

COUNTRY NEWS and PERSONALS

FAIR AT GRESHAM IS NOW UNDER WAY

GRESHAM, Sept. 14.—The Multnomah county fair got away today to a good start and though the morning attendance was not heavy there was a large crowd this afternoon.

ESTACADA HORSE IS FIGHTING GERMANY

Bill has gone to war. Bill is a horse that is 50 per cent human, according to P. F. Standish, of Garfield, his owner, and R. M. Standish, editor of the Estacada Register.

SPRINGWATER HOME BURNED TO GROUND

Automobiles filled with men from Estacada prevented the fire which destroyed the home of J. J. Coy in the Springwater district from spreading to other property last Friday night.

CLACKAMAS SCHOOL OPENS.

CLACKAMAS, Ore., Sept. 15.—Public school opened here Monday with an enrollment of 75. D. U. Cochran is principal and instructor in manual training.

CLACKAMAS VOTES TAX.

CLACKAMAS, Ore., Sept. 14.—A special meeting of the voters of Clackamas school district was held Saturday evening at the schoolhouse, and a budget carrying $2200 was voted.

BARLOW

(Special Correspondence.) Harold Sage, John Skerington, Herbert Keebaugh and Agnes Berg, returned to high school at Canby Monday morning.

MEADOWSBROOK.

(Special Correspondence.) Mrs. Flom, who has been quite ill, is improving. They expect to leave for the east as soon as she is able.

None Equal to Chamberlain's. "I have tried most all of the cough cures and find that there is none that equal Chamberlain's Cough Remedy."

MARQUAM.

(Special Correspondence.) Wesley Yoder went last week to Table Rock after huckleberries.

MOUNTAIN ROAD.

(Special Correspondence.) The hop-pickers at Schaffer's hop yard are still picking and don't mind the showers very much.

John H. Hodge, who went to Astoria to work, has returned home to dig his spuds.

Johnny Zimmerman is breaking his horse and is getting some pretty swift rides.

Miss Marie Bernert has left for Ontario, Canada. She is studying to become a nurse and will be gone three years.

CONCORD, OAK GROVE AND VICINITY.

(Special Correspondence.) Twenty dairies were represented at the annual meeting of the Clackamas County Cow Testing association held at the farm of H. Theissen and sons one mile east of Concord station on Friday last week.

The Concord school began its year work Sept. 13, with Miss Pearl Bailey and Miss Gertrude Lee in charge.

Remember the date of Oak Grove juvenile fair, Friday, Sept. 17. It will be held in the Oak Grove school house, from 2 to 10 p. m.

Word reached Oak Grove from Hubbard, Friday, Sept. 16, of the death of Mrs. Salter, wife of Ernest Salter, who served as janitor of Oak Grove school last year.

W. H. and Mrs. Gillespie, of Courtney, are expected home Wednesday after a ten days' visit in Seattle and Spokane.

The Oak Grove school will begin Monday, Sept. 20. Manual training will be installed this year with S. S. Chambers of the Milwaukee schools in charge two days each week.

Some of the young people from here went to Willamette Saturday night to the skating rink. They reported a good time and fine skating.

WILSONVILLE.

(Special Correspondence.) Menza Balaga went to Tualatin on Sunday, where she will attend high school.

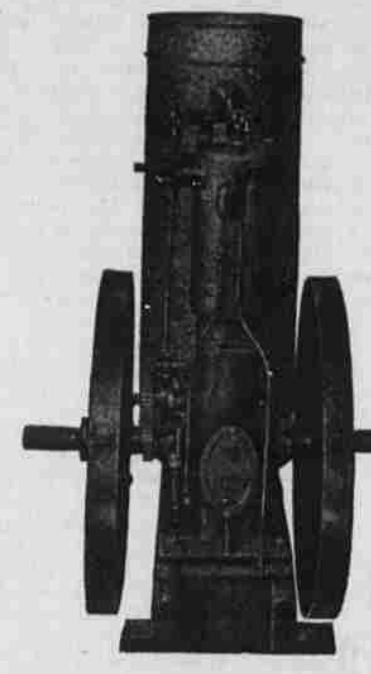

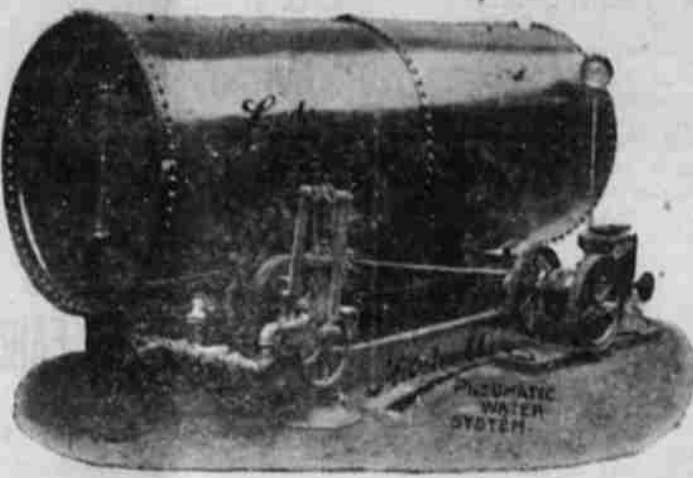

A little baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doris Young last Saturday.

Mr. Lloyd Harrison left Wednesday morning for Corvallis, where he will attend the Oregon Agricultural college this winter.

This is the Time to put In That Water System

Perhaps you are not aware that you can have water supply conveniences in your home and about your place as well as the city man. IT IS A FACT

The Mitchell Water System Affords you every convenience of water under a reliable and dependable pressure—Not so expensive to install as you may think. Very economical in operation. Easy to operate. LET US SHOW YOU THIS SYSTEM.

We Recommend STOVER'S GOOD ENGINES For pumping and other services requiring a dependable and ever-ready power. More than 5,000 in use in the Northwest. 1 H. P. up in Hopper cooled and vertical styles.

W. J. WILSON & CO. Oregon City Geo. Blatchford Molalla Agents for Mitchell Lewis & Staver Co. PORTLAND, ORE.

STAFFORD.

(Special Correspondence.) Our first rain came Friday and Saturday afternoon, an electrical storm passed over and lightning struck a tree in Mr. Naushauser's woods, splitting it nearly the whole length.

On Wednesday, the 9th, at 11 o'clock A. M. Mrs. Brink died at the home to which she came with her husband and daughter and family eight years ago from Dakota.

John Q. Gage and family drove the Ford out from St. Helens Friday after the children returned from school, and returned home Sunday night.

Mr. Oldham, who was so very sick with smallpox, has taken up his work again with returning strength and a coming appetite, so his wife phones to the neighbors.

It is thought by the "wise guys" that the rains of Friday and Saturday spoiled all the little potatoes.

EAGLE CREEK.

(Special Correspondence.) A. I. Dix was a guest at the home of Mrs. Howlett, a part of last week.

Mrs. A. W. Cooke and daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Cooke, of Damascus, visited with Mrs. Howlett last Friday.

Mr. Burger, who recently purchased a few acres of land from H. G. Huntington, is putting up a small house on his property.

Walter Douglass and Mr. and Mrs. George Douglass returned Monday from eastern Oregon, where they have been working during threshing.

Mr. Leckett was out to the farm the first of the week making his wife and daughter a visit.

Advertisement for Castoria, featuring a bottle image and text: 'CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA'.

JENNINGS LODGE.

(Special Correspondence.) Mrs. Calvin Morse and three children arrived on Monday from Dolph, Calv.

Attendance at the school is small compared with other years—just 20 being enrolled in the primary room and 24 in the higher grades.

Showers of various kinds have been given for brides-elect at this place, but on Tuesday evening a shower was tendered to a young man who is about to enter college, and was the occasion of a very happy gathering at the home of Rev. H. N. Smith and wife.

Miss Esther Campbell departed on Monday for Eugene, where she resumes her studies at the University. Miss Campbell will major in Botany and English.

Walter Beckner, of Seaside, was a caller on Lodge friends on Tuesday. Ralph Madison has returned from Warrenton, where he has spent the last two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook and family drove to Portland on Sunday and spent the day with G. Bruce and wife. Miss Mollie Rose and Mrs. Jean Grandy have given up the cottage they had taken for the summer.

A district board meeting is to be held on Friday evening at the school house. We have understood these meetings are open to the public.

Friday afternoon Mrs. L. C. Smith will open her home for the purpose of organizing a W. C. T. U. at this place. All ladies interested in temperance work are invited.

Friday night at 7:30 is the time of the business meeting of the church officials to be held at the Grace Church to plan work for the coming quarter and winter. All officers are urged to be present.

A gas range is to be installed at the church during the week. This will be a great benefit to the ladies in serving their dinners.

Miss Ruby Liddell is to be a week end guest of Miss Margaret Tucker, being a classmate at the Lincoln High in Portland.

Mrs. MacFarlane has been slightly indisposed at her home during the week. Langdon Spooner has been attending the annual state rifle contest at the Clackamas rifle range during the week and is to soon leave for Jacksonville, Florida, to take part in the tournament there about September 20th.

Mr. Will Jennings has been confined to his bed during the past week. Mrs. Ullbrand departed on Saturday for McMinnville for a week end visit with her son.

At the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher club held on Friday, the association recommended that the school board have safety signals placed on the county road in front of school. This should be attended to at once as it is a splendid place for automobiles to speed and on several occasions the lives of the little tots have been endangered when leaving the school grounds.

A local fair will be held on Wednesday night in which all of the school children of the district under sixteen years of age will take part. Mesdames R. F. Deter, W. I. Blindstone and Frank Fisher will assist the teachers, Mrs. Altman and Mrs. Shaahall in arranging the exhibits. The prize winning articles will be sent to the county fair at Canby. While the judges are placing the red and blue ribbons on the best of the exhibits the entertainment committee of the association will serve light refreshments and an informal "get-together meeting" to welcome our teachers back will take place. It is hoped that every patron of the district will be present and encourage the children in this work. The Parent-Teachers have taken "To-gether" for their motto and at the next regular meeting in October a discussion on "What can we do for our school this year in the Parent-Teacher association," will be held.

Wm. Jacobs and Roy Kelley departed on Friday for a deer hunt in the foothills of the coast range, they will probably return on Monday. The family of Albert Pierce will remove to Portland during the week. Mr. Morarity, editor of the Portland Daily News and family will occupy the Pierce home. Jay Padlock and sisters making their home in one of the Pierce cottages on the Willamette.

Mrs. Harry Emmons, of Alaska has been a house guest of the H. H. Emmons family. Mr. Davidson, of Meldrum, has purchased a new Studebaker car and his wife accompanied him on a trip through the Molalla country on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Eather McCracken, who has visited her parents, H. L. Heathman, has gone to Salem. A. A. Hobson and wife of Portland, will soon remove to this place, having purchased property on Hill avenue, sometime ago and will remodel the building. Mr. Hobson has recently purchased 20 acres near Damascus.

Harold Smith has been reappointed assistant teacher in the chemistry at Reed college. He is the oldest son of Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Smith who reside at Boardman station. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and Miss Winnard, of Kalamath Falls, were weekend visitors with Mr. Morse. Miss Winnard is a teacher in the Portland schools and a former resident of Iowa.

Frank Turner, of Oreno, will enjoy a few days at Jennings Lodge, the guest of Carey Deter. New York Evening Post: Among fresh proofs that New Yorkers do not lack in civic patriotism is to be placed the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the compounding of the Manhattan cocktail.

Many Complaints Heard. This summer seems to have produced an unusual amount of sickness. Many complain of headaches, lame backs, rheumatism, biliousness and of being "always tired." Aches, pains and ills caused by the kidneys failing to do their work and throw the poisonous waste from the system yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills. They help elimination, give sound sleep and make you feel well and strong. They are tonic in action. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

with 21 children in attendance. Mr. Harry Ellison, who is carrying our mail, had a runaway Saturday. His horse became scared at a flash of lightning, but no damage was done.

Mr. Frank Kaiser went to Oregon City Monday morning and had some dental work done. George and Johnnie Moser were at Zimmerman's Monday.

Some of the young people from here went to Willamette Saturday night to the skating rink. They reported a good time and fine skating.

Mr. Anderson and son Johnnie went to town Monday to get a load of school books. Mrs. Geo. Tiedeman has our heartfelt sympathy for the loss of her mother, Mrs. Brink, of Stafford.

Miss Augusta Schaffenburg, of Riverside, was a visitor at Hodges' Monday last Saturday.

Mr. Lloyd Harrison left Wednesday morning for Corvallis, where he will attend the Oregon Agricultural college this winter. Mr. Neils Christensen, Jr., went to Oregon City Tuesday.

partly for Aunt Bada Sharp, for Thursday, the 16th. Parents are preparing for, and children looking forward with pleasure, to opening of school next Monday, the 20th.

(Special Correspondence.) Menza Balaga went to Tualatin on Sunday, where she will attend high school.

A little baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doris Young last Saturday. The village school bell will soon begin its daily invitation to school.

Mr. Stein was a Portland visitor last Saturday.

Misses Pearl and Inez Bailey visited friends near our village Wednesday. M. C. Young was in the Rose City last Saturday. Harold Say left Saturday for Eugene where he will attend the University of Oregon.

day and spent the night with the former's father, James Gibson. A big harvest dance is to be held in Cogswell's hall in Eagle Creek on Saturday evening, Sept. 18, with dancing to begin at 9 and lasting until 3 in the morning.

(Special Correspondence.) Mrs. A. E. Full, of Eagle Creek, who was working in a logging camp near Black Rock, Oregon, was killed last week while falling trees, his back was broken by a limb that fell. The body was taken to Portland for interment in the Rose City cemetery. Mr. Full leaves a wife and two small sons at Eagle Creek.

Echo Githens and Alta Saver spent a few days in Vancouver and Portland last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Douglas arrived from eastern Oregon Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wise, of Portland, visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Githens, Sunday.