

Buys Property Already His B. F. Kellogg Sues E. M. Howell

Ability to sell a man something that he does not want and does not need is often described as a test of a salesman's ability but, judging from a suit filed in the circuit court by B. F. Kellogg, E. M. Howell, the defendant in this action, has gone the ancient test one better.

For, Kellogg claims, Howell actually sold him property that was already his own and that he had for many years. Kellogg asks for $179.64, the alleged purchase price of the property. The suit was filed for Kellogg by Attorney William Stone and Walter Dimick.

Kellogg, an employee in one of the local mills, owns a tract of land near the corner of Twelfth and Taylor streets. Adjoining this tract is a second of which Kellogg claims ownership. The two parcels of lands have been used by Kellogg for several years, but in the fall of 1913, Howell told Kellogg that the second piece of property was his and not Kellogg's and that unless a payment was made at once he would sell the property to a third party, claims Kellogg.

Kellogg believed Howell and without looking up the records in the case or even referring to his own deeds, the former "bought" the property. A year after the transaction was closed, Kellogg began to doubt the sale as he had no deed to the land from Howell.

William Stone is of the opinion that a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses should be brought against Howell.

TEMPLETON IS HIT BY R. L. HOLMAN WHO IS FINED $25

DISCUSSION ON SEVENTH STREET STEPS AT NOON LEADS TO BLOWS.

"DON'T HIT" IS CRY

"I Don't Want to Fight," Says Councilman—Business Man is Given $25 Fine by City Recorder

Mr. Holman's reply was brief, but effectual. Two right swings landed against Templeton's neck and the councilman begged for mercy. He covered against the railing.

"Don't hit me," he cried. "I don't want to fight."

After the altercation Mr. Templeton marched down town and swore out a warrant before City Attorney Schuebel on an assault and battery charge. Holman entered a plea of guilty and was assessed with a fine of $25 by City Recorder Loder, who remitted $15 of the amount and Mr. Holman paid $10.

"It was worth the money," he said. Holman, who is a prominent business man and a former member of the city council, is chairman of the house committee of the Commercial club, and that is where the trouble began.

Early in the year the club decided to stage a billiard tournament, and Templeton, who is one of the most expert players in the organization, was made a member of the handicap committee. It was freely asserted about the club that Templeton used his position on the committee to procure a favorable handicap for himself, but the players stood for it, and the tournament started. Within the last few weeks there has been considerable grumbling over the manner in which the tournament was being conducted and last week the house committee met and by a unanimous vote of its members, Mr. Holman, Dr. Clyde Mount and Fred Johnson, concluded to call the affair off, which was done and a notice posted in the club rooms to that effect.

The action of the committee "peevied" Mr. Templeton. He wanted to win, and he proceeded to take his grouse out on Holman, but he evidently ran up against the wrong man.

GOVERNMENT CLOSES HOTEL

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The Grand hotel, situated at the corner of Fifteenth and New York avenue, will be shut down tight tomorrow by order of the government. The hotel is owned by the United States, and was leased on condition that no disorderly or illegal conduct be allowed there. The lease was terminated by Hon. Bryon R. Newton, assistant secretary of the treasury department, on account of breach of contract, after a police investigation of the conduct of the hotel. The hotel was called the "Bucket of Blood" in newspaper articles which criticized severely the appropriateness of the government's lease.

Stew

"Mamma, I'm afraid papa was pretty slow when he was a young man."

"Perhaps he was. He always paid his debts and used good English and knew nothing about cigarettes and never saw a taxicab and hadn't any clubs, and was able to support a wife before he married. I guess he was pretty slow."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Taking Care of the Children.

No parent would consciously be careless of the children. Joe A. Rozmarin, Clarkston, Neb., uses Foley's Honey and Tar for his two children for croup, coughs and colds. He says, "We are never without Foley's Honey and Tar in the house." A distressing cough, sleepless nights, and raw, inflamed throat lead to a run-down condition in which the child is not able to resist contagious or infectious diseases. Foley's Honey and Tar is truly healing and prompt in action. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

BEAVERS DEFEAT ANGELS IN FIRST GAME OF SEASON

THREE TO ONE SCORE IS PILED UP AGAINST LOS ANGELS TEAM.

HIGGINBOTHAM, IN BOX, SHOWS MUCH OF OLD TIME SKILL

For Four Innings No Score is Made But in Sixth, Two Beavers Cross Plate—8000 See Opener.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 30.—Contrary to popular tradition, expectation of local ball fans and, some say, even of the boss of the Beavers himself, the Portlanders today defeated the locals with a 3 to 1 score in the opening game of the Pacific Coast league.

Higginbotham, the veteran of last year's successful Beaver team, was in the box for the winners and held down the Angels to eight hits. Boles, a new member of the local team, did the heavy work for his team.

Bill Davis, of the Beavers, was the first man at the bat and swung wild as Mayor Ross pitched the first ball over for Los Angeles. Chief of Police Sebastian, behind the bat, stabbed it and the long race for the pennant was on. Eight thousand people crowded into the park to see the game.

The first four innings passed without any special features but in the fifth, the Beavers, in the old form that gave them the championship last year, came in strong and brought in the first two runs of the season. Stumpf and Lober singled and Murphy sacrificed, putting his two teammates on second and third. Then came Higginbotham to the bat who singled, scoring Stumpf and Lober. Davis, the next batter, was out after gaining first and a double play ended Higginbotham's trip around the circuit. Speas brought in the third tally in the sixth. Maggert, the center fielder for the

CANBY HIGH SCHOOL WINS DEBATING HONORS OF THE COUNTY BY DEFEATING MILWAUKIE TEAMS

Canby high school defeated Milwaukie in a dual debate held under the auspices of the Clackamas County School League Friday night and won the championship of the county. Out of the six judges for the two debates, the Canby teams won five.

The county was divided into two districts by the school league. Canby defeated Molalla in the southern district and Milwaukie won from Estacada by default. The question was: Resolved that the literacy test shall be applied as a further restriction to immigration. Each of the two schools had an affirmative and a negative team. The affirmative team of each school defeated the negative in the home town of the latter. At Canby, the home team won with a 2 to 1 decision. The teams were: Canby, negative, Clarie Haines and Sophia Meeks; Milwaukie, affirmative, Bertha Pulley and Dorris Martin. The judges at Canby were County Superintendent J. E. Calavan, W. H. Cochrane, of Clackamas, and William Hammond, of Oregon City.

The verdict of the judges at Milwaukie was unanimous in favor of Canby. The teams there were: Canby, affirmative, Henry Zimmerman and Evelyn Nebendahl; Milwaukie, negative, Naomi Hart and William Miller. Dean Butler, of Oregon City; F. J. A. Toomey, superintendent of Oregon City schools, and Henry F. Pfingston, principal of the Oregon City high school and president of the Clackamas County School League were the judges. W. H. Gracie, chairman of the Milwaukie school board, presided.

If Your Subscription Expires Soon It Will Pay You to Renew Now

For Never Before Has This Paper Made the Premium Offer it Now Extends to its Readers

In making an inventory of our premiums we find that we have a wide assortment but, in many cases, not enough of one article to make a permanent offer to our subscribers. We want to clean our stock room, to distribute this merchandise before it begins to lose its value by becoming shop-worn.

Look at the date on your paper. If your subscription has expired or will expire within the next few months, this is an offer you cannot afford to neglect. We mean it when we say these offers are unusual. Read them if you doubt it.

A Child Can Run the National Vacuum Cleaner

The National Vacuum cleaners are, without a doubt, the best hand cleaners on the market. They are strong, durable, and, above all, practical. A child can run one with ease. Full instructions accompany each cleaner.

With a National, you can get dirt out of your carpets even after a thorough sweeping. You can go over your curtains and remove all dust and dirt without even taking them from the walls. The National is so simple that it can withstand much hard usage and yet is efficient. They are the only practical cleaners in districts where there is no electricity yet they are as good as the expensive electrical machines. We secured a large quantity of these cleaners over a year ago and can make an exceptional offer.

We will ship to you postpaid, one cleaner for a six years' subscription to the weekly Enterprise or a three years' subscription to the daily mail. If you do not wish to subscribe so far ahead, induce your friends to take the paper or renew their subscription.

The National in Use

This is Probably the Most Unusual Offer of All

Do you own a hand painted view of the falls of the Willamette river? Would such a picture, done in oil, realistic, and true to actual conditions, appeal to you?

The Enterprise was fortunate in securing the services of a Portland artist who made a study of the Willamette falls. He painted several large pictures and, after being thoroughly acquainted with his subject, was induced to paint a limited number of pictures of the falls for the Enterprise. The pictures measure seven by ten inches.

We do not hesitate in saying that this is the most unusual premium offer of all. The painting is a fit decoration for any home and when framed will receive the admiration of all who see it.

We will send you this picture, postpaid, for a one year subscription to the daily Enterprise by mail or a two year subscription to the weekly Enterprise.

Only Eight 3-Piece Scissor Sets Are Left.

Here again the advantage of buying in quantities direct from eastern agents of the manufacturer is evident. This three-piece scissor set, consisting of a pair of large shears, button hole scissors and embroidery scissors, is the same set that you would pay $1 or $1.50 for at your store. They are made of good steel and are strong and durable. We have yet to receive a complaint from a family that secured a set of these scissors from us.

One year's subscription to the weekly Enterprise by mail or two years' subscription to the weekly will result in a set being sent to you. As we have only eight sets left, you had better hurry if you want one.

A Six Months Subscription to the Daily Brings a Fountain Pen

Yes sir! That is just what we mean. A six months' subscription to the daily Enterprise by mail will bring you one Popular Fountain Pen.

The Popular has no gold bands, no frills and fancy improvements. It is all pen. It is intended to be used for writing not as an ornament. And it does write. When used properly, the Popular pen will give you satisfaction.

And, remember that a six months' subscription to the daily or one year's subscription to the weekly is all that is required to bring you one of these pens.

Pennants Such as These Are Ideal for Library or Den

These pennants, measuring 14 by 35 inches, are made of heavy felt and letters are stamped on. We bought an even thousand pennants at one order and secured a remarkable price, a fact of which you can take advantage.

We have about an eighth of the original order left and included in the lot are Oregon Agricultural College, Washington, Cuba, Harvard and Alaska.

We will send postpaid two pennants for a year's subscription to the weekly or four pennants for one year's subscription to the daily Enterprise by mail.

These unusual offers will continue until our stock room is empty of premiums; it may be soon.
