

COUNTRY NEWS and PERSONALS

Macksburg Clubs Hold Joint Session

WOMAN'S CLUB OF LUTHERAN CHURCH ELECTS—FAMILIES MOVE TO CANBY.

MACKSBURG, Ore., Jan. 13.—(Special)—The Mother's club gathered in response to an invitation at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Klaus, on the afternoon of Saturday, January 8, to meet the Woman's club of the Lutheran church. Owing to unfavorable weather, however, only three members, Mrs. John Hepler, president; Mrs. G. M. Baldwin, secretary; and Mrs. Carl Hoehne, were able to accept the invitation.

Being the first meeting of the new year, important business was to be transacted. Rev. Fr. Lucas, of the Lutheran church presided over the meeting. Those present besides Mrs. Klaus family were: Miss Bertha Lucas, sister of Rev. Fr. Lucas; Miss Mary Lechner, the two Mesdames Lechner, Mrs. George Koch, the Misses Anna and Bertha Koch, Mrs. Ganske, Mrs. Cummins, Mrs. Diederich Harms, Jr., and Miss Lydia Cummins.

In the election of officers, Mrs. Ganske was chosen president; Miss Bertha Lucas, secretary, and Mrs. Carl Hoehne, treasurer. The election being over a plan of work was outlined for the new year. The club will meet once in two weeks at the home of one of its members. The next meeting to be with Mrs. Ganske, the new president, on January 20.

All business being disposed of the secretary of the Mother's club read, upon request, a brief history of the club for the first year of its existence, beginning January 7, 1915. After this, a lunch was served and as the evening shades were closing in, the guests took leave.

The Mother's club is to meet on Thursday, January 13, at the home of Mrs. Frank Hilton.

Mrs. J. Gibson, while visiting in Portland, contracted a severe cold and pneumonia is feared.

Mr. Gastcock, formerly of New Orleans, who with her family came here three years ago, is just now moving to Canby.

Mrs. Wise, mother of Mrs. Gastcock, who with her son, has been living in Macksburg for the past three years, is going to Canby to live.

The new owner of the Bestal ranch, moved into the place on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Lecher, who have been occupying the Bestal place since last September, have moved away.

Miss Anna Hepler who has been staying at the home of her grandfather for the last month, came home last Wednesday.

Mrs. George Sutherland and her little daughter, Joy, who have been seriously ill, are well on the way to recovery now.

Lloyd, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hilton, was hurt so seriously while playing with a group of large boys that surgical attention became necessary, but he is gaining fast.

Road improvements and bridge repairs are going on, both being necessitated by the heavy rain of the past two months.

That true and constant little friend, the meadow lark, has never deserted us. However, forbidding the weather may have been, his tuneful warble is heard every morning and often in the middle of the day.

After all other feathered rivals have gone to a summer clime, he stays to cheer us with his incomparable song.

The grip which has been prevalent for the past month, is abating somewhat, now.

Officers Elected By Mulino Phone Co.

MULINO, Ore., Jan. 13.—(Special)—Molalla Grange, No. 40, met on their regular day last Saturday and installed their officers for this year. Mrs. Bond the state lecturer, was a visitor, and acted as installing officer, assisted by J. A. Davis.

The Mulino Telephone Association met Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the town hall and elected a new set of officers. They are G. W. Smith, president; Albert Erickson, secretary; Wallace Porter, treasurer; J. A. Davis and J. L. Daniels, directors.

J. N. Jepson has rented a part of the town hall and is going to move his store into it as soon as it can be made ready. The workmen are putting in the counters and shelves and general fixtures for him at present.

Miss Flo Miller is visiting her niece Mrs. Tom Fish, the last few days.

The Ladies Social Club of Mulino, met at Walter Waldor's Thursday evening. Thirty-four persons were present, the families of the ladies having been invited.

Mrs. Crook is reported to be ill, being threatened with pneumonia.

Coughs and Colds Are Dangerous
Few of us realize the danger of Coughs and Colds. We consider them common and harmless ailments. However statistics tell us every third person dies of a lung ailment. Dangerous Bronchitis and Lung diseases follow a neglected cold. As your body struggles against cold germs, no better aid can be had than Dr. King's New Discovery. Its merit has been tested by old and young. In use over 46 years. Get a bottle today. Avoid the risk of serious Lung ailments. Druggists. (Adv.)

Hazelia Debaters' Meeting Is Lively

BEAUTY OF NATURE AND ART IS DISCUSSED—SNOW MAKES FARMERS HAPPY.

HAZELIA, Ore., Jan. 13.—(Special)—Hazelia Literary and Debating Society met Saturday night with a large number present. A short program was given, followed by a few minutes recess, after which there was a debate on the question, "Resolved that Nature is more beautiful than Art." A good argument was put up by both the negative and the affirmative sides. Two weeks from Saturday night the Society has a dialogue staged with songs and recitations, and they will debate on the following question: "Resolved that there is more pleasure in pursuit than in possession." There are four debaters on each side. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

A continuance of snow and rain make Hazelia farmers wear broad smiles.

The officers of Oswego Grange were installed Saturday. A number of Hazelians were there.

Mrs. R. Potter, who has been visiting with her parents, returned to her home at Mikkalo, Ore., Sunday.

In spite of the snow a goodly crowd was out to attend Hazelia Sunday school.

Little Donald and Wilber Lehman, who have been ill with chicken pox are much better.

Fred Lehman transacted business in Portland Saturday.

Alfred Thomas was hauling hay on Monday to his cows. He hauls his cream to Oswego and ships from there to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Hultberg were Portland visitors Saturday.

There will be the usual evening services at Hazelia school house.

Before me lays a page of white as I pen a glad new year to all the Enterprise readers, and may each day bring new joy and happiness, as we remember only the good in the years that have passed. As for resolutions, there is only one for me, and that is to do my best and leave the rest for whatever comes to me. Success to the Morning Enterprise and all connected with it.

Master Jerry Flala is ill with la-grippe.

Henry Zivney is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Worthington are living on the Johnston farm which they have rented.

Emil Zivney, who has been ill with the chickenpox is able to be in school again.

Roy Foster left for the coast a few days ago.

W. R. Zivney is busy these days marketing his immense cabbage crop.

S. M. Stone, who has been living on the A. Walling farm, is selling his livestock. Mr. Stone expects to move to Washington soon.

Farewell Party at Meadowbrook home

MEADOWBROOK, Ore., Jan. 13.—(Special)—P. O. Chindgren and family and Miss Hannah Johnson, were entertained at dinner by Miss Hilma Olsen at Colton Monday last week.

A farewell surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holman Thursday night. There were 25 guests present. The evening was spent in playing games and music. A lunch was served at midnight. The guests left shortly afterwards.

Mr. Holman is going to attend the short course at the O. A. C. In the meantime Mrs. Holman will visit with her parents.

B. A. Benson of Christine, North Dakota, strayed into this locality and is now renewing old acquaintances at Abe Larkins'. Mr. Benson intends to visit I. O. Oren at Cedardale while here.

Everybody in this locality seems to be nursing a cold. Several cases of la-grippe have been reported.

Miss Nettie Larkins returned to Molalla Monday where she is attending high school. Miss Larkins has been sick, so was unable to attend school last week.

Mrs. Ada Nordling called on Miss Hannah Johnson on Monday.

A number of young folks attended the basketball game at Colton Saturday evening.

Ben Chindgren and Miss Hudson spent Sunday at P. O. Schiew's.

Damascus Woman Ill

DAMASCUS, Ore., Jan. 13.—(Special)—Mrs. Warner has been seriously ill with la grippe but is improving. Mrs. Arnes Norton is working there while she is sick.

Mrs. Edna Wolfhagen and Miss Pearl Hook spent several days in Portland last week visiting friends.

L. W. Warner recently bought a 40-acre irrigated tract near Deschutes from L. W. McFarland. It is all improved and there are 14 acres of alfalfa. Mr. and Mrs. Costet are moving up there to look after things.

Earnest Frank traded his place to Mrs. Scott for a tract of land near Lebanon. Mr. Frank left Friday and Mrs. Scott moved here Saturday.

Will the party who exchanged rubbers by mistake, at the German hall Saturday evening, Jan. 1, 1916, please phone Damascus 31 and receive the odd rubber and return same.

Big Loss of Ties Denied by O. Tull

FIRM IS AT WORK BETWEEN LIBERAL AND MEADOWBROOK—MOLALLA STORES SHIFTED.

MOLALLA, Ore., Jan. 13.—(Special)—Oscar Tull, of Tull Bros. Logging company, was in Molalla last week. He stated that the rumor that they had lost 20,000 ties at Canby when the boom broke recently, was not true. He said they might have lost 50 ties. The Tull brothers are making ties on the property belonging to W. H. Bair of Canby. The timber is located between Liberal and Meadowbrook. The ties have been floated down the Molalla river to Canby.

Mr. Bowen was in Molalla last week. He has been bedfast for three weeks with the grip. His two little daughters are having the whooping cough.

H. N. Summerville took advantage of the recent cold snap to bring in a supply of wood from the country. He kept his own and an extra team on the road every day while the road was frozen.

It is reported that Guy Hewette is

Douglass Telephone Company Elects

EAGLE CREEK, Ore., Jan. 13.—(Special)—The de Rottis brothers have been busy felling trees and sawing them into cordwood.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister, January 7, a son.

Mrs. A. D. McMillan, who was for the last two or three weeks, a guest of Portland relatives, returned home last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan are making preparations to move from the Elliott farm, leaving their Eagle Creek friends.

Walter Douglass, who has been in the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland, for several days, returned home one day last week, accompanied by his wife. He is improving slowly.

Mrs. Courter was the guest of Mrs. Howlett Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Udell, of Dover, visited with the latter's father, James Gibson, last Thursday.

Fred Hoffmeister made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reid were here last Friday, visiting with James Gibson.

J. P. Woodie, of Estacada, was visiting with friends and relatives in this neighborhood last week.

Fred Moehcke was the week-end guest of his sister, Mrs. Roy Douglas. Miss Mabel Beckett went to Portland last week to work as nurse in one of the hospitals.

R. B. and H. S. Gibson and Roy and Carl Douglass took a number of hops to Estacada Monday which they sold to buyer Lucke.

Mrs. Vilos Douglass and Miss Edna Kennedy called on Mrs. Howlett Sunday afternoon.

George Priestler, of Logan, was here Sunday, visiting at the home of Roy Douglas.

Jack Saunders, accompanied by a

MOLALLA, Ore., Jan. 11.—While

For Your Baby. The Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher
is the only guarantee that you have the

Genuine

CASTORIA

prepared by him for over 30 years. YOU'LL give YOUR baby the BEST

Your Physician Knows Fletcher's Castoria. Sold only in one size bottle, never in bulk or otherwise; to protect the babies.

The Centaur Company, Chas. H. Fletcher prop.

A PROSPEROUS 1916

May Father Time deal kindly with you and yours during the new year.

May he bring brightness into your home and may his footprints be upon the right side of your Bank Book.

May he often incline your feet in our direction and may your visits be of such a nature that when the new year has grown old we will both look back and say "A very good year indeed".

W. J. WILSON AND COMPANY

12TH AND MAIN STREETS
OREGON CITY, OREGON

Selling the entire

Mitchell, Lewis and Staver Co.

line of Farm Machinery and Vehicles.

To Preach Sermons For Young People

WILLAMETTE, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The electric lights on Railroad avenue which were recently ordered by the city council are in working order and add much to the appearance and convenience of Willamette these rough and stormy January evenings.

Mrs. Mae Heath and small daughter who spent the holiday season with relatives here have returned to their home in Seattle.

The grippie seems to have loosened its hold on Willamette and the percentage of attendance in school has materially increased.

Parents are thankful that coasting is for a while a thing of the past. Willamette has many hills well adapted to the above sport and many of the young people disposed to take advantage of weather conditions in this respect.

Miss Lydia Bunke has been attending school in Oregon City since the holidays.

The Epworth league held its regular meeting at 6:30 p. m. Sunday, Miss Vivian Bartholomew, fourth vice-president, was leader and the topic of the Epworth Herald was ably presented.

Misses Marshall and Wirt, teachers in the Willamette school, report that their mothers are seriously ill of la-grippe at their respective homes in Portland.

Beginning with Sunday evening, January 16, Rev. Abbott will preach a series of sermons with special reference to young people. Since Mr. Abbott has occupied the pulpit at Willamette the Epworth league and Boy Scouts organizations have been growing steadily.

The last meeting of the Parent Teachers' association, was a very interesting one. Starting Friday, January 15, it was decided that hot lunches should be served in the domestic science room of the school house. Mr. Shipley was made superintendent of the school gardens and Mrs. Hyatt delivered an entertaining talk on "How Children Are Cheated." The Jennings Lodge circle are to be invited to the next regular meeting of the association.

Paisley: Reports here say Western Pacific plans feeder into this section of Oregon.

Grange at Barlow Installs Officers

BARLOW, Ore., Jan. 13.—(Special)—The first meeting of the local grange this year was held Saturday, with 22 members present. The following officers were installed by Mr. Glover, master of Eagle Creek grange: Master, C. N. Giddings; Overseer, absent; secretary, Miss Pearl Hayes; treasurer, H. T. Melvin; steward, W. W. Jesse; assistant steward, Mrs. Roy Farmer; lady assistant steward, Leona Farmer; chaplain, Mrs. C. N. Giddings; lecturer, Mrs. Hayes; Flora, absent. Mr. Glover is a county deputy.

A dinner was served. Instructive and interesting talks were given by different members on the aims and its benefits.

The Widows gave a watch party to many of their friends New Year's eve.

The old Will place has changed hands again. Mr. Todd sold the place to some parties by the name of Crowley.

George Berg left Friday for Los Angeles and San Diego, Calif., where he expects to remain 6 or 8 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. White attended Pomona grange at Molalla Wednesday.

Abe Witvold fell from a car in the gravel pit Tuesday, injuring himself severely.

Miss Lorina Widows is suffering with asthma, and Miss Florence has a severe attack of rheumatism.

SANDY GRANGE ELECTS.

SANDY, Ore., Jan. 10.—Sandy grange met Saturday when the following officers were installed for the ensuing year:

Master, A. C. Thomas; overseer, J. P. Kellher; lecturer, John Roberts; steward, J. G. DeShazer; assistant steward, Viola DeShazer; chaplain, Mrs. J. Peglos; treasurer, A. J. Morrison; secretary, James Bell; gatekeeper, William Bell; Ceres, Lulu DeShazer; Pomona, Ruth Hart; Flora, Elsie Bell; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Maggie Thomas; executive committee, J. M. Thomas, Mrs. J. Karl and Mrs. C. Chown.

A program was rendered. A six months' membership contest was started. J. G. DeShazer and Mrs. Blanche R. Shelley are leaders of the teams.

Rubber Stamps

Our Rubber Stamp Department is prepared to turn out your orders for special stamps on short notice.

Orders received by 5 P. M. delivered the following morning.

Butter Wrapper Stamps

16 OZ. FULL WEIGHT

DAIRY BUTTER

G. H. JONES OREGON CITY, R. F. D. 2

Rubber Stamp like above, Stamp Pad and Bottle Ink, $1.25.

Oregon City Enterprise

Office Outfitters
Phone Pacific 2 Home B-10

Portland butcher, was out looking for beef cattle Monday.

Mrs. T. C. McKay, who has been visiting in Portland for the last three or four weeks, returned home Sunday.

The Douglass Mutual Telephone company held its annual meeting Monday night. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: R. B. Gibson, president; Ed. Naylor, vice-president; H. S. Gibson, secretary and treasurer. Will Douglass was re-elected director.

Ray Woodie and Alex Baker are the other two directors.

Mr. John Arolter and R. S. Clark of the Dover Telephone company, were present at the meeting. As both companies use both poles part of the way to Estacada, it was decided that they co-operate and put up new poles along the line where they were most needed.

Get Rid of a Racking LaGrippe Cough—It Weakens.

For the severe racking cough that comes with la-grippe, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is wonderfully healing and soothing. It eases the tightness over the chest, raises the phlegm easily and helps the racking, earing cough that is so exhausting and weakening. R. G. Collins, ex-postmaster, Barnegat, N. J., says: "Foley Honey and Tar Compound soon stopped the severe la-grippe cough that completely exhausted me. It can't be beat." Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

One of our Stafford neighbors thinks his grain has been disappearing, but now he has a watch dog while others have set traps.

Mr. and Mrs. Meeks spent New Years with friends at Canby. Mr. Meeks is the new mail carrier from Oregon City, who occupies the Barbara Moser house.

back from east of the mountains and has taken up his residence in Lents. His mother and two children have been living there for some time.

Clyde Engle took the drag saw belonging to D. W. Badger to his country place. He arranged for Mr. Badger to cut and saw up a year's supply of wood for himself and a neighbor.

Fred Schaffer has contracted to saw the balance of his timber for a Portland firm at a fair price. This will require continuous operation of his logging camp and saw mill for several months to come. The lumber will be loaded at Molalla.

Mr. Ohrm, of Colton, was trading in Molalla last week. He said his dragsaw is on the skidway belonging to Hulst Brothers logging camp. Mr. Ohrm has been saving the logs before they were floated down the river. The river was a little too high to operate the saw at its present location for a few days.

Mr. Nudelman, the local merchant, has shipped the balance of his stock to Portland. Mr. Knapp is moving his stock of groceries to the room just south of the butcher's shop to the one on the north. Mr. Knapp owns the whole building. The Molalla Mercantile company has moved to the new quarters on Main street in the building formerly occupied by Spencer's pool hall. Last spring the stock of the mercantile company was in the building in which Mr. Knapp has moved.

A number of changes have been