SUFFRAGE STATE ISSUE--PRESIDENT

FOR SIXTH TIME, WILSON DECLINES TO SUPPORT NATIONAL AMENDMENT

CONVICTION DEEPLY HELD, HE SAYS

Petitioners Are Told Matter is One For States to Decide--Long Interval is Granted To Delegation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—President Wilson declined today for the sixth time since he has entered the White House to support a Federal Constitutional amendment for woman suffrage. When a delegation of Democratic women, who declared they had helped to elect him, presented the sixth formal petition the President repeated his previous declaration that he considered suffrage a state issue.

Mrs. George A. Armes, president of the District of Columbia branch of the Wilson and Marshall League; Miss Alberta Hill of New York, and Dr. Frances McLaughlin, spokesman for the delegation which called at the White House, reminded the President that the House would vote on the suffrage amendment January 12, and asked that he lend his moral support to the movement.

"I am most unaffectedly complimented by this visit that you have paid me," the President told the women. "I have been called on several times to say what my position is on the important matter that you are so deeply interested in. I want to say that nobody can look on the fight you are making without great admiration, and I certainly am one of those who admire the tenacity and the skill and the address with which you try to promote the matter that you are interested in."

"But, I, ladies, am tied to a conviction, which I have had all my life, that changes of this sort ought to be brought about state by state. If it were not a matter of female suffrage, if it were a matter of any other thing connected with suffrage, I would hold the same opinion. It is a long-standing and deeply matured conviction on my part, and therefore I would be without excuse to my own constitutional principals if I lent my support to this very important movement for an amendment to the Constitution of the United States."

CONNIE SECURES LAJOIE. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 5.—Napoleon Lajoie, former manager of the Naps and recognized as king of second basemen for many years, was today released to the Philadelphia Athletics. Connie Mack came here and closed the deal with President Somers.

Larry came to Cleveland in May, 1903, from the Athletics; thus he returns to his old love. Lajoie has consented to the deal to return to Philadelphia. His contract has two years to run.

HARLEM TOMMY JABBED. NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The passing of "Harlem Tommy" Murphy as a pugilistic attraction was seen here today as a result of the beating he sustained last night at the hands of Willie Beecher in a 10-round bout before the Long Acre Athletic club. Murphy was unable to do anything with Beecher, the latter mauling the veteran ringman about the ring and irritating him by swinging left jolts to Tommy's sore left ear.

PITCHER WEST TO TIGERS. LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—After weeks of dickerings, the Venice club of the Pacific Coast Baseball league became today the owner of Pitcher H. West, formerly of the Portland Beavers. Manager Hogan, of Venice, announced that he had purchased West outright, but refused to make public the price.

Two years ago West experienced a good season at Portland and was regarded as one of the best twirlers in the league. Last year, partially because of illness, he was unable to maintain his pace. Hogan expects him to be one of his mainstays next season.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.
