

KNIGHTLY FOUND GUILTY BY JURY IN JUSTICE COURT

LENIENCY OF COURT RECOMMENDED — DELIBERATION BEGINS AT 4, ENDS 9 P. M.

TWO PRINCIPAL WITNESSES FOR STATE DO NOT APPEAR IN COURT

Charles Richardson, Alleged to Have Confessed, Disappears and R. A. Gamewell Now Is On His Way to Alaska.

The state has won the first prohibition case in Clackamas county. A jury in the court of Justice of the Peace Sievers Wednesday returned a verdict of guilty in the trial of A. J. Knightly after deliberating from 4 o'clock in the afternoon to 9 o'clock that night. Leniency was recommended. Knightly will be sentenced today.

The jury was composed of Henry Salisbury, Edward Harrington, E. Dailey, Martin Christensen, George Ott and Fred B. Madison.

District Attorney Hedges and Deputy District Attorney Thomas A. Burke represented the state and George C. Brownell the defendant. The conviction was secured despite the fact that the two principal witnesses for the state, one of whom is said to have made a complete confession, could not be found. Charles Richardson, said to have confessed, dropped from sight several days ago.

R. A. Gamewell, a former employee of the Home Telephone company, is alleged to have bought intoxicating liquor from Knightly February 2, the day before the raid was made by Sheriff Wilson, Constable Frost and Chief of Police Blanchard.

Gamewell left for Alaska several days ago. Knightly on the stand said at first he had not sold cider to Gamewell on February 2, or at any other time. District Attorney Hedges then put Mrs. Gamewell on the stand and she said she has gone to Knightly and pleaded that he sell no more hard cider or Jamaica ginger to her husband.

Samples of the hard cider, which tested 4 per cent alcohol, taken in the raid were introduced as evidence. State Chemist A. S. Wells, who made the test, Charles Graham, a druggist, who sealed the bottles after taking them from Knightly's place, Thomas A. Burke who carried the liquid to Portland and the three officers who made the raid were other witnesses for the state.

Harry Kellogg, L. T. Thomas and Knightly himself were the witnesses for the defense.

Local peace officials were considerably pleased Wednesday night over the success of their first prohibition case.

WOMEN VOTERS MANY AT JENNINGS LODGE

Of the 150 voters who have registered in Jennings Lodge, 98, or a large majority, are women, according to figures prepared by P. D. Newell of that town. Registration figures secured by Mr. Newell show that the Republicans in his home precinct have that same comfortable margin which is noted in practically all of the registration totals made this year. The 150 voters are divided as follows: Republicans, 116; Democrats 29; Prohibitionists, four; Socialists, six and Progressives, one. He estimates the total number of voters in Jennings Lodge precinct at 206.

FARM OWNER FILES SUIT TO BREAK LEASE

TIMBER CUT, CROPS NOT DIVIDED AND PROPERTY MISMANAGED, SAYS THOMAS SPENCER.

Charging that the provisions of a lease on a 52.71 acre Clackamas county farm have been violated, Thomas Spencer, owner of the property, has filed a suit in the circuit court against J. A. and A. H. Ripley, who hold the lease, seeking to regain possession of his property and to secure $54, alleged unpaid rent.

The lease was signed April 3, 1914, and was to run for four years. Under the document, the owner was to receive one-third of all produced on the farm, but in case of dishonesty the owner was to have the privilege of taking the property back into his own control.

In 1914, Spencer alleges, the Ripleys produced 16 tons of hay valued at $10 a ton on the property, but failed to divide it, as provided in the lease. Spencer says that the Ripleys have failed to sell any of the products of the farm. He declares that they went into timber on the property and cut a number of trees. He says cattle were pastured during wet weather which, he says, resulted in considerable damage to the property.

HIGHWAY CHANGE TO SOUTH NOT PLANNED

ENGINEER E. CANTINE DECLARES ROUTE AS FAR AS EUGENE NOT TO BE ALTERED.

The new routing of the Pacific highway between Eugene and Oregon City will not vary from the existing line of county roads, according to an announcement made in Eugene by E. I. Cantine, deputy state highway engineer, in an address before the members of the Eugene chamber of commerce.

Mr. Cantine said he was not in Eugene to make any future announcements for the highway department, but he did say the new line would remain virtually the same from Eugene north to the Clackamas county line.

Mr. Cantine reported work in Douglas, Jackson, and Josephine counties progressing with rapidity and predicted a creditable highway between Portland and the California boundary line as soon as funds were available for the work.

"The engineering work of the state highway is much in advance of the funds," said Mr. Cantine. "The department is planning, however, to parcel the work this year in small units and roads will be built according to the funds available."

LEADERS OF THE OPPOSING SIDES FIGHT TOGETHER

PARTY LINES ARE FORGOTTEN IN NAVY MEASURES AND VOTE IS UNANIMOUS.

SPEAKER AND REPUBLICAN LEADER WORK FOR BILLS HAND IN HAND

Opponents of Preparedness Fail to Show Hand on Roll Call—Joseph Cannon Hints That Move Be for Campaign Purposes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Speaker Clark and Republican Leader Mann fought side by side in the house today for adequate national defense. With party lines obliterated, most of the members followed their leaders and two navy measures passed without a dissenting vote. One, to provide for adding 200 midshipmen to the entering class at Annapolis next July, passed 175 to 0, and the other to equip navy yards for construction of battle-ships Nos. 43 and 44, passed without a rollcall.

Mr. Mann tried to put the anti-preparedness advocates on record by calling for a division on the Naval academy bill, but there were no negative responses.

The appearance of Speaker Clark on the floor to campaign preparedness measures aroused wide interest. Rumors persisted that he would take active charge of the fight to increase the army and navy, Majority Leader Kitchin having joined the opposition.

Immediate improvement of the navy by designing new battleships along the lines of the best now in use, doubling the membership of both Annapolis and West Point, creation of many additional regiments for the army and shorter enlistments to produce a reserve, were among suggestions made by the speaker. He said he expected discuss the subject of preparedness generally, soon.

Mr. Mann reiterated his previous pleas for a larger army and navy and aided in maneuvering the bills to passage.

The debate went far afield from the measures under consideration, extending to the general subject of military preparedness. The unusual sight of the speaker and the minority leader battling together for administration measures, while the majority leader sat silently in the back of the house, attracted crowds to the galleries, and members rushed to the floor from their offices and committee rooms.

Mr. Clark urged haste in getting new battleships into commission. Representative Cannon, of Illinois, created a stir by asking if the talk of preparedness was a sham performance for campaign purposes. Later he said he did not intend the remark as a criticism of the president.

"The gentleman was trying to put in a nice way a very nice criticism of the president, but he did not get away with it," Representative Fitzgerald, of New York, said.

PRESIDENT RETURNS HOME AND IS PLEASED

ADVISERS BELIEVE PREPAREDNESS PROGRAM WILL BE LAW BEFORE END OF MARCH.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—President Wilson returned home this afternoon from his middlewestern preparedness speaking trip.

The president did not appear weary, and his wife was fresh and cheerful. "It has been a most interesting trip," said the president as he shook hands with all members of the party.

That the president's preparedness program will be adopted by congress before the end of March, those close to him predicted freely today. Whether this forecast was based on the enthusiasm which greeted his speeches throughout the middle west or was in the light of international developments could not be learned.

JACK CONFER GIVEN A JOB ON ELEVATOR BY MAYOR HACKETT

PREDICTION MADE IN ENTERPRISE TWO WEEKS AGO FILLED WEDNESDAY.

About two weeks ago the Enterprise made the prediction that one of the elevator men would be removed to make way for Jack Confer.

At the council meeting Wednesday night the forecasted event took place. An account thereof follows:

Mayor Hackett said he understood the elevator needed a number of tools. The council placed authority to buy the tools in the hands of the street committee.

Metzner suggested regulations should be posted in the elevator. The council referred to this to the street committee with power to act.

Roake, a member of the street committee, said the council was putting too much responsibility on the street committee. He moved that the mayor be given the right to hire and fire elevator operators. The motion passed.

Mayor Hackett then announced J. Shockey was removed and that Jack Confer had his job.

Metzner said the elevator operators should be younger men than either Shockey or Confer. Buckles agreed with Metzner.

Templeton woke up and asked if the council would confirm the appointment of Confer, and Roake reminded him that he council by motion authorized the mayor to hire and remove elevator operators without the confirmation of the council.

A month ago when an attempt was made to remove the men on the elevator special council meetings were held and considerable interest aroused. The Enterprise announced after the matter had quieted down that one of the elevator men would soon be removed.

5 ARE DEAD AND 2 MISSING AFTER FIRE AT OTTAWA

PROPERTY LOSS IS ESTIMATED AT $3,000,000; BOMB PLOT IS NOT CREDITED.

POLICEMAN TELLS OF FINDING BLAZE IN PILE OF OLD PAPERS

Meeting Held in Royal Victoria Museum and Speaker Sits Without Robe of Office—King Sends Message of Condolence.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 4.—The number of known dead in the fire that last night destroyed a portion of Canada's magnificent parliament house is now set at five—two women, guests of the premier, and three men. The latter were Alphonse des Jardiines, a Dominion politician; Alphonse des Jardiines, his uncle, an employe in the building, and Robert Fanning, a waiter.

Two others are missing—H. H. Low, member for Yarmouth, N. S., and J. P. Laplante, assistant clerk of the commons.

David Ewart, consulting architect of the public works department, estimated the property loss at $3,000,000.

The Canadian parliament met today in the auditorium of the Royal Victoria Museum. Speaker Seignin was with out his robes of office, which were destroyed in last night's fire.

Premier Borden read messages of condolence from King George of Great Britain, from the Duke of Connaught, the governor-general and from the provinces of the country.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, opposition leader, joined in the expression of determination to continue the work of the parliament.

The business which the fire interrupted last night was completed and the house adjourned to meet at the usual hour on Monday.

The authorities today discredited the theory that the fire was caused by an incendiary bomb placed by a plotter. At the hearing today the policeman on duty at the senate entrance said he discovered a blaze in a pile of newspapers in the reading-room, tried to put it out with a chemical extinguisher, failed and ran for a chemist when the fire had run through the reading-room.

Another policeman who was at the common entrance to the reading-room insists there was an explosion in the chamber, which burst the doors and swept him off his feet.

KING SIGNS CONSCRIPTION. LONDON, Feb. 5.—King George today signed the conscription bill. It becomes effective February 10.

COMMISSION TO PAY DIVIDEND OF $50,000

STATE INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT BODY DECLARES EXEMPTION OF PAYMENTS FOR MONTH

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 5.—(Special)—The State Industrial Accident commission today declared an exemption of payments for the month of February of all employers and the workmen of these employers who have paid their contributions for the past six successive months.

This action was taken in accordance with section 19 of the amended law, the commission having found that the fund amounts to a sum sufficient to meet all payments and liabilities accrued, together with a surplus of 30 per cent thereon.

The commission has set aside as a segregated fund the sum of $277,859.26 in the hands of the state treasurer, who has invested same in Oregon school and municipal bonds drawing five and six per cent interest, and the above fund, and interest to accrue thereon, is an irrevocable fund which will be used exclusively to pay pensions already awarded on settled claims in fatal cases and for permanent disability.

The exemption declared by the commission means that the state will carry the insurance risks of all operations in the state which are working under the act, and have qualified for the exemption, without cost to either employers or workmen, for the entire month, will pay all bills for care and time loss of injured workmen. Fully 85 per cent of all the hazardous occupations in the state are now protected by the act. In addition, a large number of non-hazardous occupations, including several hundred farmers, are, by application, enjoying the protection and benefit of the act, and will participate in this exemption.

It is, in effect, a dividend paid by the commission, as an insurance company, back to employers and their workmen, of approximately $50,000, and is the second dividend of this kind declared by the commission under the amended law since the beginning of the present fiscal year July 1, 1915.

"There is any other charge against these defendants?" inquired Justice Stearns.

"There is, Your Honor," replied Attorney General Rice, "but Mrs. Mohr is on bail on the other charge."

"The defendants Brown and Spellman are committed without bail," said the court, "and Mrs. Mohr is discharged from custody on this complaint."

"The fight has only begun," was the comment of William H. Lewis, counsel for Brown. Mr. Lewis has taken numerous exceptions during the trial and said that he might carry the case to the supreme court.

The trial began January 10 and the jurors had been kept together all that time.

Mrs. Mohr made a brief statement after returning to her home tonight. She said she had been confident from the beginning that no jury would ever convict her.

"I am home again," she said, "with my children and I hope to be allowed in peace to devote the rest of my life to their welfare."

LAWYER FOR CONVICTED MAN SAYS FIGHT IS JUST BEGUN

Mrs. Mohr, in Formal Statement, Says She Hopes to Be Allowed to Devote Rest of Life in Peace to Her Children.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 5.—Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr was acquitted tonight by a jury in the superior court of a charge of having instigated the murder of her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, C. Victor Brown and Henry H. Spellman, negroes, who were accused of the actual killing, were found guilty. The jury reported at 6:07 o'clock after having been out since 10:50 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Mohr swooned while the foreman was announcing the verdicts. Her head dropped forward and she was slipping from her chair when her attorneys grasped and supported her while a court officer rushed for a glass of water.

"Is there any other charge against these defendants?" inquired Justice Stearns.

"There is, Your Honor," replied Attorney General Rice, "but Mrs. Mohr is on bail on the other charge."

VERDICT GROWS WHEN DEFENDANTS APPEAL

Dissatisfied with the verdict in the court of Justice Sievers, Furmen Buzbee and Myrtle Buzbee, defendants in a suit for rent filed by John Bittner, appealed to the circuit court. The case was tried Wednesday before a jury in Judge Campbell court, and a verdict for $5 more than the justice court verdict was returned. Bittner sued to collect alleged unpaid rent, and secured a verdict in the circuit court of $46.50.

CONSTABLE WILL NOT EVICT FAMILY NOW

FROST TELLS LAWYER HE WILL NOT SERVE PAPER DURING SNOW STORM.

Oregon City has an official with a heart and his name is D. E. Frost, constable.

Yesterday constable Frost was given an order of eviction by a local lawyer and told to serve it on a family in West Linn. The constable investigated the case and found that the family had no place to go if thrown out of their home. One of the children in the family was ill, he learned, and they were poor.

He returned to the lawyer. "If you want to throw that family out in the snow, you'll have to get someone else besides me to do it," he said. "I refuse to evict a family in such weather as this, whether they pay their rent or not. You'll have to wait."

TWO WOMEN DIE IN GUN PLAY ON RANCH

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Feb. 8.—Mrs. Mary A. Wilcox and her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Jones, are dead and William Doyle is slightly injured as the result of a fight early this morning at the Jones ranch, near the Langell Valley postoffice, in the southeastern corner of Klamath county, about 50 miles southeast of this city. Sheriff Low and a deputy, with County Coroner Whitlock, left for the scene as soon as the sheriff's office was notified this afternoon, but owing to almost impassable conditions of the roads, they will not arrive until some time tonight.

Details as to the feud are meager. When the sheriff's party had proceeded as far as Bonanza, 18 miles from the scene of the crime, Sheriff Low telephoned his office here that he had received report that the two women

HORSE SWIMS TO HIS DEATH OVER FALLS

Employees of the Hawley Pulp & Paper company at Station A Wednesday saw a horse carried down the current in the middle of the river and go over the falls. He was swimming, but was unable to make any progress against the current. The horse had a bride, and was not seen again after going over.

FIRE DESTROYS BOARDMAN HOUSE

A large two-story house at Boardman on the line of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company was destroyed by fire about midnight last night. Owing to the fact that telephone wires in that district are still down, it was impossible to learn the name of the owner, or the loss. The house made a warm and bright fire despite the heavy rain, and many in Oregon City could see the bright lights to the north caused by the blaze.
