Correct.
"Here is a writer who says that if you have a skeleton in your closet you should not make any bones about it," remarked the old fogey. "I wonder what he means?"
"He means that if there is a black sheep in your family you should keep it dark," explained the grouch.

"Because the blamed thing repeats everything that is told to it," growled Mr. Gabb.

"What is the matter with them?" asked the thin man.
"Why, they advocate universal peace and yet they go right on marrying couples," replied the fat man.

In the great drive of the German armies against Warsaw the German people pinned their faith in General von Hindenburg.
