Facts for Sufferers.

Pain results from injury or congestion. Be it neuralgia, rheumatism, lumbago, neuritis, toothache, sprain, bruise, sore stiff muscles or whatever pain you have yields to Sloan's Liniment—brings new fresh blood, dissolves the congestion, relieves the injury, the circulation is free and your pain leaves as if by magic. The napain leaves as it penetrates immediately to the sore spot. Don't keep suffering. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. Use it. It means instant relief. Price 25c. and 50c. $1.00 bottle holds six times as much as the 25c. size. (Adv.)

SANDY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Threshing is all done. W. F. Shack C. Krebs and Mr. Kliegel pulled in their outfits, claiming one of the best runs ever had.

Prune drying is the order of the day. Posbergs and Mr. Neil are running their dryers at full blast. The prune crop is a good one.

The Gresham fair closed Saturday evening after the most successful exhibition ever held. On Portland day Sandvites took in the fair.

Travel to the mountains is still in full blast. Over 100 machines passed through Sandy to Mt. Hood Sunday.

The climbing of Mt. Hood is about over this season, as considerable snow has fallen there.

E. Coleman is busy with a crew of men packing building material to the top of Mt. Hood for the erection of a ranger's cabin thereon.

Work on the new Sandy garage and shop is about finished. Mr. A. L. Deaton will soon place on exhibition his new Dodge car, of which he is agent. Mr. Deaton and family will be moving into Sandy. They contemplate the erection of a handsome bungalow on their property.

Mrs. A. C. Lambach left for Iowa for a two months' visit at her former home.

The Fries and Koessel family, who spend the summer in their cottage near Firwood, will move back to Portland.

O. Klemank, a Portland architect, will close his summer home and return to Portland.

J. W. Dixon and Mr. Keisecker have finished their contract of floating 5000 cords of wood down the Sandy river.

There is some talk of again making an effort the coming election to annex a part of Clackamas county to that of Multnomah county, in order to get a hard surfaced road from Gresham to Mt. Hood. We hope it's a go.

To the Public.

"I feel that I owe the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy a word of gratitude," writes Mrs. T. N. Witherall, Gowanda, N. Y. "When I began taking this medicine I was in great pain and feeling terribly sick, due to an attack of summer complaint. After taking a dose of it I had not long to wait for relief as it benefited me almost immediately." Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)

Many Complaints Heard.

This summer seems to have produced an unusual amount of sickness. Many complain of headaches, lame backs, rheumatism, biliousness and of being "always tired." Aches, pains and ills caused by the kidneys failing to do their work and throw the poisonous waste from the system yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills. They help elimination, give sound sleep and make you feel well and strong. They are tonic in action. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

DAMASCUS.

(Special Correspondence.)

R. R. Wentworth of the St. James (Mo.) News, writes: "Two months ago I took a severe cold which settled in my lungs and I had such pains in my lungs I feared pneumonia. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it straightened me up immediately. I can recommend it to be a genuine cough and lung medicine. Many mothers write this reliable medicine cured their children of croup. Hay fever and asthma sufferers say it gives quick relief. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)"

STAFFORD.

(Special Correspondence.)

The health officer was out to see Mr. Oldham, who was so dreadfully afflicted with small pox, and decided he could not humiliate until the last of his sores, as the scales had not entirely peeled off. Although Mr. Oldham is able to attend to some of his household work, he has not regained his usual strength. George Van der Weide, who had the disease some years ago, has been helping him some, but he is handicapped by a disabled finger.

Mrs. Sharp, whose friends were planning to give her a surprise dinner on Thursday, was taken very ill Wednesday night and a physician was called, who decided she had no serious approaching pneumonia, so of course the gathering was called off. We are glad to report that she is better.

Miss Melinda Sharp, who has been ailing for a number of years, was taken worse on Tuesday and went to the hospital. All hope she will return much benefited.

John Wilkin and family, who so narrowly escaped a serious accident ten days ago, are reported as all right. In trying to avoid running over the Frenzel's geese, which persisted in sitting in the middle of the road, his machine plunged over the bank on a sharp turn, but came to the bottom of the ravine without much damage except the hitting of three of the geese.

School began on Monday, the 20th, with nearly a full attendance in both rooms.

The Girls' club meets on Thursday, with Gertrude Ellingsen.

Ive Nemeo has rented his mother's place, so rumor says.
