Early in the spring Mr. Smith couented to employ Hill again and during the greater part of the spring and the summer he was at work as a farmhand for farmers in the Redland district.

MORE SCHOOLS MEET STATE REQUIREMENTS

Standardization rallies will be held almost every week during the winter, said County Superintendent of Schools Calavan Monday, for districts in every part of the county are working to meet the requirements set by the state board of public instruction. Thirty-three schools in Clackamas county are now up to the state requirements. A standardization rally will be held Thursday at Canby and Friday at Bol-
