

LOCAL BRIEFS

T. L. Turner, of Stafford, was a business visitor in this city Thursday. Homer Mays, of Malino, was an Oregon City business visitor Wednesday.

High street a year ago. Mr. Stipp secured the statement of H. J. Pollard who was employed on the street under Contractor J. W. Shea at the time of the girl's death. The case will be tried in the circuit court Wednesday.

In The Social Whirl

Current Happenings of Interest in and About Oregon City. Cherry Picnic Held At Wilsonville. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Young, of Wilsonville, delightfully entertained a number of friends last Sunday at a cherry picnic.

PLANS FOR JITNEY REGULATION MADE

TEMPLETON WOULD REGULATE, BUT NOT INJURE OPERATION OF AUTOMOBILES. Plans for the regulation of the jitney traffic in Oregon City are being made by the street committee, following the action of the council at the special meeting Wednesday night in referring this matter to the committee.

WEST LINN BIDS TO BE OPENED JULY 20

Plans and specifications for the $17,000 water distribution system in West Linn are now being completed in the office of S. A. Cobb. It is planned to have the distribution system completed by the time the South Fork Water project is finished.

WEST LINN SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. R. T. McLean was elected president of the West Linn Rose society at the annual meeting in West Linn city hall Tuesday night. Other officers elected are: Vice president, Mrs. Duncan Shanks; secretary, Mrs. F. J. Winkle; and treasurer, Mrs. Theodore Davenport.

MRS. C. W. RISLEY IS ROSE SOCIETY HEAD

At the annual meeting of the Oregon City Rose society held Tuesday afternoon in the Commercial club parlors the following officers were chosen to have charge of the work during the coming year: Mrs. C. W. Risley, president; Mrs. G. B. Dimick, vice president; Mrs. G. B. Dimick, vice president; Mrs. Don E. Meldrum, secretary; Mrs. O. D. Eby, treasurer.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Big gooseberry story in Hermiton Herald: "F. B. Swayze Thursday brought in 12 gooseberries which weighed 2-3 ounces. The largest one of the lot weighed a heavy 1/4 ounce. This is not a freak dozen nor were they the entire product of the plant. He has a number of such bushes and so have others."

PAVING OF MAIN STREET TO BEGIN SOON SAYS JONES

CONTRACTORS WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH TRAFFIC, ASSURES EXECUTIVE. Work Will Be Started on Southern End of Thoroughfare—Streetcar Tracks Will Be Leveled and Straightened.

CONTRACT AND BOND WILL BE SIGNED TODAY BELIEVES MAYOR

Having his statement on assertions of representatives of W. H. Worwick, the successful bidder for the Main street contract, Mayor Jones said last night that the paving of the thoroughfare would be under way in less than 19 days and that it would be completed by the first of September.

YOCUM LOSES SUIT AGAINST INSPECTORS

A verdict for Fruit Inspector R. F. Standish, A. G. Ames, Harry Reid and Ralph Reid was returned by a jury in circuit court Wednesday afternoon in the suit by T. Yocum and E. J. Yocum, of the Estacada district. The jury spent about an hour in deliberation.

25 BOYS ENCAMPED ALONG CLEAR CREEK

About twenty-five members of the Knights of King Arthur club of the First Presbyterian church of this city left Tuesday morning for Clear Creek, where they will spend 10 days camping near the Clackamas river. Rev. J. R. Landsborough, pastor of the Presbyterian church accompanied the boys on their outing.

OREGON CITY MILLS TAKES MORE PRIZES

The Oregon City Woolen mills has been awarded the grand prize for all woolen exhibits, both foreign and domestic, at the Panama Pacific International exposition. This is in addition to the four gold medals for Navajo Art Craft Blankets, Automobile robes, steamer robes, plain and fancy woolen blankets, macknaws, sport coats and flannel over shirts.

REV. J. C. SPENCER AT LOCAL CONFERENCE

Rev. J. C. Spencer, state president of the Epworth leagues of the Methodist churches of this city, was present Friday evening at the Clackamas county conference held in the Methodist church. About eight of the leagues were represented.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.

CHAMPOEG BRINGS UP SET OF FALSE TEETH

MILL WORKER IDENTIFIES SET WHICH WAS LOST NINE YEARS AGO. False teeth dug from the bottom of the canal at the lock and brought to the surface by the government dredge Champeog Monday proved to be the property of an employe of the Crown & Willamette Paper company who lost them nine years ago while he was swimming. The teeth were an upper set and not one of them was missing.

J. D. STEVENS APPEARS BEFORE BURNS SOCIETY

The Bobbie Burns society of Oregon City met Monday night at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Milliken, and was given a treat by J. D. Stevens, the Shakespearean scholar of Portland, who recited in a realistic manner Othello's Courtship of Desdemona, the Grave scene in Hamlet and portions of Richard III.

MRS. W. H. EGGE DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION

Mrs. Besse Egge die at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night at the Oregon City hospital, following an operation. She was the wife of Joseph Egge, of Willamette, and leaves four children: Mrs. Addie Shadle, of Willamette; Mrs. Lydia Greaves, of Willamette; Mrs. May Batty, of Willamette; and Mrs. Nellie Montgomery, of West Linn. Mrs. Egge has lived for many years in Willamette. Her remains are held at the undertaking parlors of Myers & Brady until funeral arrangements are completed.

MRS. HEDDINGER DIES AT HOME OF FATHER

Mrs. Olive Hedding died at noon Sunday following an illness extending over a period of a year. She came to Oregon from Missouri with her husband a year ago in quest of better health. She was 21 years old.

PIONEER RIVERMAN DIES AT PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., June 28.—Another pioneer river pilot, Captain Sherman V. Short, passed away yesterday. Captain W. H. Pope, the oldest of the pilots, died a short time ago of kidney trouble, a similar ailment to which Captain Short succumbed.

The death of Captain Short was unexpected. He had been ill for the past six weeks, but it was thought that he was improving gradually.

RUNAWAY BOY IS THOUGHT TO BE IN OREGON CITY

EVERY ROAD OUT OF TOWN IS WATCHED FOR TRACE OF CHARLES HAYGRATH. Relative Joins Sheriff Wilson and Constable Frost in Search for Lost Boy—Tells Strangers He Is On Way.

YOUTH SPENDS $1 TUESDAY MORNING FOR FIRECRACKERS

Charles Haygrath, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Haygarth, of Gilbert station, who disappeared from his home Monday night is thought to be in Oregon City, but cannot be found by the officers.

MRS. W. H. EGGE DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION

Mrs. Besse Egge die at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night at the Oregon City hospital, following an operation. She was the wife of Joseph Egge, of Willamette, and leaves four children: Mrs. Addie Shadle, of Willamette; Mrs. Lydia Greaves, of Willamette; Mrs. May Batty, of Willamette; and Mrs. Nellie Montgomery, of West Linn. Mrs. Egge has lived for many years in Willamette. Her remains are held at the undertaking parlors of Myers & Brady until funeral arrangements are completed.

MRS. HEDDINGER DIES AT HOME OF FATHER

Mrs. Olive Hedding died at noon Sunday following an illness extending over a period of a year. She came to Oregon from Missouri with her husband a year ago in quest of better health. She was 21 years old.

PIONEER RIVERMAN DIES AT PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., June 28.—Another pioneer river pilot, Captain Sherman V. Short, passed away yesterday. Captain W. H. Pope, the oldest of the pilots, died a short time ago of kidney trouble, a similar ailment to which Captain Short succumbed.

YOUTH SPENDS $1 TUESDAY MORNING FOR FIRECRACKERS

Charles Haygrath, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Haygarth, of Gilbert station, who disappeared from his home Monday night is thought to be in Oregon City, but cannot be found by the officers.

Relative Joins Sheriff Wilson and Constable Frost in Search for Lost Boy—Tells Strangers He Is On Way.