WILSON GETS THE LITERACY CLAUSE

IN THREE HOUR DEBATE AT WHITE HOUSE.

VETO OF IMMIGRATION BILL IS EXPECTED BY CONGRESS

If President Does Not Act Before Thursday, Measure Will Become Law Without Further Action of Any Kind.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.-Per more than three hours today President Wilson listened to appeals that he sign the immigration bill and pleas that he veto it, voiced by the sokesman of 100 men and women who packed the historic east room of the White House.

The speakers were labor leaders. publicists, social workers, students and others representing many intereats in life, most of them contending for or against the literacy test which the bill proposes shall be applied to LLOYD BENSON IS INJURED determine the fitness of immigrants to become citizens of the United
