Rheumatism and Allied Pains—They Must Go!

The congestion of the blood in its flow causes pain. Sloan's Liniment penetrates to the congestion and starts the blood to flow freely. The body's warmth is renewed; the pain is gone. The man or woman who has rheumatism, neuralgia or other pain and fails to keep Sloan's Liniment in their home is like a drowning man refusing a rope. Why suffer? Get a bottle of Sloan's. 25c and 50c. $1.00 bottle hold six times as much as 25c size. (Adv.)

KELSO NOTES

(Special Correspondence.)

Mrs. Robert Jonsrud and family attended the wedding of her brother, Oscar Olson, in Portland Saturday evening.

Our school was closed Monday on account of the funeral of Mrs. Jim Harbison, who died at a Portland hospital Friday night. She leaves a husband and four children.

A new boy arrived at the home of Henry Frances recently.

R. E. Jari, our prosperous merchant and deputy sheriff, has returned from his month's vacation.

Mrs. J. Walker is staying with Mrs. Will Walker for the winter.

Take Care of That Itching! All Itching Borders on Eczema.

Do you regard that itching as a serious thing? It is! Unless you begin to fight it with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment, the disease is likely to cling on for months and years. Scores of grateful users say: "Why did we waste those months and years in agony when so tested a remedy was on the market?" This ointment is no experiment; it is absolutely healing in its power. Do not allow it to become serious. Buy a box today to fight the beginnings of eczema. 50c a box. (Adv.)

ARDENWALD

(Special Correspondence.)

The Ardenwald school opened September 13, under the direction of Lena Ulen, principal, and Clara M. Landin, primary. To the delight of all a new piano was moved in. Mr. H. J. Altnow, chairman of the board of directors, has offered a prize to the room having the fewest tardies at the close of the year. The children of both rooms are working to keep down the tardies.

Mr. William Doyle and family of Sellwood Gardens are moving to Sellwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Rockwood, and daughter Frances, have returned from Seaside.

A very sweet little girl, Margaret Lucille, has come to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hester.

Mr. A. Floss has rented his farm for gardening. The new tenants are building a house just east of Floss's residence.

Mildred Lynch, who spent several weeks visiting friends at Bridal Veil, has returned for school.

Mrs. C. D. Jett and children have returned from Baker, where they spent a pleasant vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hrumagin, of Spokane, Wash., are guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. J. Lynch, of Sellwood Gardens.

Rev. J. W. Price is leaving for Pleasant Valley, Wash. He will work in the Congregational church there. Pleasant Valley is in the most northern part of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wasson and son of Clymer, N. Y., were recent guests of the J. J. Lynch family.

Miss Gertrude Hargreaves left for Monmouth, Oregon, where she will attend normal school.

Misses Gladys Dunton, of Molalla, and Lena Ulen, of Portland, have rented part of the home of Mrs. G. E. Hargreaves and will spend the winter in Ardenwald. Miss Dunton is taking a course in vocal music under the direction of Mr. L. C. Sparks.

Miss Esther Rayot left recently for Monmouth where she will take a year's work in the normal school.

Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a bad bronchial cough. I felt its beneficial effect immediately and before I had finished the bottle I was cured. I never tire of recommending this remedy to my friends," writes Mrs. William Bright, Ft. Wayne, Ind. Obtainable everywhere.

MOLALLA

MOLALLA, Sept. 25—Monday morning brought together 117 grammar grade pupils and 63 high school pupils. About half of those in the high school are from adjoining districts, coming in under the new law which allows the county to transfer their school money from the home district to that entered. R. W. Rose, Miss E. M. Jox, Miss Myrtle Lay, Miss Alta Ramsby, and Miss Odessa Ulen of Lentz, were retained for teachers from last year.

Mr. Rose spent his vacation viewing the Panama-Pacific exposition and studying at the Berkeley, Cal., summer school.

School, as well as business was closed in Molalla Wednesday, that all might attend the county fair at Canby.

A. V. Davis, of Ridgefield, was in town this week on his way out to his farm between this place and Marquam to attend to property interests.

Mrs. J. R. Wolfe of this place spent several days at the county fair as she assisted in the juvenile department.

Molalla's mayor, W. W. Everhart, had charge of the livestock at the county fair at Canby.

Chronic Constipation.

"About two years ago, when I began using Chamberlain's Tablets I had been suffering for some time with stomach trouble and chronic constipation. My condition improved rapidly through the use of these tablets. Since taking four or five bottles of them my health has been fine," writes Mrs. John Newton, Irving, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

TUALATIN MEADOWS

(Special Correspondence.)

The weather is somewhat cooler, but with very little rain as yet, and lots of the wells are dry in vicinity.

We hear that Mr. Bold has traded his farm on the Tualatin and property in Portland for a 200-acre ranch in Gilliam county.

Quite an accident occurred at the Fair at Canby Wednesday, when one of the race horses broke his cart, throwing his driver and ran out through the crowd, hurting six of the on-lookers.

We were sorry to hear of the terrible accident that happened to the Reo auto truck man, Mr. Charles Gage, and his three passengers, in which all four were killed. Mr. Gage's parents live at Stafford.

Quite a number went to the fair Wednesday from our berg: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Borland, Mr. and Mrs. R. de Neni, Mr. Bushbaum and daughter Hazel, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Larsen, crossing the new ferry which makes it so much nearer than going by way of Oregon City.

For Indigestion.

Never take pepsin and preparations containing pepsin or other digestive ferments for indigestion, as the more you take the more you will have to take. What is needed is a tonic like Chamberlain's tablets that will enable the stomach to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.

STAFFORD

(Special Correspondence.)

This community was shocked last Wednesday morning by the news of the sudden death of the four men, who were run down at a blind crossing near Tualatin by a Southern Pacific electric. C. M. Gage, the driver of the auto truck, was the second son of J. P. and M. A. Gage of this place and was known as a careful driver. By honorable dealing and a cheerful disposition he had built up a good business between Wilsonville and Portland, carrying freight and passengers going three days of the week by the way of Tualatin and the alternate days through Stafford. The inquest was held at the Grange hall at Tualatin on Thursday and the verdict of the jury was:

"An unavoidable accident caused by an unguarded, dangerous crossing of the Southern Pacific railroad."

The bodies were taken to Beaverton where they were prepared for burial.

C. M. Gage was brought to his father's home on Friday afternoon, where the Masons, of which he was a member, took charge and he was laid beside his brother, Don, who was accidentally drowned fifteen years ago.

Mr. Hodge had his Overland in the garage Monday and Tuesday to have some repairs done on it.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dollar on the arrival of a 9½ pound boy, born Tuesday morning.

Mr. Neils Christensen was seen going to Oregon City Tuesday.

Johannie Zimmerman, who left last week for a deer hunt in Southern Oregon, with Dewart Hodge and Geo. Moser, sent home a deer Tuesday morning that weighed 101 pounds.

Gladys Rypcynski left Sunday for Twilight where she will teach school this winter.

MOUNTAIN ROAD.

(Special Correspondence.)

A good many of the farmers from here are gone to the state fair but the changeable weather has kept many at home.

Mrs. Wm. Kaiser received many prizes at the county fair.

Mrs. Neils Christensen and Mrs. John Anderson were visitors at Mrs. E. Bockman's Friday afternoon.

Mr. John Kaiser has returned home from the St. Martin's Springs.

Mr. Carl Bernert has gone to the world's fair at San Francisco and he says he will see some of the country before he returns home.

Connie Zimmerman who is still running the engine at the rock crusher had another accident. He got caught in the fly wheel and got his leg badly cut.

Henry Diaz Jr., of Southern Oregon, is home on a visit.

Herman Seibert has been running the rock crusher. He will soon have some fine roads if he continues the good work.

True James has returned from the Roundup at Pendleton.

School commenced a week ago Monday with an attendance of forty-eight. Miss Esther Revell is principal and Miss Nellie Roach has the primary room.

Miss Lizzie Roach commenced her school at Dover Monday.

Miss Gladys Burts teaching at Linn's Mill.

John McConell has returned home from Eastern Oregon.

The German society gave a dance Saturday evening. They took in over $100.

Two Children Had Croup.

The two children of J. W. Nix, merchant, Cleveland, Ga., had croup last winter. One was a boy of 6, the other a girl of 5 years. Mr. Nix writes: "Both got so choked up they could hardly breathe and couldn't talk. I gave them Foley's Honey and Tar and nothing else and it entirely cured them." This reliable medicine should be in every home for it gives immediate relief from colds, coughs and croup, heals raw inflamed throat and loosens phlegm. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)
