

AMERICANS LOST ON ANCONA LESS THAN 28, BELIEF

WASHINGTON IS STIRRED BUT IS NOT TENSE AS RESULT OF SHIP'S SINKING.

OFFICIALS BELIEVE LINER MAY HAVE TRIED TO ESCAPE TORPEDO

Boats Reach Coast of Africa and Malta - American Ambassadors Will Gather All Evidence as Soon as Possible.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—About 27 Americans are believed to have been lost with the torpedoed Italian liner Ancona, according to a cable to the state department tonight from Ambassador Page at Rome.

The ambassador said the probable victims of the tragedy were Alexander Patattivo, his wife and four children, of New York, and Mrs. Frances Mascolo Lamura and about 30 unamed third-class passengers.

Ambassador Page and American consuls throughout Italy were instructed today by Secretary Lansing to cable immediately all information they could gather. Press dispatches caused concern in officials' quarters, but there was no real tension, because news dispatches which referred to the shelling of the Ancona by the Austrian submarine led to the belief generally among officials that the Italian vessel ignored warning and was attempting to escape.

This is the view of this government, would justify a submarine commander in the use of force.

Two Italian-Americans sailed from Naples on the steamer Ancona, according to a dispatch to the state department today from Consul White.

Consul White cabled it was verbally reported in Naples that 270 persons had been saved.

ROME, via Paris, Nov. 10.—According to an official list, the survivors of the Ancona included Cecil Gray, 143 Italians, 16 Greeks and one Russian. It is asserted that 24 of the Ancona's passengers were naturalized Americans. It is not known whether they are among the victims.

200 STUDENTS ASK DIRECTORS TO BUILD SCHOOL GYMNASIUM

BOARD LACKS TIME WEDNESDAY TO CONSIDER PETITION, BUT IT WILL COME UP LATER.

Two hundred students of the Oregon City high school marched down Main street Wednesday night, to the accompaniment of torch lights and scholastic yells and invaded the office of the school board and presented a petition signed by nearly every student in the high school asking for the construction of a gymnasium.

Three girls and three boys, Virginia Shaw, Marvel Ely and Dorothy Latourette and Frank King, Clare Miller and Kent Moody, presented the petition with forceful talks, backed by remarks from F. J. Toose, city superintendent; C. G. Miner, principal of the high school; and Burr Tatroe, Clarence Hahn and Frank O. Olson, members of the high school faculty.

The school board had a huge mass of routine work to handle at the meeting and was unable to give the petition careful consideration, but it was ordered filed and consideration of it will be taken up at a meeting to be held next week.

The board has no funds available for the construction of a gymnasium, and has made no provision for such an improvement in its budget for 1916, and money would have to be supplied through a bond issue. The alternative would be the removal of the manual training department to the portable building on the high school grounds, and the fitting up of the building on the Barclay grounds that is now being used for manual training, as a gymnasium. The latter plan, however, could not materialize until the new addition to the high school building is completed.

DO IT NOW.

Oregon City People Should Not Wait Until It is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due largely to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

T. Trembath, Seventh and Center Sts., Oregon City, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills when my back and kidneys have been bothering me and I have had great relief. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly removed the soreness and lameness in my back in a short time. I have found that they are a fine kidney medicine."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Trembath had. Foster-McBirn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)

PERUVIAN BARK IS HELD AT ASTORIA

CREW IS RELEASED BUT SOME ARE IN BAD SHAPE—MEMBERS IN HOSPITAL.

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 4.—A telegram was received by Captain Bard yesterday from the owners of the cargo on the Peruvian bark Judith, directing the master of the vessel to take no further steps toward discharging the cargo until he received further instructions. The Judith will remain in the stream opposite the city until some definite action is decided upon.

The Peruvian sailors were taken from the city jail yesterday morning and taken before Immigration Inspector Gooch by Harbormaster Sweet. Upon signing affidavits that they will leave the country at the first opportunity they were released.

It is understood, however, that Captain Bard will not pay the sailors any money until they go to Callao with him, as they were signed for the round trip. The sailors made a special trip to the Judith yesterday afternoon, but returned to the city later in the evening. Each man claims to have $50 due him. They object to going to sea in the vessel again, as they claim she is unseaworthy.

The only member of the crew still on the boat is the Canadian, Frank Cantos. What he expects to do in the affair is not known, although it is understood he will not go to sea again in the craft. Michael Jordanson, an American, is in the hospital here. His limbs are in bad condition, owing to having stood in the salt water too long while on the Judith. Jordanson claims to have stood at the wheels for 16 hours the day the barkentine was narrowly escaped going on Clatsop beach. The cook is also sick and in the hospital.

MOLALLA

(Special Correspondence.) Every father and mother is sympathizing with those who lost children in the school fire at Peabody, Massachusetts. While that memory is fresh, let every parent investigate the means of escape from fire in his own school.

When all is well, the pupils from each room march out in turn, two by two, perhaps into a large hallway. In case of real fire the opening of so many doors only forms a draft to fan the blaze. Nearly everyone knows of cases where grown people have lost their head in fire, became panic stricken, frenzied. So far does the word "fire" terrify that children have been known to trample down weaker ones to break out window glass and jump from the opening when they were supposed to be having a fire drill. When we hire a teacher, we simply by so doing that we exempt him or her to see our children to safety in case of disaster. We should, however, remember that teachers hold their lives as dear as those of any other profession. In other words we should provide means so that they will not have to risk their lives unnecessarily.

Every window should be provided with metal ladder, made stationary. What chance would your children have to escape from their school if precious time were to be lost while the neighborhood had to be scoured to find an insufficient number of ladders as was the case in Peabody?

Miss Sawtell uses a willow clothes basket, that was woven for her mother by Mrs. Dibble, twenty-five years ago. Miss Sawtell has a large collection of most beautiful house plants. One of which is a ponderosa lemon. The plant is so slender that it has to be staked to hold its burden of extra large lemons this summer.

Rex Lewis made a trip to Colton in his demonstration automobile last week.

Two cars of ties were shipped last week from the Southern Pacific depot. Messrs Hammer, Mortison and Schafer each have ties yarded out at the depot awaiting shipment.

H. N. Sommerville was in Vancouver one day last week.

Miss Ulen, who teaches the first and second grades has established the pretty custom of having all the pupils say a verse in honor of those who have a birthday on that day. The children look forward with delight if they are so fortunate as to have a birthday come on a school day. November ninth was the seventh birthday of Master Robert Burnett. Miss Ulen is teaching her pupils basket work. Fourteen have already begun the work. There are forty pupils in the two grades.

Swings and teeters are being installed to fulfill a part of the requirements of a standard school.

FIRE ASSAULTS FAIL

PARIS, Nov. 5.—Today's communique from the French war office announced that twice the German attacked La Courtine, in the Champagne district, using liquid fire and hand grenades and then charging. Both attacks were repulsed.

MANY LIVES ARE LOST IN ANOTHER FIRE IN FACTORY

TWELVE ARE KNOWN TO BE DEAD AND OTHERS BELIEVED IN SMOKING RUINS.

SWIFT BLAZE CUTS OFF CHANCES OF ESCAPE OF FLEEING WORKERS

Number of Those Trapped in Building Reduced by Dismissal Only Short While Before Saturday Half Holiday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Twelve men and girls are known to have lost their lives today in a fire that destroyed an old four-story brick and wooden factory building in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn.

The building was occupied by a candy manufacturing concern and three firms manufacturing clothing, whose employees normally totaled 300, but more than a third had been dismissed for a Saturday half-holiday before the fire started.

The flames were discovered shortly before 4 o'clock by a girl employe of the candy factory, which occupied the ground floor and basement, and were soon roaring up the elevator shaft, around which wound the principal stairway.

There was one other stairway in the rear of the building, and some of the entrapped persons escaped by that, but before the firemen arrived men and women were leaping from the windows. The flames spread so rapidly that escape for most of the employes in the building by stairs and elevators was impossible.

Several of these were girls, burned to death in the sight of a great crowd of helpless spectators.

No one could be found tonight to tell how the fire started, but within half an hour the roof of the building had collapsed.

Not until the list of employes in the building has been checked up and the ruins searched were the police willing tonight to believe that the death list would exceed 25.

LONDON GLOBE IS ORDERED SUPPRESSED

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The first British paper suppressed since the war began was ordered to close its doors today. This was the London Globe, one of the most outspoken of London's newspapers in its criticism of the government's policy and the conduct of the war. The suppression of the Globe is expected to initiate a government policy of severe restrictions of the newspapers, some of which are alleged to have given aid and comfort to the enemy by indiscreet publication.

GENERAL WEAKNESS IN SWINE MARKET

SITUATION IN PORTLAND, HOWEVER, MUCH THE SAME AFTER BIG RUN.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, Ore., Nov. 9.—There was general weakness in the swine situation at American points today. The local market was no exception to the rule, but only a limited supply came forward and these were not of quality sufficient to bring extreme figures.

In view of the record run of yesterday it was an idle market for swine today at North Portland, but the situation shows practically no change. The prices printed give an adequate report of the real market and comment is scarcely necessary.

Cattle Situation Steady. Situation in the cattle market at North Portland is steady. Only limited arrivals were reported overnight and these came from Willamette valley points. Nothing was available to test the top figures. The sale yesterday at $7 and at $6.90 really means no advance in price, because the quality of these offerings was so much better than any recent arrival.

No Mutton is Offered. There were no mutton arrivals at North Portland overnight. General situation is steady to strong as indicated by the limited offerings and sales late yesterday afternoon.

All the big killers continue to bring in the bulk of their requirements direct.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

County Clerk Harrington Wednesday issued marriage licenses to Mary Martin and Nathan W. Casaday, of Oregon City; Roy N. 3, and Mabel F. Miller, of F. E. Lay, of Molalla. Mary Dolores O'Hara and Anthony A. Frontzel, 741 Gilliam street, secured a license here a few minutes after closing time at the court house Tuesday.

EDITORS IN ANNUAL MEETING AT SALEM

PRESIDENT BRODIE OF OREGON CITY GIVES HIS ANNUAL ADDRESS.

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 5.—The annual convention of the Oregon State Editorial association opened here this morning and an interesting program was given.

After invocation by Dr. T. B. Ford, district superintendent of the M. E. church, R. J. Hendricks, publisher of the Salem Daily Statesman, welcomed the editors.

President E. E. Brodie, publisher of The Oregon City Enterprise, responded and gave his annual address. In this address he dealt largely with the problem of the newspaper and the politician, and advocated editorial support rare enough and conservative enough to make it appreciated by those so favored.

President Brodie contended that the newspaper which supports the politician has a right to expect support in return, and that the chief trouble with newspapers is that they give too much editorial support. He denounced the political press agent as a serpent in the newspaper Garden of Eden, and advocated referring him to the business office when he came around to solicit the publication of free boosts for candidates.

"What Is the Matter With Newspaper Men and Printers of Oregon?" was the subject discussed by Joseph P. Hurley of the Washington County News-Times, Forest Grove. He contended that they were too modest and that they often put in their time boosting everyone else but themselves.

Doctors and lawyers had their rivalries, but they never cut prices, he said. This is ethics and good business. He told of his success in getting adequate rates on foreign advertising.

OREGON CITY MAN IS ASSOCIATION'S HEAD

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF STATE EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION ENDS SATURDAY AT SALEM.

E. E. Brodie, editor of The Oregon City Enterprise, was re-elected president of the Oregon State Editorial association at the annual convention which ended Saturday at Salem. Mr. Brodie considers the convention one of the most successful in the history of the organization.

Other officers elected Saturday are: Vice-president, George Palmer Putman, secretary to the governor and editor of the Bend Bulletin; secretary-treasurer, Phil S. Bates, editor Pacific Northwest; and executive committee, Joseph P. Hurley, Forest Grove News Times. These officers will serve for the next two years.

Resolutions were adopted Saturday favoring a county and state permanent road policy and endorsing Governor Withycombe's position in urging legislation which will bring capital to Oregon.

The editors were the guests of the management of the state hospital Saturday noon at a luncheon at which the governor presided and in the afternoon they visited the penitentiary and the asylum.

SAM CASE BELIEVED ON WAY TO RECOVERY AFTER AN OPERATION

PARKPLACE MAN INDICTED FOR KILLING BOTHER MUCH BETTER AFTER TREATMENT.

Sam Case, indicted for the murder of his brother and released under $5000 bonds, has a fair chance for recovery, said attendants at the Oregon City hospital Monday afternoon, following his operation Sunday for perforated ulcer of the stomach. Dr. E. A. Sommer, of Portland, performed the operation.

For a time following the operation, it was thought that Mr. Case would die, but his condition has slowly improved since Sunday and Monday he was considered almost out of danger.

Case has been ill for several months, and during the time he was in the county jail, following the shooting of his brother October 3, was forced to take medicine and be careful of his food. Saturday he suddenly became worse and several local physicians examined him. They considered that an operation was necessary.

At the time Sam Case shot his brother, he weighed 135 pounds, owing to loss of weight due to his illness while Ernest Case, who was killed, weighed 235 pounds before Circuit Judge Campbell.

OREGON CITY GIRL WEDS PORTLAND MAN

Announcement was made Wednesday of the marriage of Miss Ethel Greaves of this city to J. W. Jeffries of Portland. The marriage comes as a surprise to the friends of Miss Greaves. She was employed in Portland and on October 21, the young couple went to Hillsboro and were quietly married, they then went to homekeeping in Portland. Mrs. Jeffries is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Greaves of this city and the sister of Harry L. Greaves.

CONSTANTINE OF GREECE SEEKS TO RETAIN M. ZAIMIS

WHEN OFFER IS REFUSED, KING SUMMONS ALL OF HIS OTHER MINISTERS.

EX-PREMIER DECLARES IDEALS OF NATION ARE IN PERIL

King Declared to Have No Responsibility Under Constitution—Attitude Held to Favor Bulgarians and Turkey.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—King Constantine has again offered the premiership to M. Zaimis, who has resigned on the defeat of his ministry in the chamber, according to a Heuter dispatch from Athens. M. Zaimis refused to accept the offer, and a council of ministers was called, the dispatch adds.

M. Zaimis refused to retain the post, the correspondent says, originally. Although he had provisionally accepted the premiership to ease the situation, he was determined, as he had previously declared, to abstain from taking an active part in internal politics.

Greece, he said, was to acquire part of the vilayet of Brusa and Bulgaria Thrace, while Bulgaria was to be shorn of the territory she gained as a result of the Balkan war.

All this, he declared, would be obtained by Greece at small cost, since the proposals of the entente powers required only the assistance of smaller units of the Greek fleet.

Referring to the allegation that Serbia had failed to send against the Bulgarians 150,000 men in accordance with the provisions of the treaty of the alliance, M. Zaimis said she actually had 130,000 troops opposed to the Bulgarians.

M. Zaimis declared that the foreign policy of the government did not have the confidence of the country.

"Moreover," he added, dramatically, "we consider it fatal to the country." Under the constitutional regime, he said, the king could have no responsibility.

WALNUT GROWERS END PORTLAND SESSION

M'MINNVILLE MAN IS ELECTED PRESIDENT—MARKETING IS T. A. HARPER'S SUBJECT.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—J. C. Cooper of McMinnville was last night elected president of the Western Walnut association, in first annual meeting at the Imperial hotel.

All the other officers were re-elected as follows: Vice-presidents, Dr. C. H. Chapman, Portland; A. A. Quarnberg, Vancouver, Wash.; F. A. Wiggins, Tappanish, Wash.; Walter F. Burrell, representing the Lewiston, Idaho, Irrigation company; Fred Groner, Hillsboro, and M. McDonald, Oreoco; secretary-treasurer, V. Meade, Oreoco.

"Harvesting and Marketing" was the subject of an address this morning by T. A. Harper of Dundee, Ore., who has been in the walnut raising business for four years.

Mr. Harper gave the work in detail, telling of the picking of the nuts after they begin to fall, their washing and the drying in a prune dryer, which takes from three to four days.

Another talk was on the irrigation of walnuts by F. A. Wiggins of Tappanish. Nearly all the exhibits from Washington come from irrigated trees, and Mr. Wiggins told of the special care that must be exercised in this work. The meeting adjourned this afternoon.

AERIAL PATROL OF COASTS APPROVED

TEN CITIES RAISE FUND TO BUY HYDROPLANE—MAINE TOWNS BEHIND THE PLAN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Approval was given by President Wilson tonight to a movement started in Portland, Me., for the inauguration of a system of aerial coast patrols along the coastlines of the United States. The movement has been started by private individuals, who propose to place their services at the disposal of the federal government in time of war.

The president was informed by the Portland Chamber of Commerce that it had appointed a committee representing the cities of Portland, Bangor, Waterville, Augusta, Brunswick, Bath and Lewiston to raise $10,000 to buy a hydro-aeroplane and the equipment of an aerial coast patrol to cover the coast from Portsmouth to the mouth of the Penobscot river.

Two Children Had Croup.

The two children of J. W. Nix, merchant, Cleveland, Ga., had croup last winter. One was a boy of 6, the other a girl of 8 years. Mr. Nix writes: "Both got so choked up they could hardly breathe and couldn't talk. I gave them Foley's Honey and Tar and nothing else and it entirely cured them." This reliable medicine should be in every home for it gives immediate relief from colds, coughs and croup, heals raw inflamed throat and loosens phlegm. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

PRESIDENT'S AUTO KNOCKS DOWN YOUTH

YOUNG ITALIAN, HOWEVER, RUNS TO SIDEWALK SHOUTING HE IS NOT HURT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—President Wilson's automobile this afternoon struck and knocked down Mario Passi, aged 8 years, an Italian boy, on Thirty-second street, near the Pennsylvania station. The automobile stopped and the president looked out of the window. Mario ran to the sidewalk, yelling that he was not hurt, and the automobile proceeded on its way.

The president and his party boarded the Congressional Limited for Washington at 3:15 o'clock.

After sleeping only a few hours, President Wilson arose early and walked to the St. Regis, where he breakfasted with Mrs. Galt in her apartment.

During the president's stay in New York a permanent police squad was assigned to guard him. Last night one policeman was stationed on the roof of Colonel House's residence, while others guarded the fire escapes and doorways.

MAN KIDNAPS HIS SUCCESSFUL RIVAL

ED. KRAUSE OF PETERSBURG, ALASKA, TRIES NOVEL PLAN BUT STEPS IN TROUBLE.

JUNEAU, Alaska, Nov. 5.—Jilted by Mrs. Cella Gesekus when she chose to marry William Christie and hating Christie for the added reason that he is a Scotchman, Edward Krause of Petersburg, if allegations of a complaint filed against him here are true, resorted to the bold expedient of kidnaping his successful rival. Deputy United States marshals armed with warrants authorizing his arrest are seeking Krause today.

Mrs. Christie declares that before her marriage Krause was an ardent suitor, and that he was greatly incensed when she married Christie. Mrs. Christie also asserts that Krause, who is of Teutonic ancestry, disliked Christie, the Scotchman.

Christie, who was an amalgamator at the Treadwell mines, disappeared Monday after a man giving the name of Miller and representing himself to be a deputy marshal had served him with what purported to be a subpoena from the federal court. Krause is believed to be the man who represented himself as Miller. The warrants issued charge Krause with impersonating an officer, but graver charges will be lodged against him if he is captured and his identity established.

Because of the personal popularity of Christie, who was well known in fraternal circles, residents of the Gastineau channel district are much exercised over the kidnaping and have contributed large sums of money to a fund to be expended for the apprehension and conviction of his abductor.

WHITLOCK COMMENDED BY GERMAN AGENCY

AMERICAN MINISTER IS ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE BECAUSE OF FAILING HEALTH.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—(By wireless to Sayville, N. Y.)—Among the items given out for publication today by the Overseas News Agency was the following:

"Foreign newspapers report that the German government asked the withdrawal of the American minister at Brussels, Brand Whitlock. The reports are absolutely untrue. The fact is, the American minister is on leave of absence because of failing health."

WELLS WOULD STOP INSURANCE TRADING

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 4.—Stirred to action by complaints from several places in the state that insurance agents have been trading policies for clothing and merchandise, and in some instances have failed to forward cash to the company, the result being the cancellation of the policies, Insurance Commissioner Wells today issued a bulletin calling attention to the law, which provides that all insurance and indemnity contracts must be issued for a cash consideration, and agents are not authorized to accept anything but cash in payment of premiums.

The acceptance by such agents or proposals or agreement to accept merchandise or any other trade consideration or exchange, other than cash, is not considered a legal transaction, Wells declared in the bulletin.

Wells also held that agents of insurance companies may exchange or place business with other agents, but the agents accepting such brokerage business become liable for the premium on all such policies issued by or through his agency.

Coughs That Are Stopped!

Careful people see that they ARE stopped. Dr. King's New Discovery is a remedy of tried merit. It has held its own on the market for 46 years. Youth and old age testify to its soothing and healing qualities. Pneumonia and lung troubles are often caused by delay of treatment. Dr. King's New Discovery stops these hacking coughs and relieves the grippe tendencies. Money back if it fails. 50c and $1.00. (Adv.)

PRESIDENT OPENS ACTIVE CAMPAIGN FOR PREPAREDNESS

EMPHASIS IS PUT ON NEED OF MORE AND BETTER EQUIPMENT BY WILSON.

DEFENSE PLANS ARE OUTLINED AT DINNER IN WASHINGTON

Question, Says Mr. Wilson, is How Far We Are Prepared to Maintain Ourselves Against Interference With Action.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—President Wilson opened the administration campaign for its national defense program in a comprehensive and carefully prepared address delivered here tonight at the Manhattan club banquet. He declared that the United States had no aggressive purposes, but must be prepared to defend itself to assure "full liberty and self-development."

Significantly, he said that "with ourselves in this great matter we associate all the peoples of our own hemisphere," adding that "we wish not only for the United States, but for them, the fullest freedom of independent growth of action."

The president was received with enthusiastic applause. The hall was decorated with American flags and filled even to the galleries with Democrats happy over their victory of Tuesday in New York city. When the president arose to speak everyone jumped up and applauded until he was forced to signal for quiet.

"Within a year," said the president, "we have witnessed what we did not think possible, a great European conflict involving many of the greatest nations of the world. The influences of the great war are everywhere in the air. All Europe is in battle. Force everywhere speaks out with a loud and imperious voice in the historic struggle of government and from one end of our dear country to the other men are asking one another what our own force is, how far we are prepared to maintain ourselves against any interference with our national action or development."

The president called on "men of all shades of political opinion" to rally to the support of the program.

BREAK BETWEEN TWO LEADERS IS CERTAIN

BRYAN VIEWS SPEECH BY PRESIDENT WITH SORROW—HOPES WILSON NOT RECEIVED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Signs of a break between President Wilson and his former secretary of state, W. J. Bryan, over the administration defense program, became unmistakable today. Bryan declared he viewed the president's New York speech on preparedness with "sorrow and concern."

"The president is doing what he believes is his duty, but I feel it my duty to dissent," Bryan declared. "We cannot criticize his motive, as he has given his views with clearness and emphasis; but those who differ with him are under a like obligation to express themselves with equal clearness."

"The president will not assume that he is more deeply interested in the country's welfare than the million who elected him temporarily to be their spokesman."

"If he is giving voice to his countrymen's opinion, he is anxious to have them frank with him as he has been with them. How otherwise can he know whether he represents or misrepresents their views?"

"The plan he proposes is not only a departure from our traditions, but a reversal of national policy. It is not only a menace to our peace and safety but a challenge to the spirit of Christianity."

CRISIS LOOMS WHEN GREEK CABINET QUILTS

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN GOVERNMENT IS REFUSED—FUTURE RESTS WITH KING.

ATHENS, via London, Nov. 4.—The cabinet of Premier Zaimis resigned today, following its failure to obtain a vote of confidence on a minor issue which arose in the national assembly today.

The entire press of Athens, as well as the political leaders, predict dissolution of the chamber.

The discussion arose in the course of debate over proposed military laws. The minister of war, General Yanakitsas, made a remark which ex-Premier Venizelos considered an insult. The ex-premier demanded an apology.

Premier Zaimis declared that the government stood behind the minister and demanded a vote of confidence.

NOBEL PRIZES DISTRIBUTED

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Telegraph sends the following: "The Swedish government has decided to distribute the Nobel prizes next week as follows: "Physics—Thomas A. Edison and Nikola Tesla, Literature—Romain Rolland, French; Hendrik Pontoppidan and Troels Lund, Danish, and Verger Von Reidenstam, a Swede. Chemistry—Prof. Theodore Svedberg."
