

FUNSTON SAYS HE WILL GET VILLA AND HIS OUTLAWS

MAN WHO CAPTURED AGUINALDO IN THE PHILIPPINES STARTS AFTER MEXICAN BANDIT.

DOUGHTY GENERAL EXPLAINS WHY U. S. SOLDIERS STOPPED THE CHASE

Rations Were Short and 'Would Have Been Folly to Have Kept Up Pursuit After the Raid at Columbus, New Mexico.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, March 15.—"I hope the American people appreciate that this is going to be a hard and very difficult campaign. It may be a long one, also, but we are going to get Villa."

In this fashion today Major General Frederick Funston, in whose hands has been unreservedly placed the task of capturing Villa, summed up the campaign for the United Press.

"One of the best features of this business is the fact that our troops are in splendid shape for the work," Funston said.

Army in Fine Shape. "From a physical standpoint, they couldn't be in better condition. The time most of them have spent on the border has hardened and toughened them."

"Villa has fled into one of the most naturally desolate countries in the world. What nature did not do for him in this respect, the fighting factions have done. Unless we go in sufficient numbers with food and fodder to handle the problem of subsistence, we would be defeated by nature long before we met the Villistas. There is nothing left in all that vast, naked region for us to buy or take."

To Use Aeroplanes. "I believe our aeroplanes are going to be most valuable to us in scouting. They'll be the first we ever used under these conditions. I have great hopes of their success."

"I hope the people will understand the reason for the apparent delay in crossing into Mexico and starting our chase."

"It would have been sheer folly for us to have continued the pursuit of Villa on the day he raided Columbus. We would have had only about 250 men against Villa's 1500 or possibly more followers. Our men had no supplies with them. They might have continued the running fight, and killed a few more; but, unless we had actually captured Villa, there was no particular military advantage to be gained."

"In fact, Villa's forces so outnumbered ours that there would have been danger in continuing the pursuit. Our men might have been surrounded, and another Custer massacre would have resulted."

"From all I have learned I believe Villa raided Columbus as a result of one of his characteristic brainstorms. These fits of his blind, unreasoning anger are well known. When in the grip of them, he will do anything."

"Back of that rage was the hope, I presume, that intervention might result in swinging the tide of Mexican popular favor toward him, so he would again be made a political factor there."

"We will attain the end we seek," declared Funston, in closing the interview.

Obregon Goes After Villa.

EL PASO, March 15.—General Obregon, newly appointed by Carranza as minister of war, today was reported on his way to Juarez, ready to take the field in command of the Mexican troops that will rival the American soldiers in their pursuit of Villa.

General Obregon started from Queretaro, according to the report, when it became certain that Brigadier General Pershing was ready to cross the border. The arrival of Obregon in Juarez will bring the Carranza campaign into immediate action.

If Villa hates any one more than another, that man is Obregon. It was Obregon who beat Villa at Celaya. Obregon is the big man in the Carranza government. Obregon would take a keen personal satisfaction in capturing Villa, and personal satisfactions are a great factor in the warfare of Mexico.

BARK IS SUNK BUT AMERICANS SAVED

GERMAN TORPEDO VESSEL WITH-OUT WARNING—UNITED STATES INVESTIGATES.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The state department received today a cablegram from Consul Osborn at Havre, France, saying that the Norwegian bark Silius had been torpedoed in Havre Roads, without warning, according to members of the crew, but that seven Americans on board had been rescued.

So far dispatches to the state department simply have said the vessel was torpedoed without warning. No mention was made of the nationality of the submarine.

The Americans on board were members of the crew.

Secretary Lansing today instructed Consul Osborn to secure and forward immediately all available details of the sinking of the mark Silius.

If a torpedo did destroy the bark, which was bound to Havre from New York with grain, the government responsible will be held to strict accountability. Such an act would be contrary to all the assurances which the United States has secured.

VALLEY COUNTIES FORM ASSOCIATION

ALBANY, Ore., March 11.—The Willamette Valley Development association became a reality this afternoon when representatives of seven of the eight Willamette valley counties adopted a constitution, elected officers and formally launched the organization.

A. L. Fisher, president of the Albany Commercial club, was chosen president of the new organization. O. A. MacGill, of McMinnville, was elected vice-president, and W. A. Eastburn, manager of the Albany club, was elected secretary-treasurer.

The board of directors, which consists of eight men, one from each county of the valley, will be selected at the next meeting.

PURSUIT OF BANDITS IS UNDER WAY ON FOREIGN SOIL BUT WITH CAUTION.

CARRANZA'S MEN JOIN COLUMN; OBREGON HEADS ANOTHER FORCE

Villa Reported to Be Killing All Whom His Band Meets in Their Flight to the Mountains—Mormon Settlement Burned.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 15.—Numerous reports have reached the United States military authorities here tonight that open rebellion has broken out among the Carranza troops at Babulona, 18 miles south of here. Americans here are seriously disturbed and extra precautions have been taken to guard the town.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 15.—General John J. Pershing, with more than 4000 troops, began the pursuit into Mexico today of Francisco Villa, General Pershing's report that he and his command had crossed the international boundary line just south of Columbus reached General Frederick Funston late today. Reports of progress in the country where the search has been begun will be made by General Pershing to General Funston, but it is not expected these will be frequent or deal with any but the more important developments.

How far into Mexico the column had reached tonight was unknown here. Not until after Friday are sharp developments expected.

Dodd to Join Army. Colonel George A. Dodd, heading a smaller column that entered Mexico some distance west of Columbus, also is moving in a southerly direction and these two forces should be within touch of each other before the end of the week. By that time it is expected an infantry support will hold the line of communication along which motor trucks for the transportation of ammunition and supplies will be operated.

Although the censorship imposed by General Funston was relaxed tonight, efforts still were made to keep secret the details of the plan of the campaign.

General Pershing's report of his entrance into Mexico served to dispel a great extent fears that had been entertained in some quarters that resistance would be offered by the troops of the de facto government. Colonel Bertani, the commanding officer of the Carranza garrison at Palomas, on the south side of the line, joined General Pershing.

Villa Killing All. COLUMBUS, N. M., March 15.—From Corralitos Villa has gone to Dublin, a Mormon colony of 5000, which he burned. The Mormons had fled to the old town of Casa Grande. Villa has only 300 bandits with him.

Villa was at Corralitos yesterday, according to C. E. Tracy, of Douglas, who escaped from him after riding for 24 hours, and arrived here today. With him came V. S. Trowd, who escaped from the Corralitos ranch massacre. Villa seized 42 cases of gold and silver bullion from the El Tigre Mining company and Tracy had followed him since March 11 in an effort to find it.

Villa, said Tracy today, is terrorizing the countryside and killing all he meets. The entire family of Gregors Palanco was murdered. Villa is shooting all captives.

Five ranchers were murdered at Corralitos and the ranch house was burned, according to a message received by E. E. Houghton, manager of the ranch.

FATHER SUES SON AND HIS DAUGHTER

CHARGES THEM WITH CRUELTY AND ABUSE—WANTS HIS PROPERTY RESTORED.

John McMaugh, an aged and infirm, filed suit in the circuit court Tuesday against his son and daughter, Ida and Ethan McMaugh, for restitution from the latter of the property deeded to them by the father some time ago, because of alleged failure of the son and daughter to carry out their contract to care for him and an invalid daughter.

The McMaughs reside in Oswego. They are among the old residents there. The complaint further alleges that Ida and Ethan McMaugh have been guilty of cruelty and abusive treatment of the father and the invalid daughter.

FATHER WINS SUIT AGAINST SON AGAIN AND LATTER APPEALS

BOY PUTS IN COUNTER CLAIM FOR BOARD BUT JURY IGNORES IT.

Henry Koenig, father, was given $120 judgment against William Koenig, son, by a jury in the circuit court here Monday. And back of it is a story of domestic life that did not run smoothly.

Two years ago Henry Koenig, 70 years old, thirty years a ranchman at Oswego, divided his property and went to Germany to live, a divorce having been granted in the circuit court, separating him and his wife, William Koenig, the son, the divorced mother and another son lived on the ranch. She had received a part of it from the husband.

The father loaned William Koenig $120. It was invested in a portable sawmill. This was prior to the trip to Germany, where the old gentleman had remained only a month or so. He says he could not live over there again. Things that appealed to him as a boy, no longer had that youthful glamor of other years. He thereupon returned to Oswego.

When the pater asked for payment of the loan, the son presented a counter claim of $330 for board, which began to run on the former's return and continued for 32 months, according to the son. The old feeling which seems to have grown out of the divorce was apparently aroused again with more or less intensity, according to neighbors. Then followed the law suit—father suing son—first in the justice court in Oswego. The father won. The son then appealed it to the circuit court.

The relationship gave wide latitude to the attorneys in the case in their arguments to the jury of four which tried the cause. The jury awarded judgment to the father after being out less than a half hour.

Attorney Walter Dimick represented the plaintiff and P. J. Bannoo, the defendant.

William Koenig is a headless young man seemingly of less than 25 years of age. It was understood that he will appeal the case to the supreme court.

Has Eight Children.

Mrs. P. Rehkamp, 2404 Herman St., Covington, Ky., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for nearly two years and can find no better cough syrup. I have eight children and give it to all of them. They all were subject to croup from babies on."

It is a safe and reliable medicine for men and women as well as children. Don't let the cough that follows gripe hang on and weaken you. It is easier to get rid of a cough or cold than of its consequences. Jones Drug Co.—Adv.

WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.

Astoria, N. Y.—"For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not need the operation."

—Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 502 Flushing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times doctors say they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed, or if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed.
