74 ARE ENROLLED IN MOLALLA HIGH SCHOOL

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION DISCUSSES PLANS FOR WORK OF WINTER.

MOLALLA, Ore., Nov. 25.—(Special.)—The Parent-Teacher association met in the school house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It was explained that an early hour for meeting was chosen, so that those living at a distance might attend.

Fifteen of the pupils of the first and second grades took part in a program under the guidance of their teacher, Miss Ulen. Their work represented some of that done this term. Just now Thanksgiving is used as the central theme around which is grouped much of the school work. The little people left for their homes as soon as their part of the program was completed. Acting upon the suggestion of the president, Mrs. S. J. Vaughn, a question box was established. The matter of whether a nurse should be employed to visit the school, was laid over until another meeting.

As those of the association wished to familiarize themselves with the method which Dr. Montessori uses, they are having four chapters of the book, "The Montessori Mother," as told by Mrs. Fisher, reviewed. At this meeting Mrs. Tukey reviewed this method of teaching little tots.

Mr. Rose stated that there are 74 in the high school department, 25 of whom are in the freshman class. Some of the young people show how much in earnest they are about an education by coming in to town upon the half past seven car as there is no morning car which exactly meets their needs. The next meeting of the association will be the third Friday in December.

Sam Behnke and family, formerly of Meadowbrook, but more recently from south of Molalla, have moved into the Ralph Sawtell place just north of town. Mr. Behnke and family have always interested themselves in that which was for the betterment of the neighborhood in which they lived.

The Molalla Gun club met Sunday afternoon upon their practice grounds. Many felt that the turkeys and geese were worth trying for in spite of weather unfavorable to record shooting.

Dr. Pratt, who was to have addressed those at both morning and evening services, was detained by the accident which kept the Willamette Valley Southern from running Sunday. Mr. Taylor addressed the audience at the first meeting and Rev. Mr. Curtiss took charge of the evening meeting. Rev. Mr. Curtiss used for his theme "Giving." He spoke of his work in Labrador.

Mrs. Parks joined the Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday evening, by letter from her home church in Wells, Minn. Mrs. Parks did not wait to have her letter recognized before she proved herself a worker.

School was closed for Thanksgiving Thursday and Friday, opening again Monday. Those of the first, second and third grades are building scenes upon the sand tables to review the life of the Pilgrims.

County Superintendent Calavan has been visiting the Molalla school, much to the delight of the children. Some of the words of praise here and there will never be forgotten by the youngsters.

The Ladies' Aid is to meet at 2:30 p. m. Friday, in the basement of the Methodist church.

TUALATIN MEADOWS

(Special Correspondence.)
TUALATIN MEADOWS, Ore., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schroeder were pleasant callers at her brother's, John de Neul, on Sunday.

The Misses Myrtle and Ivy Borland were pleasantly entertained at the home of their cousin, Miss Mable de Neul, it being her 14th birthday last Thursday.

B. P. Weddle was seen going to town with a load of hay and hogs one day this week.

We hear that Max McMahan and wife have rented the Estberg place and will take possession soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ellingsen visited at R. de Neul's Sunday.

Gottlieb Keller sold five acres of his land to C. Ackerson, Mrs. C. C. Borland's brother. He expects to start a chicken ranch.

Mrs. R. Wilde attended the Ladies' Aid last Thursday in spite of the rain. We are glad to hear that Mrs. B. F. Weddle is up again. She has been suffering with pleurisy.

Hood River apple crop will net about $700,000 this year.

EAGLE CREEK GRANGE HAS REGULAR MEETING

SEVENTY-THREE ARE PRESENT AT SESSION—SCHOOL CLOSED ON ACCOUNT SICKNESS.

EAGLE CREEK, Ore., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—John Moore, of Damascus, son-in-law of Mrs. Ida Carpenter, was up to see her last week and get some apples.

Everett Beckett was recently the guest of his wife and mother on the farm.

On account of so much sickness among the pupils, school was closed for a few days last week. Miss Edna Keeney, the teacher, went to Portland Thursday, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Marshall Alspaugh, the remainder of the week.

Eagle Creek grange held its regular meeting Saturday with about 60 members in attendance. Including visitors and children there were 73 present. After a short session in the morning, a fine chicken dinner was served. After dinner business was resumed. One candidate was obligated in the third and fourth degrees, and two initiated in the first and obligated in the second degree. An interesting program was rendered.

James Bell, Charles Updegraves and Miss Viola DeShazer, members of Sandy Grange, were grange visitors Saturday.

Miss Opal McDaniel attended the Eagle Creek Grange meeting Saturday and was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Rosanna Clester, Saturday night and Sunday.

Dick Gibson was an Estacada visitor Saturday.

Roy and Carl Douglass were chopping grain for some of the farmers in this neighborhood the first of the week. Roy Douglass had a chopper and last week he purchased an engine with which to run it from George Apperson.

HUNTING CATTLE IN MOUNTAINS
OWNERS HAVE DIFFICULTY IN FINDING ANIMALS—TURKEY SHOOT IS SUCCESS.

GARFIELD, Ore., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Fall plowing is far behind in this section, very few having sown.

Several of the men of the Farmers Cattle club are in the mountains trying to get out the cattle they had on the range, of which there remains about 40 head. As it is so stormy it is difficult to find them.

H. Robinson took part of his turkeys to the Estacada shooting match and received good returns.

There was quite a good sized crowd out. Among others was Dock Palmer who had taken part in the first shoot of the kind away back in the '50's.

Much excitement was caused by a horse that was being driven into Estacada from Springwater way, falling very sick just in front of Bill Jones' livery barn. The veterinary being right there he did all he could for the animal, but it died.

Mrs. Ida Palmatur is visiting at her sister's Mrs. E. Burlingame of Fairview.

B. Deming of Garfield has gone on a trip to Chicago and New York. He will combine business with pleasure. He intends working up sales for loganberry and prunes, as he is extensively interested in the growing of both fruits. His sister, Edna, accompanied him, as they intend spending some time with their parents in New York.

Andy Fanton and family are visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Fanton.

Quite a number of cattle and hogs have been marketed from Garfield in the last three months through Mr. Luke, of the Union Meat company, and still there are more to market.

Road supervisors are busy taking trees out of the roads owing to the high winds Sunday.

Two Children Had Croup.

The two children of J. W. Nix, merchant, Cleveland, Ga., had croup last winter. One was a boy of 6, the other a girl of 8 years. Mr. Nix writes: "Both got so choked up they could hardly breathe and couldn't talk. I gave them Foley's Honey and Tar and nothing else and it entirely cured them." This reliable medicine should be in every home for it gives immediate relief from colds, coughs and croup, heals raw inflamed throat and loosens phlegm. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

MARQUAM WOMEN BUSY

MARQUAM, Ore., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The Ladies' Aid society held a bazaar and supper Wednesday night. Wesley Stockwell of Portland came out to spend a few days with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Stockwell of this place.

Ed. Quian of Oregon City came out Saturday to visit his sister, Mrs. Wesley Yoder.

Misses Myrtle and Roman Albright are at home this winter.

Guy C. Larkins has recovered from his illness so that he can take charge of his school again.

Mr. Woster, of Gladings brought in a wagon load of geese and sold them to J. C. Marquam.

Ben Thomas of Scott's Mills sold a fine lot of turkeys to Mr. Cummons.

WILLAMETTE SCHOOL PLAY BIG SUCCESS

PROCEEDS TO APPLY ON PURCHASE OF ORGAN—PARENTS AND TEACHERS ORGANIZE.

WILLAMETTE, Ore., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The play "Out in the Streets," given by the Epworth league Saturday evening, November 20, was breezy, sparkling and witty in character and may be classed among the best of the general productions given by this same troupe.

The cast is as follows: Colonel Wayne, Sidney Waldron; Mrs. Wayne, his wife, Ruth Wright; Nina Wayne, their daughter, Mae Waldron; Pete, the negro servant, Arthur Waldron; Mrs. Bradford, a poor widow, Edith Waldron; Minnie Bradford, her daughter, Florence Trombley; Solomon Davis, the villain, Will Snidow; Mathew Davis, his son, Waldron Hyatt; Dr. Medfield, Nina's lover, Terry Barnes.

Among these special mention should be made of Colonel Wayne and Mathew Davis as well sustained character and gave and five hundred and a literary program was well rendered.

Sandy Rebeck lodge had a Thanksgiving supper.

Sandy Masonic lodge will have a feast and public installation December 21st.

City election coming off in making things lively. It looks like two tickets will be in the field. P. Meinig again is after the mayor's place. L. E. Hoffman, Fred Proctor and R. F. Dittert are the candidates for the council, and Walter Grumerit, recorder, and St. Deaton, treasurer.

The heavy rain of the last week has raised the Sandy river the highest in the last 16 years.

Mrs. H. S. Eddy, who was in a Portland hospital for treatment, has returned home much improved in health.

Mr. Weddle killed a half dozen young hogs Monday. Thought it would not pay to feed dollar wheat. He sold a number of them to the butcher at Oswego at 8 cents per pound.

The community was shocked last Thursday to hear of the suicide of Mr. Koegel. He had been known in St. Paul for a good many years and sympathy is extended to the family.

Mrs. Adolph Delker's baby has had a bad cold for a couple of weeks and seemed to take worse Saturday and Monday the mother called in a neighbor and sent for a doctor. The child is thought to be out of danger at present.

One of the Kollenmeyers caught a couple of chicken thieves and knocked one of them down it is said, and they carried off no chickens from there.

The second road meeting Saturday was nearly as much of a fiasco as the first. They passed the budget, but most hold another meeting to vote on the 2-mill tax and to take a straw vote for supervisor. The call meeting is for next Saturday, November 27th at the schoolhouse.

The Ladies' circle met with Mrs. Aerin on last Thursday and pieced a quilt for her.

Many fields of potatoes are not dug yet.

JENNINGS LODGE MAY INCORPORATE SOON

PETITIONS SAID TO BE ALMOST READY FOR CIRCULATION—GLADSTONE PLAN FAILS.

Plans to incorporate Jennings Lodge are being made and it was reported in Oregon City Tuesday that petitions were being prepared and would be circulated within a few days.

The boundary lines of the new town would probably follow along the line of the Portland Railway Light & Power company for some distance both sides of the station at Jennings Lodge and extend down to the river. Several hundred persons live in the district which would be affected by the incorporation of a town.

Promoters of the plan to extend the boundaries of Gladstone to Meldrum on the north, to the river on the west and to the Clackamas, or even further this way, on the south have given up their scheme, it is understood. A mass meeting was held recently at the Gladstone Commercial club and the project was not well received.

OREGON CITY WOMAN BURIED AT MILWAUKIE

The funeral services for the late Mrs. Ellen McLarty was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Beard, 682 Marion avenue, Portland, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in the Milwaukie cemetery.

The pall bearers were Kennedy and Hugh McLarty of West Linn, brothers of Mr. McLarty, and F. W. Beard of this city, B. L. Beard of Gladstone, L. A. Beard of Wapinitia, Wasco county, and H. C. Beard of Portland, all brothers of the deceased.

Mrs. McLarty was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beard and was born in St. Joseph, St. Croix county, Wisconsin, April 16, 1881. Nineteen years later she was married to William McLarty on January 1. The following spring they moved to this city where they have since resided.

Besides a host of friends she leaves her husband, a daughter, Martha L., and son, Samuel McLarty; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beard, and four brothers.

OAK GROVE AGENT OF RAILWAY RESIGNS

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Warren, of Oak Grove, have resigned as agents for the Portland Railway, Light & Power company at that place after eight years of efficient service. Mr. Warren's work was such that he was unable to assist Mrs. Warren with the duties of the office and they became too strenuous and confining for her to look after alone.

Their place was filled by Miss Myrtle Williams sister of the postmistress at Oak Grove. The postoffice has been moved into the Warren building and the young ladies look after both of these offices.

In the building of the new Labor Temple at Portland, it is the intention to employ home labor not only directly but indirectly. Oregon made materials will be given the preference.
