CARL LIST IS HOME AFTER SUBMARINE TRIP

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 14.—Carl Frank List, the 17-year-old Portland boy who spent 11 days on the famous U-39, German submarine, when that craft was at the height of its activities in undersea warfare, is home again. He arrived last night, spent the night at the home of his aunt, Mrs. A. Taulert, 129 Seventeenth street north, and today is with his mother, Mrs. Clara List, 834 Rodney avenue.

After he returned to the United States he gave the first story that was ever published containing first hand information of the inner workings of the submarine in war time. It was a story of intense interest, as during those eventful 11 days, the U-39 sent to the bottom many British and neutral vessels.
