

PORTLAND GAINS FIRST 2 MONTHS OF PROHIBITION

REAL ESTATE AND RENTAL VALUES HOLD UP AND SAVINGS ACCOUNTS GROW.

FEBRUARY POLICE RECORDS SHOW SLIGHT INCREASE IN DRUNKENNESS

Alcohol is Now Used as Beverage and Number of "White-Liners" Grows

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 28.—The Demon Rum, who was thought to have received his death blow January 1, shows some signs of reviving.

Arrests for drunkenness are increasing. During the short month, just ended, statistics show a distinct gain over January.

This, too, despite the fact that during the month, as well as in January, officers of the law have been active in raiding blind pigs and quantities of liquors have been seized that would float a moderate-sized battleship.

Much of this confiscated stuff has been given back to the owners, due to the fact that convictions, it was believed, could not be obtained.

Bootlegging is thought to be on the increase in Portland.

The use of alcohol as a beverage is reported to be gaining.

The "white-liner" one who mixes water or other liquids with alcohol and drinks it, is said to be growing in numbers, and this sort of a "jar" is providing work for the police, the doctor and, incidentally, the undertaker, for the drink is believed to be the most deadly form of intoxicant.

"The dry law is working very well," said Chief of Police Clark. "We do not have half the arrests or the trouble we had before the prohibition act went into effect. Drunks are few and they will be fewer as soon as the stuff stored is used up, for drunkards will not be able to get more."

Traffic accidents show a big falling off since the prohibition law went into effect.

The night-ride and the joy-ride have been eliminated almost wholly. There was only one arrest during February for operating an automobile while intoxicated.

Business men and bankers are almost unanimous in their declaration that prohibition has eliminated a large amount of economic waste.

Savings accounts have grown in number and in volume, collections in the retail stores are greatly improved, and this condition is reflected in the collections of the wholesalers; business in nearly all retail lines has improved and a substantial part of this improvement is attributed to the fact that much money that formerly went over the bar is being spent for necessities.

The Parkplace school, which was closed four days last week on the order of County Health Officer Welsh on account of several cases of scarlet fever and chicken pox, reopened this week.

DO IT NOW.

Oregon City People Should Not Wait Until It is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due largely to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headache, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

T. Trembath, Seventh & Center Sts., Oregon City, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills when my back and kidneys have been bothering me and I have had great relief. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly relieved the soreness and lameness in my back in a short time. I have found that they are a fine kidney medicine."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Trembath had. Foster-McMillan Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Oregon City and Portland Markets

PORTLAND LAMB AND MUTTON TRADE STRONG

HOG MARKET, HOWEVER, WEAKER IN PORTLAND—FLOUR PRICES TAKE DROP.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, Feb. 28.—A strong tone continues for mutton and lambs at North Portland.

Only one load came forward during the last 24 hours, this being the first shipment since the nominal showing of Monday.

Killers are fairly well supplied with stock they purchased direct in the country, but demand is nevertheless good.

General mutton and lamb range: Choice light lambs $7.90; Good to common lambs $8.00; Choice yearling wethers $8.00; Good to common yearlings $7.00; Old wethers $6.75; Choice light ewes $6.75; Good to common ewes $6.00.

Hog Market Weaker.

Market for hogs was weaker and generally showed lower bids at the opening of the day's trade at North Portland.

While there was only a small run reported in over night, and these were from the Willamette valley, where packers are offering guaranteed prices for delivery from week to week, the trade did not take hold promptly during the morning.

General hog market range: Good light weights $7.90; Good light weights $7.30; Medium weights $7.00; Rough and heavy $7.50.

Cattle Market Quiet.

There were only scattered small shipments of cattle to the North Portland market for the day's trade, and general conditions are showing the dullness and weakness of the first days of the week.

General cattle market range: Choice pulp fed steers $7.50; Choice grain fed steers $7.25; Ordinary grain fed steers $7.00; Choice hay fed steers $6.90; Good steers $6.75; Ordinary to common steers $6.50; Choice cows $6.50; Ordinary to common cows $6.00; Choice heifers $6.75; Ordinary to good heifers $4.00; Choice bulls $3.75; Good to fair bulls $3.00; Ordinary to common bulls $2.00; Good calves $7.00.

Tomorrow morning bright and early there will be a general cut of 20 cents a barrel in the price of flour at wholesale and retail. The lower prices are first named since the season started; the advances being continual up to this time. Owing to the recent sharp price losses in wheat both here and at other points, millers decided to lower the cost of the material for the making of the daily bread. The new wholesale price on the best grade of patent flour will be $5.40 per barrel.

LIVESTOCK MARKET IN PORTLAND STEADY

BEST PRICE PAID FOR HOGS IS 8 CENTS—EXTRA FANCY STUFF BRINGS 8.10.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, Feb. 28.—Steadiness prevailed throughout the livestock market at the Portland Union stock yards this morning.

The best price paid for hogs was 8 cents. Yesterday afternoon a couple of loads were disposed of at 8.10c a pound, but they were extra stout and commanded a premium. The 8-cent hogs this morning were of good quality but not fancy.

Receipts were 162 cattle, 1 calf, 1022 hogs and 485 sheep, a total of 18 cars. Sales this morning follow:

Table with columns: Steers, Cows, Calves, Bulls, Hogs. Rows: 9, 2, 1, 17, 7, 2, 2, 6, 1, 1, 3, 3, 4, 65, 22, 75, 67, 92, 81, 1, 2, 3, 2, 20, 12.

PORTLAND TO HAVE LIVESTOCK SHOW

OVER 100 HEAD SCHEDULED FOR SHOW AND SALE TO BE HELD IN MARCH.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, Feb. 28.—Portland is to have a spring livestock show. This will be held at the Portland Union Stock Yards on Wednesday, March 23, the date of the spring short-horn sale. It is the intention of the management of the yards to have all short-horns to be offered for sale placed on exhibition by the different consignors and awards made. This will enable buyers to have the benefit of expert judges before making purchases. It is an entirely new feature and one which should prove of inestimable benefit. Thus far over 100 head are scheduled for the show sale. Consignors are among the best known breeders of the northwest.

The market today was steady with only a small volume of trade and light receipts which totaled 10 cattle and 375 hogs. Among the shippers was C. E. Lucke of Canby, with a car of hogs.

OVER SUNDAY LIVE STOCK RUN SMALL

MUTTON AND LAMB TRADE HAS STRONG TONE—HOG MARKET IS STEADY.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, Feb. 28.—The total run of livestock in the North Portland yards over Sunday was very disappointing to the trade here, all told the arrivals consisting of 48 loads.

There was a strong tone in the mutton and lamb trade at the opening of the week's market. One lot of extra good lambs sold at $9.05, or the extreme figures of last week.

Receipts of mutton and lambs were exceedingly small, and full strength of the trade is continued.

Cattle Market Just Holds.

In the cattle market there was only a comparatively small run at North Portland over Sunday. Some pulp fed stuff came forward, but the extreme top of the market is generally considered around $7.50.

Dullness continues in the general cattle trade, even though present supplies are small. Holdovers in the hands of killers are liberal, this being a dominating influence.

Hog Market Is Steady.

Market for swine was generally considered steady at the week's opening trade at North Portland. Over Sunday the run was rather small, as compared with last Monday morning's showing. Early sales of top quality were made at $8.05, which is practically the same as the bulk of the stuff sold last week.

NO GENERAL CHANGE IN MARKET INDICATED

HOG RECEIPTS LIMITED AND CATTLE TRADE IN PORTLAND YARDS IS SLOW.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, Feb. 28.—There was only a nominal showing of new supplies in the North Portland yards over night, and on general change in the trend of the market is indicated. While $8.15 was obtained Monday for some extra good stuff, the general market was not then above $8.05 for tops.

Hog receipts since yesterday were comparatively limited; in fact, only one full load came forward.

Cattle market showed only a handful of stuff in the North Portland yards over night.

General trend of the market remains slow to steady for everything except the pulp fed stuff, and arrivals in that line are shown only about once a week.

Not a single head appeared in the mutton division of the North Portland market over night.

Full strength continues to be indicated by both mutton and lambs. Without supplies, the market was not tested during the day.

LIVESTOCK MARKET IS STEADY AGAIN

HOG RUN IS HEAVY, BUT INTEREST OTHERWISE IS NOT PRONOUNCED.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, March 1.—The livestock market was steady throughout again today at the Portland Union Stock Yards. The hog run was excellent, but aside from it there was little interest manifested.

Receipts were: 73 cattle, 14 calves, 219 hogs, and 74 sheep, a total of 7 cars.

Officials quotations in the local livestock market today were as follows:

Table with columns: CATTLE, STEERS, COWS, CALVES, BULLS, HOGS, SHEEP. Rows: Steers—Choice $7.25; Good $7.00; Medium $6.50; Cows—Choice $6.75; Good $6.50; Calves $5.25; Bulls—Choice $5.00; Hogs $7.50; Sheep $8.05.

Veal Hits Top Notch.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 1.—Veal hit a high mark yesterday afternoon and again this morning when some extra fancy calves sold along Front street as high as 12 1/2 and 13 cents.

In the opinion of some of the commission men the market is nominally at 11 to 11 1/2 cents, expressing the belief that not enough stuff sold at the higher figures to establish a market. Whether it did or not, there is no gainsaying the fact that the market is very strong, despite heavy receipts yesterday and this morning. One house, literally flooded with veal, unloaded the most of it at 12 cents, so they said.

Pork failed to show strength during the forenoon. While prices are unchanged the market is, if anything, just a little weaker. There was not much of a demand this morning and receipts were more than ample to take care of all needs.

Sugar Is Going Up.

PORTLAND, Mar. 1.—Keep your eye on sugar. It is going up unless all signs of the times are misleading. A wire received from New York this morning says refined purchases are increasing and the market is very strong. Withdrawals are being made in good volume, all refiners being from a week to 10 days oversold. The consumptive demand is naturally far lighter than it will be when warmer weather sets in. The trade is thought to have purchased sufficient sugars on the last three movements to take care of its wants to April 1, and in some cases until two weeks later.
