True Christmas giving consists in presenting that which you can afford to give and which does not put your friends under too heavy obligation. You will find hundreds of such gifts at Huntleys.

Books Make the Best Christmas Presents

There is nothing easier to buy than a book—and nothing that makes a better showing for the cost. There is nothing that indicates such thoughtfulness on the part of the giver and that brings such real and lasting pleasure, as well-chosen books.

Good books have a peculiar dignity all their own. A dainty volume costing but a trifle often possesses a character and worth that no money, spent in other articles, can buy.

GUSTAV SCHOERR IS VEREIN PRESIDENT

GERMANS HOLD ANNUAL ELECTION SUNDAY—PROGRAM IS WELL RENDERED.

The Deutsche Verein of Oregon City met in regular monthly session Sunday afternoon at Knapp hall. Gustav Schoer was in the chair. It was the annual meeting and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Gustav Schoer; vice-president, D. M. Klemsen; secretary, Rudolph Selter; treasurer, Louis A. Noble; trustees, R. Petzold, Chris Hartman and P. J. Winkle. Mrs. P. J. Winkle, Miss August Hopp and Carl Schaudt were appointed as entertainment committee.

At the close of the business session, the following program was well rendered: Opening address, President Schoer; song and chorus, Verein; recitation, Master Gus Schoer Jr.; vocal solo, Frank Rotter, Carl Pradrutti accompanist on piano; recitation, Carl Zeibel; piano solo, Carl Pradrutti; reading, H. W. Streibig; address, Vice-president Klemsen; closing address, President Schoer; song, "Wacht am Rhein." Verein.

At the close of the program all partook of a German dinner, after which a social hour was passed in musical selections, songs and games.

The annual Christmas tree will be held Sunday afternoon, January 2, for which an interesting program is in preparation.

CLACKAMAS PORK CONDEMNED

Eleven hundred and ninety-five pounds of diseased pork were Wednesday night condemned by an inspector from the office of Dr. M. B. Marcellus, city health officer, upon the ground that the meat showed traces of cholera. The pork was shipped to Constantine's market from a farmer by the name of A. Blatt, living in Clackamas county.

BASKET SOCIAL IS GIVEN AT STONE

CLACKAMAS, Ore., Dec. 13.—At an entertainment and basket social given at the Stone school house $20 was raised to be used toward standardizing the school.

A good program, consisting of solos, recitations and readings by local talent, was rendered before a large audience. A unique feature of the evening entertainment was an improvised fishing pond which afforded much merriment as well as yielding numerous nickels to the common fund.

DAVIS PHOTOGRAPHS WEST LINN COUNCIL

The West Linn council was photographed Wednesday by S. P. Davis, the photographer who is making a collection of photographs of the South Fork project. The council canvassed the returns of the election of December 6 and issued certificates of election to Mayor Leuthwaite, the new members of the council and the other recently elected officials. The bond of the treasurer was set at $5000 and the day of the regular monthly meeting was changed from the first Tuesday in each month to the first Wednesday.

ONE DAY ILLNESS IS FATAL TO GIRL

Evelyn Ingram, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ingram, died Saturday morning of typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of only day. The girl was a grand niece of E. H. Cooper. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the Presbyterian church.

MRS. J. W. McANULTY DIES AT HER HOME

Mrs. James W. McAnulty, a resident of Oregon City for almost a quarter of a century, died at her home early Friday night following an illness of one week. Her death was caused by pneumonia. Mrs. McAnulty was born 54 years ago and came to Oregon City from Minnesota. She was a sister of Mrs. Viola Godfrey, who is well known here and is now in New York city, and is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. Mayme Livesay, of this county; Mrs. Daisy Wette, of The Dalles; James McAnulty, of Clackamas county; Frank McAnulty, of Gladstone; Arthur McAnulty, and Misses Eva and Viola McAnulty, of Oregon City.

FORMER POLK EDITOR DIES NEAR ESTACADA

Word has been received here of the death at Estacada of W. A. Wash, former editor and publisher of the Polk county Itemizer of Dallas. Mr. Wash went to Dallas in 1887 and purchased the Itemizer from Glass & Prudhomme, now engaged in the printing business in Portland. Later he sold it to V. P. Fiske, now postmaster of Dallas. Mr. Wash was a native of Kentucky and served in the Civil war in a Confederate Missouri regiment, rising to the rank of captain. In one of the earlier battles of the war he was captured and spent the balance of his days until the war closed in the federal military prison on Kelley's Island, Lake Erie. Since leaving Dallas he has been residing on a small farm near Estacada.

distributed among Oregon City merchants. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Settlemeir, of 872 East Burnside street, Portland, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter. Mrs. Settlemeir was formerly Miss Edith Jackson of this city and has many friends in Clackamas county. Earl Lutz, who is well known in this city, was elected mayor of Madras, Wash., last Tuesday. Mr. Lutz is in business in that city and has been located there for nearly two years since leaving the employment of J. Levitt in this city. Judge Grant B. Dimick and E. R. Gregory attended the livestock show in Portland Thursday. Mr. Dimick and Mr. Gregory are interested in stock raising on their farm a few miles from this city. They are engaged in raising Poland Chinas, Berkshire and O. I. C. swine. Miss Maybelle Hoffman, of Portland, was in this city yesterday en route to Canby, where she will remain until Friday evening. Miss Hoffman recently moved from New Era to Portland with her parents. During the next week she plans on entering the Good Samaritan hospital where she will take a nurses' training course. "Twinkle" Starr, who has been working for the last month as a herdsman in Clackamas county, and spent the greater part of this time at the farm of Frank Haberlach in Clackamas, was in Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Starr attended the livestock show in Portland and had charge of some of the best cattle exhibited for sale purposes. Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, of Logan, were in this city Thursday returning from the International Livestock show held at the Union Stock yards in North Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes own some of the finest Guernsey cattle in the northwest. They did not make an entry this year, although it has been their custom in years past. The chapel car "Good Will" with headquarters in Portland is in this city preparatory to making a trip to Maple Lane on the Willamette Valley Southern where a mission will be held for about two weeks. It will return to Portland via Oregon City. It is probable on the return trip services might be held in this city. The car is in charge of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Driver. W. F. R. Smith, of 241 Washington street, returned Friday night from Mos-
