STAFFORD.

March has been a beautiful month so far, and every one has enjoyed it. There has been a very bad place in the road near Mr. Schatz, that is almost impassable. But men have been working on it at half pay for a number of days so it will be safe for vehicles of all kinds, although somewhat rough as yet.

Dr. Mount offered some time ago, we hear, to pay for the crushed rock if the neighbors would haul it, and no one seems to know if his generous offer holds good yet now that the foundation is made solid.

Mrs. Aerni, who has been very sick, is now better and can be up most of the day, although still weak, and her voice is slowly coming back to her for which her family and numerous friends feel very thankful.

Clarence Thompson, who has been running his Ford as a jitney in Portland for some time, was taken sick. After being home a number of days, Dr. Mount was called and declared it to be smallpox and quarantined the house last Friday, and the young man is up and about. Carl, a brother, is now sick in bed and the family are undecided at the present writing (Tuesday) whether he has the smallpox or a case of the gripe. They have not called the doctor to see him yet. The rest of the family we hear over the phone, are as well as usual.

The George place, above the cemetery, has been sold to parties from St. Johns, who have moved in and taken possession and are said to be three old bachelors, and while the neighbors deplore the absence of a family on the place, they still live in hopes for the future.

Mr. Van Northwick has the field south of his house all cleared, trees cut into fire wood, stumps blown out, ground broke and ready to be put in shape for potatoes when the proper time comes.

It is a great improvement in the neighborhood. The Ladies' circle met with Mrs. August Dehlar last Thursday and cut and made dresses for her little girls.

C. M. Gage and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Chapel, of Grants Pass, took dinner at John P. Gages' Saturday and returned to Portland Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Chapel is looking over real estate in Portland with a view to purchasing. Her husband is a registered druggist, who was educated at Ann Arbor, Mich., and was friends of the Gage family in that state years ago.

Proper Treatment for Biliousness. For a long time Miss Lula Skelton, Churchville, N. Y., was bilious and had sick headache and dizzy spells. Chamberlain's Tablets were the only thing that gave her permanent relief. Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)

CLACKAMAS.

N. A. Merrick and family departed for Zanesville, Ohio, last week where they expect to take up their residence again. Mr. Merrick has relatives there. We wish them well, but after their residing here five years, we would not wonder but what they will sigh for western climes again. Their removal from here has taken a pupil from the school.

Miss Laura Bachmann, teacher of the Oak Grove school near Macksburg, spent the week-end with home folks at Brookside Farm.

A farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, Sr., on the evening of the 17th in honor of their son, Lee and his wife. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all present. The color scheme in the decorations was green, which was beautifully carried out and so appropriate for the day. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harrington expect to go up on the Santiam river in the near future where the former has accepted a position in a government fish hatchery. Mr. and Mrs. John Talbot, Mrs. Harrington's parents, will remove to the same place also. We are sorry to lose them as neighbors for they rank among the most public-spirited citizens of Clackamas.

The Clackamas Amateur Dramatic club will present its play, "Diamonds and Hearts," at Parkplace in the school building, Friday evening. The same was given at this place February 26th before an appreciative audience.

DIRTY EGGS CAUSE OF HEAVY LOSSES

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 25.—Dirty eggs are causing heavy losses to producers of this state, leading authorities here placing the loss at thousands of dollars annually as well as the decrease in the demand.

With storage operations here now well under way, there is a liberal demand for clean stock and extreme prices are being offered for such offerings.

Because of the fact that a very large per cent of Oregon's egg production is of dirty color, outside markets to which we are compelled to sell our surplus during periods of great production, are unwilling to pay for them what they can secure good clean stock from other sections, notably California.

While there is still a rather good tone in the egg market at this time and prices are showing practically no change, the fact that storage interests are dumping the dirty stock on the market in competition with current receipts from the country, is causing some apprehension among receivers generally.

STATE ONION TRADE HAS A WEAKER TONE

PORTLAND, Ore., March 18.—Weaker tone is showing generally for onions, with growers much more eager to let go. While limited business in No. 1 stock is still reported as high as $1 a cental f. o. b. county shipping points, many growers are alleged to be selling No. 1 stock at No. 2, and thereby shading the minimum quotation in effect among members of the Confederated Oniongrowers' association.

While the first signs of weakness in the onion trade of the Pacific northwest were visible along Front street, at the present time there is a decided lack of snap to the general trade all along the coast.

California still has quite fair stocks of onions in storage and owing to the non-keeping quality of these offerings, lower values are ruling.

Bandon is to get harbor improvements in spite of bills falling in congress.

A HEAVY BURDEN

A Bad Back Makes Life Miserable For Many Oregon City People.

A bad back is a heavy burden. A burden at night when bedtime comes.

Just as bothersome in the morning. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it? Know they are for kidney backache—and for other kidney ills?

If you don't, some Oregon City people do.

Read a case of it: Joseph McDermott, Washington St., Oregon City, Oregon, says: "I was almost flat on my back with kidney and bladder trouble. I was so lame and stiff that I could hardly hobble around and it was all I could do to get up in the morning. My kidneys were irregular in action and the kidney secretions were scanty. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and I soon got well. I think even more highly of Doan's Kidney Pills now than I did when I publicly recommended them a few years ago. They have certainly done me a lot of good."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McDermott had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)
