YOUNG MILWAUKIAN IS CALLED BY DEATH

MILWAUKIE, April 26.—(Special)—The community was saddened Monday on learning of the death of one of the town's respected young men, Carl Solomon, who passed away at the family home after suffering for four weeks with the dread typhoid fever.

The deceased leaves a wife of many years to whom the loss is severe, he having been her pride and joy and sole support. He also leaves a sister, Carrie, and a brother, Harry, to mourn his loss.

Carl Solomon was born in Portland in 1895, being 31 years and nine months of age at the time of his death. He attended the local schools, coming here at the age of 11 and since residing here. Carl was a member of the local volunteer fire department from its organization.

Voters in the Milwaukie school district Wednesday authorized a $20,000 issue of bonds for the erection of a new school, following a warm campaign of about a week. The vote stood 121 to 75. The total vote cast was 196, two irregular votes being thrown out.

The new school building was declared to be necessary to accommodate the rapidly increasing enrollment. The present building, which is crowded, will be used for the high school, and the new building for the grammar grades. An attempt will be made to have the new building ready for the opening of the school in the fall.

Jennings Lodge Department

JENNINGS LODGE, April 26.—(Special)—A splendid meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held on Friday evening of last week. Mrs. Oster presiding. The chairman of the school board, Mrs. C. L. Smith, gave the opening greeting, the keynote of her splendid talk being cooperation of board and the Parent-Teacher association, which should go hand-in-hand for the good of the school.

The songs by the members of the primary class and also the fifth and sixth grades were well received. A rare treat of the evening was the address by C. W. Robinson, deputy of the juvenile court of Multnomah county, who informed us that juvenile crime was on the increase instead of decrease. Facts were presented which parents living in a rural community like this could scarcely believe. Mr. Robinson will speak in the near future to the parents alone. His remarks covered so much but he believes in holding the parents responsible and said they should be more companions to their boys and girls.

He spoke for a short time to the children and told the story of ML Hood and the young Indian boy, who always kept his word, which was told to Mr. Robinson by Susap, when a boy. The three part primary song and song rendered by Leo Cook, Harold Heathman, Rex Hetchel and Guy Watkins showed the efficiency of our teachers in the music line.

Mrs. Vail of Mt. Tabor spoke on character building. Her beautiful words left a lasting impression on the parents and was a real inspiration and touched on lines of which we need. Refreshments of cake and coffee followed.

Enjoy Hospitality of Deter Home.
The H. F. Deiter home was the scene of a happy gathering on Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Muskarovics, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muskarovics and sons, of Portland enjoyed the day and the hospitality of the Deter family.

Mrs. H. C. Painton, of Orelands, Wash., spent Thursday and Friday with her sister, Mrs. Bass Brochert. Lease Homes for Summer.

Mr. Kelly of the Oregon Journal staff, has leased the Sanders cottage for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sanders have leased the Albert Pierce cottage on the river front, which perhaps is the most desirable river front property at this place.

Mrs. Edward Morarity is quiet 'til at her home "Beuna Vista." Dr. Mount is in attendance. A private dancing party was given on Cedar Island last Saturday evening by V. A. Newell. A number of Portlanders joined the dancing people of the lodge in the evening's enjoyment.

Wm. M. Stone, of Oregon City, a Republican candidate for district attorney, was a caller at the lodge on Wednesday.

Mrs. H. J. Robertson is receiving congratulations over the arrival of a granddaughter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kinney, in Portland.

To Occupy Arbor Lodge.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Reade, of Portland were guests of the Emmons' on Sunday. The Reades will return on May 15th for the third summer season at this place and will occupy "Arbor Lodge."

Attended Funeral of Old Friend.
P. D. Newell attended the funeral of Prof. David Torbet in Albany on Monday. Professor Torbet was a well known educator and for 25 years was professor of mathematics at Albany college. Mr. Newell was a college chum of the deceased; they having attended college at Berea, Ohio, at the same time.

Jessie Shenefield of this place, was also a friend of Professor Torbet while they both were residents in Ohio in the early 70's.

Mrs. J. A. Waldron departed for Everett, Wash., Friday morning for a week's stay with her daughter, Miss Alice, who is a teacher in one of the Everett schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, former residents of Wichita, have moved to this place and are going into the chicken business quite extensively. At present

MRS. MATTHEWS LOSES HER SUIT FOR $5000

MILWAUKIE WOMAN ALLEGES PERSONAL INJURY BECAUSE UNLAWFUL ATTACHMENT.

After an hour of deliberation, a jury in the circuit court Wednesday night returned a verdict for the defendant in the suit of Fern E. Matthews against Orella E. Buzzas, A. Buzzas, George J. Brooks, Arthur Cotzhausen, J. R. Kelso and A. L. Reed.

The suit was for personal injury, the plaintiff alleging that she had been injured to the extent of $5000. The Buzzas held a claim against Mr. and Mrs. Matthews, who live in Milwaukie, and were represented by Brooks and Cotzhausen, who are attorneys. They filed a suit in the Milwaukie justice court and A. L. Reed, as constable, attached the Matthews' property, the plaintiffs alleged unlawfully.

Mrs. Matthews testified that Constable Reed carried a gun, and greatly frightened her. Through fear that he would fire, she said she suffered mental and physical anguish.

The jury was composed of John A. Riddings, Solon Kinzer, L. O. Eaton, John Wise, A. W. Albright, George K. Hall, Nixon Blair, A. G. Phelps, F. P. Nelson, W. H. Graale and Seth Young.

Spring is looked upon by many as the most delightful season of the year, but this cannot be said of the rheumatic. The cold and damp weather brings on rheumatic pains which are anything but pleasant. They can be relieved, however, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)

WILSONVILLE UNITES IN CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

EVERYBODY IN TOWN UNITES TO BRIGHTEN UP—PARK MAY BE PUT IN CONDITION.

Wilsonville in a body turned out Thursday to clean up the town. Men, women and children took part in the cleanup campaign and gathered up every bit of rubbish to be found. Lunch was served in the grove in the evening.

It is reported that the Oregon Electric will fix up their Wilsonville park this summer. The company owns one of the best locations at Wilson for a place of that kind. It is situated on the river bank. The railroad officials looked over the proposition Wednesday.

Clarence Giles, a member of the Wilsonville Lodge, I. O. O. F., was in Wilsonville from Losi, Calif., last Saturday. He was on his way to the hospital to have a metal plate taken from one of his limbs which was shattered while working for the Oregon Electric four years ago.

J. H. Peters, of Wilsonville, was in Portland Thursday on business. The Oregon Electric bridge crew is again at Wilsonville with a large crew of men.

Four runaway boys from the Indian schools came through here Tuesday noon. The superintendent did not notify the deputy sheriff here and they were gone before it was found that they were escapes.

The pupils of district No. 23 at Wilsonville cleaned the school yard and burned a refuse, Friday, April 14.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF MRS. GAGE MARRIED

STAFFORD, April 26.—(Special)—The frequent slight rainfall, not much heavier than a dew, is proving very beneficial to all growing vegetation.

Mrs. Gage, accompanied by Mrs. Christina Ellingsen, went to Portland Sunday morning and attended the wedding of Miss Lucile Holton and Selden Snell, which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Chapel on East Ankeny street at 3:30 p. m. The Rev. Mr. Corbey officiated. Miss Ellingsen acted in the role of maid of honor and a brother of the groom as best man.

The bride looked beautiful in her wedding robes as she answered "yes" to the vows, which bound her for life to the man who stood beside her. After congratulations, a delicate and toothsome collation was served to about twenty invited guests and all repaired to their homes, wishing the happy pair long life and happiness.

Many pretty presents were presented and the bride and groom motored to Stafford with Mrs. Gage and Mrs. Ellingsen, and upon their return to Portland took the boat for Astoria, where they will make their future home.

The bride is Mrs. Gage's granddaughter, lately returned from Minneapolis, where she had spent the winter. Mrs. Coombs accompanied the party to the home of Mrs. Gage for a few days visit with her friend of many years. Mrs. Coombs was the first teacher Stafford ever had.

Mrs. Adolph Delkar is reported as slightly better at the Oregon City hospital.

Mrs. Nemes had Amos Mays working in her hops last week. We have 4th of July about every day when stumps fly skyward under the skillful use of dynamite.

Mrs. Bockman and Mrs. Gage spent the afternoon one day last week with Miss Anna Aden of the Frog Pond neighborhood, who has been a patient sufferer for over 12 years.

Clifford Weddle can be seen any day speeding upon his new bicycle. Mrs. Gage has been selling oats at $25.50 at the grainery without sacks.

TWO BORING WOMEN DIE IN SAME WEEK

MRS. LEN SEIFER AND MRS. MARY TIMMERMAN SUCCUMB—LODGE BUYS PROPERTY.

BORING, Ore., April 14.—Mrs. Len Seifer, who has been in the Waltham sanitarium at Gresham for the last two weeks, returned home last Sunday. She has been under the doctor's care for several months and her health was thought much improved, but Tuesday night she had a relapse and passed away Wednesday morning. The husband survives. The funeral services were held today from the family home, Rev. C. M. Brown, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating, with interment in the Mamascus cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Timmerman, wife of Fritz Timmerman, a farmer living 1 1/2 miles east of here, died at the home of her son Julius Sunday evening. She had been ill for some time, and her death was not unexpected. Her husband, one brother, and one sister and two sons, Julius and Charles, both of this place, survive. The funeral was held from the Pleasant Home Methodist church Wednesday afternoon with interment in the Methodist cemetery. The Rev. E. A. Leonard, of the Pleasant Home Baptist church, officiated.

COLTON AND MARQUAM HEAR CANDIDATES TALK

O. W. EASTHAM, GEORGE C. BROWNELL AND E. D. OLDS TALK TO FARMERS.

Two political rallies were held in Clackamas county Saturday night. O. W. Eastham, in the field for Republican nomination for district attorney, spoke at Colton hall, and George C. Brownell and E. D. Olds, candidates for the legislature, appeared at Marquam.

Mr. Eastham was accompanied by J. Dean Butler, who discussed "The Filipino at Home" and by Johnson Brothers orchestra, which is composed of Leland Johnson, Earl Johnson, Leroy Johnson and Raymond Johnson. Both Mr. Brownell and Mr. Eastham confined their talks principally to politics. The latter, speaking of preparing children of today for the struggle of tomorrow, said:

"Our rosy cheeked, barefooted little soldiers stand at life's morning; noonday will be at hand soon and they will have become the hardened warriors of the nation. Environment and example and instruction are moulding their plant minds and determining the ideals of their future. Man's physical prowess was as great two thousand years ago as it is today, and as it will be two thousand years hence; but in mind, step by step, he has gained dominion over the earth and the sea and the air, and mentally as well as spiritually, the march is steadily upward. Alexander's invincible hosts and Caesar's splendid armies still enliven pages of history, but altogether they have not contributed one single thing to the comfort or welfare of man. How little are these in comparison to a Harriet Beecher Stowe whose picture of the emancipation of human slavery brought emancipation to the colored race; how inconsequential in comparison to a Jesus of Nazareth, whose simple lessons have found their way into the hearts of millions of men bringing thither comfort and hope, and establishing the rule of the ethical and moral relations of mankind." Mr. Eastham and Mr. Butler will speak at Boring next Saturday night.

GEO. C. BROWNELL TO SPEAK SEVEN TIMES

The following dates have been announced by the Hon. George C. Brownell, Republican candidate for the legislature, for speaking engagements throughout the county, when he will address the voters upon the issues as pertain to state and county matters:

- Saturday, April 29—Molalla.

- Friday, May 12—Eagle Creek.

CLACKAMAS MAN FOUND INSANE

Eli B. Butcher, aged 52 years, of Clackamas station, was committed to the state hospital for the insane Tuesday following an examination conducted by Dr. M. C. Strickland. He was picked up Monday night by Night Officers Cooke and Woodward and turned over to the county officials Tuesday morning. He has lived in Oregon for the last 17 years.

Insomnia.
Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less, and is often the cause of insomnia. Eat a light supper with little if any meat, and no milk; also take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper, and see if you do not rest much better. Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)

WED IN VANCOUVER
Thomas Misko, 31, and Mrs. Ella Smith, 34, both of Oregon City, secured a marriage license in Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday.

Safe Medicine for Children.
"Is it safe?" is the first question to be considered when buying cough medicine for children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has long been a favorite with mothers of young children as it contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. It is pleasant to take, too, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. This remedy is most effectual in relieving coughs, colds and croup. Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)

MARION CATTLE MEN ORGANIZE.

ENGINEERS WON'T STRIKE ON ONE ROAD, ANY WAY

UNION PACIFIC EMPLOYEES MODERATE THEIR DEMANDS IN BIG LABOR FIGHT.

ERIE'S PRESIDENT HOPES TO SEE ALL PUBLIC CONSIDERED

Time-and-a-half Plan to Be Generally Accepted, is Belief Held by Railroads, and Trainmen Seem Inclined to Be Reasonable.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The fact that the engineers of the Union Pacific railway have withdrawn from the eight-hour basis day movement and that those of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul are preparing to do so, was made known officially here today. It was declared at the same time that engineers on some of the smaller western roads were expected to follow their example at an early date.

This change of front on the part of the engineers has brought out also the fact that President Underwood, of the Erie, recently wrote a letter to one of the oldest engineers on that road in which he stated a strong case in behalf of the railroads.

"I am watching with much interest and wonder," wrote Mr. Underwood, "the attitude of the Erie men toward the approaching negotiations for increased wages; whether men who have worked long and faithfully and own homes are shortsighted enough to dissipate their savings and use up their surplus, laid by to provide for the future, for an impossible cause. By an impossible cause is meant time and a half for overtime on regular runs."

"I have never thought it wise in dealing with wage questions for the men to ask for more than they expect to get. The payroll-makers must have some consideration, and the ability to pay is the principal factor in the situation which labor sometimes ignores."

"Neither the public nor the railroads will stand for time and a half for overtime and no measure can win which has the united opposition of the public and the railroads. There should be assigned hours of work at agreed rates to fit the case. Men should be paid hour for hour, for every hour they make and in unusual cases, perhaps, they should have bonuses."

The admission of President Underwood has apparently struck a responsive chord in the minds of many engineers.

MOLALLA DEPARTMENT

MOLALLA, April 26.—(Special)—The Molalla city council should vote some measure to take effect at once, relieving the public of the dog menace. As many as nine dogs may be counted at one time, taking possession of the street or sidewalk as suits their fancy. It should not be that women and children have to step out of their course to avoid being thrown by racing dogs; it should not be necessary for a gentleman who is escorting a lady, to have to drive the dogs from her path. Not all parents appreciate having even a friendly strange dog taking their child's hand in its mouth, neither do they appreciate having a little one so terrified as to scream in its sleep from frightful dreams of dogs, neither does the dogless citizen care to be awakened at all hours of the night by a continuous visitation of canines upon his back porch.

While we always hope that rabies will come no nearer and also that it will be stamped out where it does exist, still we must look at the matter squarely. Should a case of rabies come, the trouble could be most thoroughly spread for miles around before any one would much more than suspect. A rabid dog is no respecter of either personage or purse.

Mr. Gregory, the tenant farmer, has been planting acreage which will come into bearing in its second year. Crews from three sawmills were loading this Friday at the Southern Pacific yard.

A band of geese going northward indicates that there will be better weather. The United Artisans are to give an entertainment in the band auditorium Saturday evening, April 22. Mr. Parks announces that the picture show will begin earlier Saturday evening, so that all who wish to attend the Artisans' entertainment afterward, may do so.

Easter at Lyric.
There will be special Easter attractions at the Lyric theatre. Mr. Parks, the present owner, has taken special pains to offer unobjectionable pictures and so far as he could, has offered those which have real educational value. Five of the scenes shown Sunday were well worth study. One showed the growth of plants. As the process which nature takes months to perform was unfolded in a few moments, it should have made a very vivid impression upon the minds of the many little people present.

Sunday evening was Rev. Mr. Curtis' regular Sunday to preach in Molalla at the evening service.

A woman stopped over in Molalla long enough last week to favor the citizens with some vocal music as well as with some instrumental music from her phonograph.

The Sunday school board of the Methodist church met Monday evening at Mr. Mackrell's store to arrange about getting some supplies.

A number of people are setting out a few trees this spring to enlarge the home orchard. Various fruits, as well as walnuts, do well here. There are no commercial orchards as yet.

Worth & Glutche shipped 21 weeks for Molalla farmers.

Library Well Patronized.
Mr. Mackrell has been posting fresh notices, inviting every one from either town or country to take advantage of the state traveling library at his store any week day. Mr. and Mrs. Mackrell have kept this library about eight years now. The Artisan lodge pays all expenses of the library so the books are free to the borrower. When new books are to be sent for, one may request books of a scientific nature for special study, otherwise the group is sent as made up.

The sad news reached town April 13th that S. M. Ramsby had dropped dead at his home near this place. His wife found him soon after 11 o'clock, where he had dropped from apoplexy. Mr. Ramsby was born at Legion, Indiana, August 29, 1852. While very young he settled with his parents at Molalla, where later he was united in marriage to Miss Francine Dickey, the daughter of pioneers.

STRANGE CAVE FOUND IN THICKET OF FIRS

MOLALLA, April 26.—(Special)—The Aurora Observer brings a most interesting item of the finding of a dug-out in the brush upon the Fry farm. There was a gathering of people to witness the excavation of the place, which had once been a habitation as it was thought that a body might be found.

Evidently the place had been used two years ago, tools, whisky bottles and tobacco canisters, which were believed to have been stolen, were found as well as rotten bedding, an alarm clock and camp kit. It is thought that several lives in this curious way. The place was discovered by the North family, who were hunting for a calf.

All who are acquainted with the Fry family know that they are absolutely beyond reproach. George Fry polished and returned each of the tools as owners could be found for.

Ye correspondent found the item especially interesting, having lived near the place at the time it must have been in operation.

A short time after the Aurora post-office was robbed, Tom McCray sent his little son, Walter, who was hardly of school age, with a note to Gene Phillips at the mill. On the way the lad was accompanied by his chum, Mr. Leddimore's little boy. That why all outdoors did not prove big enough that beautiful spring day, is one of the mysteries of boydom, which will probably never be solved. The lads found a little dark culvert and proceeded to investigate its depths. I believe it was two packages they found, one five dollars worth of five cent stamps and the other was ten dollars worth of twos. Each took one package regardless of value. They reported their find at the mill, also at home later. Words were sent to Mr. Ehlen, assistant postmaster at Aurora, who identified the stamps as they were in a roll as intended for the stamping machine. The lads took them back over the ground and even the paper box they had been in was recovered.

In the fall ye correspondent left home for a time. Upon her return it was found that a Dea handled spade, a new pair of leather cuffs, and 50 quarts of fruit, mostly wild blackberries that had been picked in the hot sun, berry by berry, were missing from the house. It has remained a mystery from that day to this for the neighbors were beyond reproach.

MOLALLA LODGE IS PLANNING BUILDING

MOLALLA, Ore., April 14.—At a special meeting of the local I. O. O. F. lodge Wednesday night it was decided to erect a new building in Molalla, where the postoffice now stands. It is to be a two-story structure 100x65 feet, with rooms on the upper floor and two store rooms on the lower floor. The cost of the building will be about $10,000. Half of the required amount has been subscribed and bonds bearing interest at the rate of 7 per cent are being issued for the rest. Work on the building will commence in a few days. The building committee consists of E. M. Hamner, J. H. Dunton, L. A. Daugherty, Elmer Abright and Victor Dunton.

POLICE CHIEF PUT TO WORK

MOLALLA, Ore., April 14.—The Molalla city council has decided to take drastic measures against owners of cows, chickens and pigs who are violating the city ordinances by letting the stock run at large. The chief of police was instructed to see that the cows are kept off of the sidewalks and the chickens kept properly penned, so that they cannot scratch up the neighbors' gardens.

ELKS WITNESS LOCAL BOXER MEET J. MOSCOW

JACK LEWIS FIGHTS SIX FAST ROUNDS—PRELIMINARIES OF SMOKER GOOD.

Jeck Lewis, Oregon City favorite, fought six fast rounds to a draw at the second of a series of smokers given at the Elks home Friday night. Lewis went up against Jimmy Moscow, of Portland, and he had his hands full with the stocky, aggressive lad, who forced the fighting. Lewis showed up much better than at the athletic club smoker here last month, and held his own and the decision of Referee Shepherd was eminently fair. Jack was quick and shifty, and landed fast in the breakaway.

The preliminaries were entertaining. The Williams kids from Gladstone boxed four rounds. Tony AH of Canemah and "Blacksmith" Martin went six rounds. The boys tired after the third and their blows lacked steam and the bout was declared a draw. Bill Gold, of Canemah, failed to get better than a draw in his fight against Jakey Schut, of Oregon City. Gold outweighed Jakey, but the local lad had a pot full of gameness and stayed through until the finish.

Richard and Ormliston staged a preliminary that was really humorous. Ormliston has a crouch like old lanky Bob Fitzsimmons, and the blows that were landed during the six rounds could be counted on the fingers of both hands. Two hundred jolly Elks saw the bouts Ed Fortune and Ed Johnson were timekeepers.
