

COUNTRY NEWS and PERSONALS

Want Mail to Come Over S. P. Again

MOLALLA, Feb. 17.—(Special)—Mr. Kay was surprised when friends and relatives gathered at his home, Feb. 7, in honor of his 57th birthday. The evening was spent in games and general merrymaking. Mr. Kay has lived in Molalla a great many years.

Molalla has had a gasoline famine recently which has been rather hard for the many users of that fluid.

Mrs. Ramsey has been suffering with rheumatism of the abdomen.

Miss Alta Ramsey is having her pupils make a special study of Clackamas county in their geographical work.

The youngsters had great fun preparing their valentines under their teacher's direction.

A junk dealer recently took advantage of the closeness to railroads to gather up his wares on foot.

A load of hops was delivered to the S. P. depot, Monday. That is rather an unusual sight around Molalla.

Four great bulging boxes of teasels were shipped, last week from the Gregory teasel shed, where trimmers are constantly at work.

Visitors to Molalla are surprised to learn that we escaped the silver thaw.

Mrs. Allen has just received her daughter's trunk. Her daughter and little grandson started for Molalla from Colorado recently but decided to stop in Wyoming.

Mrs. Sam Behnke has been sick recently, necessitating the children staying at home to help her.

Mrs. Knapp, S. K. Knapp's mother, has been very ill, but last reports are that she is gaining strength.

Mrs. Davidson has been seriously ill but is improving.

Mr. Runnels has been very ill, but is somewhat improved at present.

Mr. Johnson, who recently sold his blacksmith shop and home, was back in Molalla last week. He says that the most that his wife has been moved since she went to the hospital several months ago, was when her feet were placed upon a pillow. The bone which it was thought had started to knit has broken apart again. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have the sincere sympathy of all Molallans in their trial.

A petition to ask that the mail be again returned to the S. P. line is finding ready signers. A census was taken last week to learn the sentiment of the people in the matter. The daily mail plays an important part in Molalla life and Molallans want the best service that is going.

Little Essie Henricks is better. She was one of the first to leave school with whooping cough. Later she became afflicted with rheumatism of the hands and feet. Mr. Henricks has also been suffering with rheumatism.

Ed. Metzler was in town recently, hauling wood for J. Metzler. Mrs. Metzler and the children are in Portland. Oscar Lyons has gone to Tualatin with Ed. Metzler to help with the moving.

Mr. Clark and family have moved from the Metzler house to another part of town.

Mr. Nudleman is moving his household goods to Portland. He moved the store goods some time ago. The family went Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Davis, from Cowlitz county, Washington, is visiting her cousin, Mr. Hunt, and his family.

Some of the Molallas gardeners are planting their early potatoes.

The parent-teacher meeting is to be held at the school house on Friday, February 18.

Lumber and ties are arriving at the S. P. depot from every direction, since the weather has turned better.

Frank Adams is smoking a nice lot of hams and bacon. Both Mr. Adams and his brother, George, are noted for the superior quality of home cured ham and bacon that they put up.

Picture Show In Ardenwald School

(Too Late for Last Week.)

ARDENWALD, Feb. 10.—(Special)—A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Garretsen last Tuesday.

The snow is rapidly disappearing from this vicinity and high water is following in its wake. At Errol station, Johnson creek has overflowed its banks and people suffer inconvenience in getting to the station.

Eddy Lench, who was injured by a fall two weeks ago, has recovered. Gladys Dunton and Lena Ulen attended the Gogorza concert Sunday afternoon at the Hellig.

The picture show which was to have been at the school house Feb. 1st, was postponed on account of inclement weather. Mr. Lyons, the picture man, came for his machine Friday and to the delight of all gave his show to the pupils. The boys' basement playroom was hurriedly darkened so that it could be used for the purpose. Pictures of Yellowstone Park, Chicago poor and Mr. Lyon's farm for unfortunate boys were shown. The show was instructive as well as interesting.

After LaGrippe—What.

Coughs that "hang on" after lagrippe exhaust the strength and lower the vital resistance. F. G. Prevo, Bedford, Ind., writes: "An attack of lagrippe left me with a severe cough. I tried everything. I lost in weight and got so thin it looked as if I would never get well. I tried Foley's Honey and Tar and two bottles cured me. I am now well and back to my normal weight." Foley's Honey and Tar gets right at the trouble. It is safe, reliable remedy. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

Valentine Party at Ed. Wanker Home

HAZELIA, Feb. 17.—(Special)—Frank Whitten was in Oregon City Friday.

Hugh Baker was marketing cabbage in Portland Friday.

Mrs. Frank Childs spent a very pleasant evening with Mrs. A. Worthington Monday evening.

Mrs. S. H. Carter, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. F. W. Wanker, Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Miss Imogene Jewell spent Friday and Saturday at her home in Portland.

Mrs. Fred Croissant, of Baker, Oregon, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Whitten at this writing. Mrs. Croissant was formerly Miss Florence Hays of Hazelia.

C. C. Borland and son, H. Borland, were in Portland Monday.

A. Nelson was in Oregon City on business Monday.

D. E. Long made a business trip to Oswego Monday morning.

Our road supervisor is having some work done on the Oregon City road near Oswego.

J. H. Wanker and niece, Miss Lulu Wanker, were pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. A. Worthington Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eastman and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McMahon spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Max McMahan.

Those who attended grange in Oswego from Hazelia, Saturday, were Mrs. Fred Lehman and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland, H. Borland, Mrs. A. Worthington and Mrs. Frank Childs.

Miss Blanche Duncan spent the week end at home.

Elva Wanker was pleasantly entertained by her cousin, Miss Lulu Wanker, Sunday.

A. E. Helms went to Portland Tuesday.

A pleasant affair of the week was a Valentine party given by Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wanker. Those present were: Misses Iva Whitten, Marion Eastman, Jean Prymbrooke, Lena Prymbrooke, Elizabeth Prymbrooke, Leona Prymbrooke, Lucy Pollard, Hannah Pollard, Lulu Wanker, Blanche Duncan, Irene Duncan, Wanda Wanker, Ruth Pfeiffer of Portland, Imogene Jewell, Elva Wanker, and Winfield Baker, Lloyd Wanker, Walter Wanker, D. E. Long, Willis Miller, Herbert Duncan, Dana Jewell from Portland, Morris Wilmarth and Chas. Austin from Oswego, John Pollard, Garton Eastman, W. B. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitten and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman and family, Mrs. Frank Childs, Mr. and Mrs. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Helms and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wanker and family.

Broken Leg of Lad Had To Be Re-Set

EAGLE CREEK, Feb. 17.—(Special)—Tommy McKay, who some three or four weeks ago, broke his leg while coasting, had the misfortune to slip the other day and hurt his leg again and it was necessary to have Dr. Adix come and re-set it. He was getting along so well, and was able to walk with a crutch.

A. W. Cooke and wife, of Damascus, were the guests of Mrs. Howlett for a couple of days last week.

A. D. McMillan and wife have moved to their new home down near Gresham.

Mrs. Cora Udell spent last Wednesday with Mrs. R. B. Gibson.

Mrs. Roy Douglass' father, Godfrey Moehne, and brother, Robert, visited with her for two or three days last week.

Mrs. Howlett received a call from Mrs. J. W. Cahill last Friday.

Mrs. H. S. Jones was recently the guest of her mother, Mrs. Viola Douglass.

Mrs. Bessie Douglass visited with Mrs. Howlett one day last week.

Mrs. Hattie Clester visited at the home of her son, Guy, for a day or two last week.

H. B. Gibson and wife were Estacada visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. Damm visited with Mrs. de Rome Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Douglass called on Mrs. Howlett last Saturday.

Mrs. Media Murphy was the guest of Mrs. Rosa Baker on Monday.

W. F. Douglass and wife were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Naylor Sunday.

W. W. Cooke was a guest at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Howlett, Sunday.

Miss Selma Beck, of Damascus, came up to Mrs. Howlett's Sunday and is staying with her for a time to help with the work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dous were guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Walter Douglass, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Naylor, Will Douglass and James Taylor were Estacada visitors on Monday.

E. L. Hollander is clearing some of the stumps from his land.

Miss Edna Kennedy was the weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Marshall Alspaugh, of Portland.

Mrs. Kate Courter and son, James Taylor, left on Tuesday on their return to their home in Dufur.

The entertainment given Saturday evening by Eagle Creek camp, No. 539, W. O. W., was well attended and a good time was reported.

Springfield Methodists will build a $15,000 church.

Aged Woman Meets With Injury-Club

MACKSBURG, Feb. 17.—(Special)—Since our long snow storm subsided, the mountains have been lavish in bestowing glimpses of their majestic beauty upon us. That pride of our state, Mt. Hood, has shown out in glittering splendor through a part of every clear day.

As we gaze upon his icy majesty so stately and so grand, we cannot help wishing he could speak and tell us if he has been there looking just as he does today throughout all the centuries since the creation. Through devastating war, upheaving earthquake, destroying fire and submerging flood has he stood ruddy in the morning and evening glow and dazzling in the noonday sun as now?

The mountain tops—we are told—were submerged so we may think that the great deep was sinking away from our Mt. Hood, at the same time when it was residing from time-honored Afarat to afford a place where the weary Patriarch with his sea-sick land might set forth on dry land once more.

The welcome sound of the Luth-

Henry Walsh had the misfortune to sustain quite a serious injury in the leg by a fall from his barn.

Mrs. Kate Seward has returned from Molalla, and is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Lehter.

Cal. Weller who has been staying in Washington for some time, has come home.

Frank Hilton, with his son, Glenn, has gone to his mountain ranch to prepare for moving the entire family there in the approaching spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Miller with their daughter, Elvira, were business visitors at Casby on Saturday.

The spelling match at the Bear Creek school on Friday night was well attended and enthusiastically conducted. The next contest will be on the evening of Friday, Feb. 18th.

Governor to Attend At Barlow Grange

BARLOW, Feb. 17.—(Special)—Mrs. Cora Gilbertson entertained the Ladies' Aid at the church last Wednesday.

The Misses Agnes, Emma, Stella and Nellie Berg entertained their school friends last Saturday by giving a party at their home.

A grange meeting was held Saturday. A Lincoln program was rendered, it being the first meeting Mrs. Irwin has been able to attend. A memorial service was given for her mother, Mrs. Quint, showing with what respect Mrs. Quint was held by the grange, of which she and Mrs. Quint were charter members in Sioux county, Iowa, in 1870.

Elmer Irwin drove to Liberal Saturday night where he played basketball with the Canby Athletic club.

Mrs. Fall's mother and brother returned to their home at Jacey Friday.

Mrs. Graham Surprised By Many Friends

WILSONVILLE, Feb. 17.—(Special)—The lecture and social at the school house last Friday evening was a splendid entertainment and Mrs. Joe Thornton delighted the audience with a vocal solo. The proceeds amounted to $24.00.

Mrs. Hood Graham was very much surprised on Saturday afternoon, February 17th, to receive a visit from the members of the "Mothers' club, of Corral Creek district, the occasion being her birthday. Mrs. Doris Young won the prize for the afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served and Mrs. Graham was the recipient of many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Aden went to Portland on Wednesday.

Mrs. Andy Hasselbrink was a visitor to the Rose City on Saturday.

Mrs. Jake Peters went to Portland on Thursday.

Mrs. Joe Thornton and Dr. Butler accompanied Maggie Bishop to the hospital on Wednesday, her condition being so very serious.

The registrar informs the farmers near Wilsonville, that no change has been made in their voting precinct, for which they are thankful.

Aaron MacConnell was ill with a gripe last week, but is now better.

Lincoln's birthday was observed in the local school.

Appointments for judges and clerks of election for the ensuing two years, was made at the January term of court.

A Valentine box was enjoyed by the school children on February 14th.

Mrs. Chas. Ridder went to Portland on Friday to undergo an operation on the eye and nose.

Dr. and Mrs. Butler and Mrs. M. C. Young and family went to Portland on Thursday, to attend the recital of Professor Graham.

A Big Price Reduction In Stover Engines

Now made in 1-1/2-2-4-6 Horse Power and up at prices that put this good engine within the reach of all.

SEE THE NEW LINES AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

W. J. Wilson & Co.
Oregon City, Oregon
12TH and MAIN STS.

FULL LINE
Pumps, Wagons Implements, Etc.

eran church bell floated over the land on Saturday evening to tell us there was to be service on Sunday morning and the heavy rain of Sunday did not prevent a large and attentive congregation assembling at service time.

Mrs. Schrock, mother of Mrs. Simon Miller, while going to the Bethel Chapel on Sunday afternoon, sustained an injury on falling that rendered her unable to help herself. Owing to Mrs. Schrock's advanced age the accident might have resulted fatally had not Mr. Troynes, on his way to the chapel discovered her and taken her home before injurious effect from the cold had taken place.

Geo. Herbst has had a severe attack of gripe but has been so faithfully attended by his neighbors that he is on the road to recovery now.

The Mothers' club met at the home of Mrs. Karl Boeche on the afternoon of Thursday, the 11th. The visitors were Mrs. Rudolph Klaus and Fraulein Lucas, sister of the pastor of the Lutheran church. Fraulein Lucas won all hearts by her exquisite rendering of some German songs. Mrs. Klaus sang the alto, giving an effect that was pleasing in the extreme. The next meeting of the club is to be at the home of Mrs. Simon Miller, Feb. 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heigerson are preparing, much to the regret of the many friends they have made here, to move to Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Minger will move into Mr. Heigerson's house as soon as it is vacant.

Mr. A. W. Adamson of Willamette was visiting friends here Saturday.

Mr. Adamson was up Thursday. His father had a stroke of paralysis last fall so that he is now an invalid.

Governor Withcombe will be with the grange here February 22 and will deliver a lecture to the public at 1 o'clock in the hall. The public is cordially invited.

Miss Hattie Irwin is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Bauer this week.

The Register invites the attention of scientists to a peculiar phenomenon that was observed at Eugene nearly all day Monday. A brilliant and dazzling light seemed to pervade the whole landscape, and aroused much wonder.

What Children Need Now. In spite of the best care mothers can give them this weather brings sickness to many children. Safe, reliable family medicines are in demand. Mrs. T. Neurener, Eau Claire, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my boy of a severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. I recommend it to everyone as we know from our experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough." It stops the coughs that hang on and weaken after the lagrippe. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

Corvallis: 350,000 volt transformer from Panama exposition installed at O. A. C.

A school fair will be held at the local school on parents' day, Friday, February 25th, to which all parents and those interested are cordially invited. Prizes of ribbons will be awarded according to merit.

M. McCormick Dies From Heart Failure

KELSO, Feb. 17.—(Special)—The Kelso farmers are delighted with the fine weather and many of them are plowing for spring grain.

Mrs. Chas. Erickson from West Minister, B. C., is visiting relatives and old neighbors here.

A son of Mrs. Martin, who lives on the old Carlson place, died here of tuberculosis last Saturday.

Mike McCormick, a well known resident near Sandy, died suddenly Monday morning of heart failure. He was just starting to Oregon City and dropped dead before he could go.

Joel Jari, Ned B. Nelson and others went to the Union Stock yards Monday to see a butchering contest. Joel Jari was in Oregon City Tuesday, paying his and several of his neighbors' taxes.

Slough of Despond Road in Bad Shape

STAFFORD, Feb. 17.—(Special)—Mrs. Mary Baker, who has been on the sick list so long, is now slowly recovering her health and is with her daughter, Mrs. Schaubert, who had the misfortune to cut a part of one finger off, rendering it difficult to care for her baby.

Mrs. Gebhardt made a pleasant call upon Mrs. Gage Monday.

Mrs. Gage visited at Mrs. Van Northwick's last Saturday.

Saturday was the only day of continuous sunshine Stafford has seen this year.

John Gaze writes from St. Helens, 30 miles down the Columbia from Portland, that during the freeze some houses had icicles eight feet long hanging from the eaves, and they were as thick as a man's leg, while one actually measured 10 feet. And that is a dry town, too.

The Hop association is gathering in the hops with prospect of a fair price.

Our worthy telephone secretary contemplates building a new barn on his productive little farm as soon as the telephones in all parts of his district are repaid. Ice and snow made sad havoc here as well as elsewhere.

The roads are quite passable except the slough of Despond, south of John Wanker's. That grows worse all the time and now it seems as if the powers that be would order eleven or eight loads of something good dumped in there. It might save some one getting dumped with a load, say of eggs.

On Sunday about fifty hikers from Portland passed by, stopping to enquire the way now and then, and trying to dodge the rain drops. They had come by rail to Tualatin, then hiked it through the mud and rain. They were headed for Pettes mountain for dinner, then hike to Oregon City and take a car for home.

Farmers begin to look about for spring grain for seed, as a good share of the ground in this vicinity was not sown when the early fall rains came and will not have to be seeded to spring grain if the fields do not dry off soon.

Pies Bring $4 Each—Must Have Been Good

MARJUAM, Feb. 17.—(Special)—The leap year pie party held in the hall Saturday night, Feb. 12, was a grand success financially as well as socially. Two pies brought $4.00 each which was quite expensive pie eating. The men and boys furnished the pies and the ladies bid on the shadow of those furnishing the pies which was lots of fun.

Charles Bricket was auctioneer. The proceeds of the evening were $27. The crowd left at a late hour wishing that another leap year would soon come again and they might have other enjoyable times. The hall was filled to its full capacity.

Isaac Stevens, of Lower Howl Prairie, was over visiting his brother-in-law, J. E. Marquam, last week.

Wm. Gigger and J. H. Hatler sold their hops for 11c to some Aurora buyers.

Mrs. Josa Shewmaker has been stopping in Woodburn with her brother, G. W. Bentley for a few days.

Mrs. H. L. Skirvin died near Scotts Mills Feb. 6. She leaves four sons and one daughter. Her husband died several years ago. She had been ailing for a long time.

G. W. Bentley died in Woodburn last week. He formerly lived here but moved to Woodburn two years ago.

Miss Bertha Miller is still near Astoria with her relatives.

Mrs. Della Young and family are intending to move to Oregon City soon. We all regret to see them leave for they have been a great benefit to our neighborhood while they have lived here.

Guy C. Larkins and Miss Madison, the teacher of our school, are preparing a program to be given Feb. 25. The program will consist of drills, recitations songs and instrumental music by the Marquam band boys. The parents are especially invited and a general social time is anticipated.

Hazelia People Keep on the Move

(Too Late for Last Week.) HAZELIA, Feb. 10.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland and Mr. Harry Borland were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Borland Sunday.

Mrs. F. Hulberg was a visitor in the Rose City Saturday.

Well, now that it is leap year girls, your secret choice don't keep, don't waste your time on paint and curls, but look before you leap.

The Hazelia Literary and Debating society met Saturday evening with a small crowd as the weather was unfit for many to venture out.

The cabbage cultivators, who have been looking for Indian graves and prospecting in general, are back to their cabbage patches, cutting a few heads that grim winter left.

Guy McVay transacted business in Portland Saturday.

Miss Blanche Duncan spent the weekend with relatives in Portland.

A number of Hazelians, who belong to Oswego grange, expect to accept the invitations of the Portland Union Stock yards at a luncheon, to be given to members of the different granges, Monday, February 14th. Demonstrations of how stock is handled, weighed, graded and accounted for, besides shipping and marketing and addresses and discussions by various ones will make up a day of instructive entertainment.

"I guess I will have to write another note to my wife," said a fellow from this burg. "Last night she knocked me down with a stool, then danced a jig on my chest, pulled my frozen ear, kicked me in the slats, fracturing one of them; took my pocketbook and then locked me in the cellar, where the temperature was 17 degrees below. Now, don't you think she should be reprimanded and I will write her a stern note forthwith. I will demand a disavowal, for no one can run over me like that, without hearing from me."

Adam Wallins, who lives in Portland was a pleasant caller at this place Sunday. Mr. Walling owns a fine farm at Hazelia. He used to reside here.

We think the correspondent must undoubtedly have had a very bad dream, as the item she wrote about E. E. Miller, of Portland calling on B. S. Houtz was not true.

Little Miss Glendora Hulberg, who has been ill is able to resume her school duties again.

A Thomas was hauling wood Monday.

S. S. Houtz spent Friday with friends in the Rose City.

A great deal of lagrippe and sore throat is prevalent over the county and many school children are obliged to miss school owing to sickness.

Most of Hazelia scholars resumed their duties at school Monday. There was no school at Hazelia at all on Thursday and Friday of last week.

W. H. Zivney, an all-around good fellow and a very busy farmer as well, is cutting his immense cabbage crop.

A. Walling was a pleasant caller at the Geo. Nagel home Sunday.

E. M. Stone also lost three head of cattle and his household furniture in the fire that destroyed George Nagel's barn. Mr. Stone had his furniture stored in the Nagel barn.

Chicken pox is still prevalent here. Donald Anderson is quite sick with it. H. Duncan, Frank Whitten and Fred Lehman marketed cabbage in Portland Tuesday.

Clarence Whitten is helping W. H. Zivney cut cabbage.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS. The Enterprise desires to advise all subscribers who have subscribed for the paper and are entitled to receive the premium of four magazines, that their names have been forwarded to the eastern publishers and the subscribers should either have received the first copies ere this or will within a very short time. The subscriptions— the receipt of the first copies, running for a year from that time.

OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE. Harriman: Union Pacific system has 200 men putting on finishing touches on branch into Harney county. George W. Moore mill at Bandon opens March 15.