

ANOTHER HOUSE IN NORTHERN PART OF THE COUNTY IS VISITED BY DAY-LIGHT ROBBER

The latest of a series of daring day-light robberies in the northern part of the county was committed Thursday afternoon near Concord on the Oakland road, when the home of Mrs. J. W. Tensing was entered and a quantity of jewelry and $15 in cash was taken.

Tensing returned at 7:30 o'clock, after an absence of about an hour and a half. She telephoned to Oregon City and Constable Frost left at once for the scene of the crime. He returned late in the afternoon, and about 5 o'clock returned with Sheriff Wilson for Concord to continue their search for the man.

Morey Seeks Wife's Name Husband Was Oswego Teacher Clerk Harrington Gets Letter

In quest of the name of the woman he married in 1912, Clare G. Morey has addressed the following letter to Miss Iva Harrington, county clerk: "The County Clerk, Oregon City, Oregon. Dear Sir:—Will you kindly send me the name of the woman that was married to Clare G. Morey on June 6, 1912, and greatly oblige. Truly yours, CLARE G. MOREY. McEwen, Oregon, April 5, 1915." Records in County Clerk's Harrington's office show that Clare G. Morey was married July 6, 1912, instead of June 6, 1912, to Nellie M. Goodwin in the office of County School Superintendent T. J. Gary by Rev. T. B. Ford, pastor of the First Methodist church. Mr. Gary is now principal of a Portland school but County Superintendent Calavan remembers Morey who, he says, is about 70 years old. Morey was a teacher in the Oswego schools in 1906-11 and lived there several years following his marriage. Rev. Ford remembers the wedding and said yesterday afternoon that the couple made Oswego their home.

Neither County Clerk Harrington, who remembers the incident, Mr. Calavan nor Rev. Ford could recall Nellie M. Goodwin. She gave Clackamas county as her address.

MAN WHO WILL DOMINATE PUBLIC BOARD CONTROLLING BILLIONS OF DOLLARS

COL. WILLIAM HAYWARD

ALBANY, N. Y., April 7.—Colonel William Hayward, the legal adviser of Governor Whitman, who has been made public service commissioner, is a man of national reputation. He will represent the Whitman administration on this body, which has control over the operations of not only millions, but billions of capital, invested in public utility corporations.

Colonel Hayward was one of the advisers of President Taft's administration and was for two years secretary of the Republican national committee. He is a son of a former United States senator from Nebraska and was colonel of a Nebraska regiment during the Spanish-American war. He was in active service in the Philippines. The ability he showed there won him a promotion from a captaincy to colonel.

A Cold Night in China. One of the facts that ineffaceably cut into my memory during my first winter, some years ago, in Newchwang was the finding on one morning about New Year's time thirty-five masses of ice, each mass having been a living man at 10 o'clock the preceding night. The thermometer was a good bit below zero. The men had just left the opium dens, where they had been enjoying themselves. The keen air sent them to sleep, and they never awakened.—North China Herald.
