and hold the city within that estimate for the next year. Mayor Jones also favors the improvement of Main street at the expense of the property owners, the completion and operation of the Seventh street elevator at as early a date as possible and the construction of the pipeline from the south fork of the Clackamas river. Judge Dimick does not favor the construction of a wooden line from the Clackamas, as he believes that it will not be durable. R. E. Woodward Files. It is generally understood that Mayor Jones would re-appoint City Attorney Schuebel and Recorder Loder if the voters select him to succeed himself. Judge Dimick has not hinted what he would do with these two important offices but it is considered probable that Attorney Schuebel would not be re-appointed. R. E. Woodward has filed his petition with Recorder Loder for the council from the first ward to succeed J. F. Albright. He is the first candidate to declare himself from that section of the city, although J. J. Tobin and Councilman Albright have been mentioned. A petition has been put in circulation asking Richard Greaves to become a candidate from the third ward but it has not been filed. No other candidate has appeared for this place.

CHANGES ARE MANY IN LOCAL LAW FIRMS

U'REN MOVES TO PORTLAND—GEORGE C. BROWNELL NOW ALONE—SIEVERS MOVES. During the last week there has been a general shake-up of Oregon City attorneys which has left only a few unaffected. Law firms and partnerships have been broken and new ones formed at a rate which has hardly been equaled for several years. W. S. U'ren, defeated candidate for governor and known as "father of the Oregon system," will no longer be with U'ren and Schuebel, but will go to Portland where he has formed partnership with Frank Hesse. L. Stipp will become Mr. Schuebel's partner. Justice of the Peace Sievers is no longer with B. N. Hicks in the Weinhardt building. His new offices on Main street, near the Star theatre, were opened Monday and it is rumored on good authority that Charles Sievers, brother of the justice, will move from the Beaver building to settle near the courtroom. The partnership of Brownell and Stone has been dissolved and William Stone will open offices in the Beaver building. Charles Moulton, now a student, will probably become a partner of Mr. Stone if he passes the bar examination, according to reports Monday. George C. Brownell, former mayor of Oregon City and high in the Republican councils of the state, will maintain his offices in the same building. Only a few days have passed since the firm of Cross and Hammond expanded and Thomas Burke was taken into the partnership. The firm is now known as Cross, Hammond and Burke.

HELENE ALVES IS SENT TO PORTLAND

AFTER EIGHT YEARS, 16-YEAR-OLD GIRL IS RETURNED TO AID SOCIETY. FOSTER MOTHER FIGHTS FOR ADOPTION. Mrs. Belle Barker "Steals" Child From Home at Hood River—Case Began in 1903 Before Judge Ryan. The story of the adoption of Helene Alves and of subsequent adventures which extended from 1903 to the present time, ended Tuesday evening when County Judge Anderson sent the girl, now aged 16 years, back to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society in Portland. The story began in 1903 when the parents of Helene Alves, then living in Clackamas county, failed to provide for her. She was taken before the County Judge Ryan and committed to the aid society. She was adopted after a few months in the Portland institution by Mrs. Belle Barker who took the girl to her home in Washington. Helene lived in the Washington town eight years when Mr. and Mrs. Barker separated and the girl went back to the aid society in Portland. Early this year, Mrs. J. W. Martin, of Hood River, took the girl to her home. In the meantime, Mrs. Barker moved to Dallas and about three months ago she went to Hood River and while the Martin family was at church, she ran away with the girl and took her to Dallas. Mrs. Barker attempted to secure an adoption from the Polk county court but was not successful. Then she brought proceedings in the circuit court but the girl was committed to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society again. When the time came to take her to Portland, the girl could not be found and there was no trace of her until she began proceedings in the Clackamas county court to have the order of 1903, committing her to the aid society, vacated. Her petition was refused, and she will return to the Portland institution. The girl did not appear through a guardian. Judge Grant B. Dimick represented the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society and Glenn O. Holman and Walter A. Tooze, Jr., for the girl.

Oregon City society was that of Miss Alice Larsen to Mr. Leigh Wayne Huggins of Portland, which was solemnized Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Larsen. The Larsen home was artistically arranged with yellow chrysanthemums and asparagus ferns. Immediately preceding the ceremony which was performed by Dr. H. Marcotte, of Westminster Presbyterian church, of Portland, Mr. Frances Curtis of Portland, sang, "Oh, Promise Me," Miss Hazel Wigham played the wedding march (Lohengrin) as the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She was charming in a gown of ivory crepe, with trimmings of silver and Carriek McCross lace her veil was held in place with pearls and a wreath of orange blossoms. There were no attendants. After the wedding ceremony a small reception was given to only a few relatives and friends of both parties. Mrs. Huggins has a host of friends in this city, she is a member of the Presbyterian church and also a member of a number of society clubs. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Larsen and was a teacher in the Oregon City high school the past few years. Mr. Huggins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Huggins of Portland, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a prominent young business man of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Huggins left for Portland where they will take up their residence.

Friday afternoon Mr. Vedder left with County Superintendent Calavan where they attended a meeting at the Molalla school Saturday morning, after which a reception was given for the teachers. During Mr. Vedder's term as supervisor of schools he has covered at most 4000 miles in his territory, over half of this by foot. Mr. Vedder devotes much time in the interests of the various schools in his district. GIRLS SENT TO HOME. Frankie Dwiggins and Eloise Miller, both aged 15 years, were sent to the Louise home in Portland Monday by Juvenile Judge Anderson. They were charged with being dependent. They will be held at the Louise home until the new state industrial home for girls is completed at Salem when they will be transferred to the new institution.

WEST LINN TAX RATE LOWEST IN COUNTY

Of all the incorporated towns and cities in Clackamas county, West Linn will probably have the lowest tax levy. At a school meeting held in the Sunset building Tuesday night, a tax of 3 mills was levied for the district. Of this levy 2.5 mills will be used for maintenance and .4 mills for repairs. The total tax levy in the town across the river will probably be about .84 mills. The state and county rates combined will be in the neighborhood of 19 mills and the West Linn City levy is 2 mills. COUNTY DRYS SPEND $225. The Committee of One Hundred for Clackamas county spent $225.50 in the late campaign, according to the statement filed with the secretary of state by L.
