Almost every trip made by the steamers plying between Portland and Oregon City brought passengers to this place who enjoy the scenic trip from Portland by boat. A rural mail service by water furnishes the U.S. mail to those whose homes are on the river banks.

The beautiful River View camp grounds is the scene of a large gathering of people during the later part of July and first week in August when the Evangelical Association camp meeting is in session. And each session of the day a splendid program is given, which is a fine opportunity for the community to attend and enjoy.
