Oak Grove to Have New Store Building

OAK GROVE, April 13.—(Special)—E. U. Warren, the popular and well known quarry operator, has announced that he will soon commence the construction of a modern one-story business block on the site now occupied by the frame building in which are conducted the W. B. Stokes' grocery store and the confectionery and stationery store of the Misses Williams and the postoffice.

PECULIAR REGISTRATION LAW.

OAK GROVE, April 13.—(Special)—To the Editor of the Oak Grove Department of the Enterprise.—I am a native of this country and my ancestors have been here for 200 years. I have voted for over 30 years and never had my right questioned before. I have been married 45 years and now for the first time an old lady that I married a foreigner. My husband was born in Canada but came to the United States with his parents when a child. His father took out naturalization papers and voted till the time of his death at the age of 84 years.

FISHERMEN HAVE ILL LUCK.

OAK GROVE, April 13.—(Special)—Evidently the fishermen of these "diggins" are not having any better success than those around Oregon City if all reports are to be believed. W. B. Stokes, who originated from the vicinity of the county seat, or to be more exact, from Canemah, had given out the impression and idea all along that he was some fisherman. He had never been put to the test until about a week ago when L. P. Bullard, who says he used to catch fish in the bygone days in the by-gone sloughs (where they couldn't get away) invited him to go out on the broad Willamette near here and just show him, even though he wasn't from Missouri, Stokes was willing to go even if the salmon were unwilling to do their part by being caught. The two men tried and tried in every conceivable manner to land at least one little salmon, but they couldn't even raise a nibble, and although they spent several days on the muddy deep it was all to no avail. Not satisfied with having proved himself a dismal failure in the presence of Bullard, Stokes has since been out at least a week, all of six days, but still without success. He declares his friends in Oak Grove had previously hoodooed the great and broad Willamette.

OAK GROVE NEWS NOTES.

OAK GROVE, April 13.—(Special)—The Julian garage at this place has just turned out E. C. Warren's Stud-baker after a general overhauling and Captain Warren declares that it runs better than it did when new. The Oak Grove schools are enjoying a vacation this week, which means that the "kiddies" are having a big time, and that next Monday they will return to their studies refreshed and better able to do effective work during the concluding weeks of the school year. And the teachers likewise have appreciated the rest.

PORTLAND FRIENDS SURPRISE

OAK GROVE, April 13.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Julian and their mother, Mrs. Spangler were given a grand surprise recently by a number of their friends, who walked in on them one evening. Various forms of entertainment caused the time to pass all too quickly. The phonograph furnished splendid instrumental music, while several of the guests sang, and there was an interesting talk by Mrs. Spangler on practical Christianity. Later five hundred was indulged in by those who cared to play. Interspersed with all this was an excellent lunch, after which the guests departed for their homes in Portland. Among those present were: Mrs. McCann and daughter, Mrs. Clarence Miller, James Pellon and two sons, Mrs. Dagman, Mrs. Lou Ellen Anderson, Misses Pauline King and Sarah Frye, Mr. Coster, Emil Doubt and Harry Mudge. Mr. Mudge has since left for Mexico for a stay of some duration.

OAK GROVE, Ore., April 10.—The fourth department of the Junior Epworth league, of this place, gave a party to all the members and prospective members of the league, numbering 33, at the home of Mrs. Dow Leong, Friday afternoon from 5 to 8. Cake and lemonade were served and outdoor as well as indoor sports were enjoyed by the guests. Mick Rath of George transacted business in the county seat Monday.

Could Hardly Do Her Work. Housework is trying on health and strength. Women are as much inclined to kidney and bladder trouble as men. Symptoms of aching back, stiff and sore joints and muscles, blurred vision, puffiness under eyes, should be given prompt attention before they lead to chronic or more serious ailments. Mrs. George Hancock, 255 Pearl St., Benton Harbor, Mich., writes: "I was awful bad, with such pain I could hardly do my work, and I am very thankful for Foley Kidney Pills." (Adv.)
