TWO ROBBERIES ARE CONFESSED

Other Crimes, Including Breaking Into V. Harris and Buckles' Store, Traced to Duo Caught in Milwaukie Carbarns.

Two youthful robbers, who proudly boast of their crimes, were arrested Tuesday night in the old Milwaukie carbarns by Deputy Sheriff Riley when they returned to their plunder which they had hidden there. The two are John Saunders, aged 15 years, and Ewald Schneider, who claims he is only 16 years old, but looks like he is at least 20.

The Day hardware store was an easy victim of their youthful ingenuity. They stole a brace and bit from a neighboring blacksmith shop, made a entrance a hand so they could turn the lock, and walked in.

Sheriff Wilson finds similar methods were employed in several other store robberies, and believes that the two youths may be responsible for them. MILWAUKIE BUILDING MATERIAL intact.
