ARMOUR OPPOSED TO LABOR ORGANIZATION. MEN HAVE OTHER REMEDIES, HE SAYS—CHICAGO HEARING IS ENDED. CHICAGO, April 16.—The Chicago hearing of the United States commission on industrial relations, begun two weeks ago, was concluded today with a fitting glance at working conditions and wages in local packing houses. The chief witness was J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour & Co., and the essential part of his testimony bearing on repeated testimony of others that organization is the remedy through which workmen may attain their rights, was to the effect that he was opposed to the unionization of his employees. He cited the strike of 1901, when the offer of the packers to arbitrate was declined, he said. The union he declared, was crushed, and since then organizers had been discouraged.
