Oregon City and Portland Markets

DRESSED CALVES ARE LIBERAL IN SUPPLY

QUOTATIONS IN PORTLAND DROP AS RESULT: WOOL CONTRACTING ALMOST CEASES.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, Ore., April 12.—Dressed calves are coming forward so freely to Front street that a serious break in prices is shown.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 12.—Little business is showing in the wool market in the Pacific northwest at the moment.

While the general market situation for wool is still very good, the prices being asked by those willing to sell are above the basis that eastern contractors are willing to do business at just now.

STEADINESS FEATURE OF LIVESTOCK TRADE

SOME LAMBS AND EWES BRING GOOD PRICE—PETZOLD BUYS HEAVILY IN PORTLAND.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Portland, Ore., April 11.—The feature of the livestock market at the Portland Union Stock Yards this morning was continued steadiness in all lines.

That beef cattle are worth some money now days and the man who has such animals commands almost his own price is asserted by Richard Petzold, proprietor of the Oregon City Cash Market, who spent a couple of days this week at the livestock market in North Portland.

Official quotations in the local livestock market today were as follows: Cattle. Steers—Gain and pulp fed, $8.75@9.00; Choice hay fed, $5.00@5.75.
