Troubled at Night. Painful, annoying bladder weakness usually indicates kidney trouble and kidney trouble never should be neglected. Backache, rheumatism, a sore, swollen or stiff muscles or joints—all these have been relieved by Foley Kidney Pills. They act promptly and efficiently and help to health. Henry Rudolph, Carmi, Ill., writes: "I was bothered with hurting in back and was troubled at night and had to get up several times. Since taking Foley Kidney Pills I sleep all night without getting up." Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

HE SAID TOO MUCH Because Dexter L. Roberts is alleged to have once remarked that he would rather live in a penitentiary than with his wife, Mrs. Altha E. Roberts is suing him for a divorce in the Clackamas county circuit court. They were married December 12, 1905. She made the further charge that her husband is of a sullen nature. She asks for the return of her maiden name, Altha E. Nicholson. Circuit Judge Campbell signed a decree Saturday separating Fanny Wendel from L. V. Wendel, Martha Lindner from Gustav Lindner, and Hildred Smith from M. A. Smith. Avoid Spring Colds. Sudden changes, high winds, shifting seasons cause colds and grippe, and these spring colds are annoying and dangerous and are likely to turn into a chronic summer cough. In such cases take a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, a pleasant Laxative Tar Syrup. It soothes the cough, checks the cold and helps break up an attack of grippe. It is already prepared, no mixing or fusing. Just ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Tested and tried for over 10 years. (Adv.)

THIS MAN'S COW KEPT HIM OUT OF COURT

WILBUR WILSON CHARGED WITH ASSAULT—FRANK J. PHELPS IS ARRESTED.

A Gladstone cow Tuesday morning stepped on the foot of Wilbur Wilson and thereby seriously delayed the wheels of justice. Wilson was charged with assaulting Lester Egan, and was cited to appear before Justice Sievers. The time came for the hearing, but Wilson was absent. An investigation revealed the fact that as Wilson prepared to come to Oregon City, the cow stepped on his foot, preventing him from making the trip. Frank J. Phelps was arrested Tuesday by Sheriff Wilson on complaint of his wife, Gertrude O. Phelps. He was taken before Justice Sievers, waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of assaulting his stepdaughter. He was released under $250 bonds. The family lives on Division street, Oregon City.

WINNERS ARITHMETIC TESTS ANNOUNCED

SERIES OF EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY SUPERINTENDENT CALAVAN COMPLETED

The series of arithmetic tests carried on by J. E. Calavan, county school superintendent, and his assistants, has proved successful. In the test each school had a chance to send in a representative who had reached the average of 90 per cent in school. The final tests were conducted in Oregon City, Canby, Kelso, Meadowbrook, Falls View and Clarks, these places being convenient to the students who were to take part in the test. The representatives receiving the 90 per cent grade or more received the class diploma for the school represented. The students were from the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The following are those who won in the test with the percentage received in the examination: May Bullock, Canby, 100 per cent; Richard Nixon, Bolton, 94; Tova Tienhaave, district No. 11, Meadowbrook, 90; Albert Grossbacher, Canamah, 98; Lester Hateson, Viola, 98; Muriel Linnett, Harmony, 95; LaVone Martin, Mountain Road, 95; Bertha Ross, Lower Logan, 97; Edith Sprague, Lower Logan, 90; Eileen Nixon, Bolton, 90; Marlon Barnum, Kelso, 97; Charlie Cook, Clarks, 95; Cinda Butterfield, Liberal, 98; Gerald Ramsey, Lone Elder, 97; Elmer Olsen, Viola, 95; Marion Peterson, Willamette, 92; Norma Moulton, Kruse, 95; Adolphus Kruse, Kruse, 98; Alfred Boche, Mackaburg, 94; Fred Gaushe, Mackaburg, 92; Estes Gribble, Mackaburg, 98; Elsie Kalk, Canby, 95; Lucile Baxter, Canby, 95; Bernard Reese, Canby, 99; Ervin Macker, Sandy, 90; Rachel Miller, Bear Creek, 94.

COUNCIL DEADLOCK IN GLADSTONE ENDS; ALL MEMBERS THERE

TOWN ON CLACKAMAS TO APPOINT WATER SUPERINTENDENT—MEET NEXT FRIDAY.

The deadlock in the council of Gladstone is a thing of the past. At the meeting Tuesday night every member was present, both regular and insurgent, and routine business was taken up and disposed of as if the body had never split. The meeting was the first since March. One regular and two special meetings called since early that month failed to materialize, as three members refused to attend, in this way preventing a quorum. The council agreed upon a plan of appointing a water collector. An ordinance will be introduced at another meeting Friday night to provide for the creation of this office. The council was split over the management of the water department and over the actions of Water Superintendent Will Johnston, who shut off the water of all who were delinquent in payment of water rent.

ELISAH ADAMSON, 74, DIES AT WILLAMETTE

RESIDENT OF OREGON SINCE 1879 PASSES AWAY AT HOME OF DAUGHTER.

Elisah Adamson, aged 74 years and five months, died at 6:30 o'clock Friday morning at the home of his son, A. W. Adamson at Willamette. Death was due to complications resulting from a paralytic stroke he suffered several months ago. Mr. Adamson was born in Indiana. He moved to Oregon years ago, settling near Harrisburg where he lived until 14 years ago when he came to Oregon City to reside with his son at Willamette. He was a member of the Odd Fellows for over 50 years, this order will conduct the funeral services and have charge of burial which will be held in Harrisburg. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. O. L. Smith of Ontario and Mrs. Jessie Wasson of Harrisburg and three sons, David F. Adamson, Edward Adamson of Princeville and A. W. Adamson of Willamette. Mr. Adamson will be remembered by many residents of Clackamas county, as he used to travel through the county selling horse radish and hominy.

EDWARD HUGHES DIES AT BEAVER CREEK

RESIDENT OF OREGON SINCE 1879 PASSES AWAY AT HOME OF DAUGHTER.

Edward Hughes, a resident of Oregon for 40 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Spence, at Beaver Creek Friday. He was born in Caermasthen, Wales, May 1, 1836, and came to America with his parents and settled in Wisconsin in 1848. He married Miss Margaret Davies in 1857. She died 18 years ago last December. They came to Oregon with their family in 1876 and located at Beaver Creek. Mr. Hughes survived his brothers and sisters by a number of years and had he lived four days longer would have been 85 years of age. He is survived by a son, Henry H. Hughes of Oregon City, Mrs. Anna Spence of Oregon City, Mrs. Mary Grisenthwaite of Oregon City, H. F. D. No. 3, three grandchildren and one great grandchild. He will be buried on Sunday, April 30, at the Presbyterian cemetery at Beaver Creek. A short service will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Spence, at 1:30 and further services at the Beaver Creek Presbyterian church.

H. MARSHALL, BORN HERE IN 1859, DIES

PROCEEDS FROM "A KENTUCKY BELLE" TO BE USED TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS.

Henry Marshall, a native of Oregon City, died 5:30 o'clock Monday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Emory J. Noble. His death was unexpected. Mr. Marshall was born November 11, 1859, and was the son of the late Andrew J. and Sarah R. Marshall, Oregon pioneers. For a number of years he lived in Portland, where he was employed in railroad work. Later he went to Cody, Wyoming, coming to Oregon City last March. Two sisters, Mrs. E. J. Noble, of Oregon City, Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, of Salem, and two brothers, John and Edward Marshall, of Greenhorn, Idaho, survive him.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES AT WILLAMETTE

END COMES TO HIRAN A. PENDERGAST AFTER LONG ILLNESS —FUNERAL TODAY.

Hiram A. Pendergast, who served three years and three months in the Civil war on the Union side, died at Willamette Tuesday after an illness of several years. Death was due to Bright's disease. He was born near Versailles, Ind., October 21, 1829. He served in Company A, 37th regiment of infantry of Indiana. He married Eliza Belle Bailey February 19, 1869. She died March 4, 1894. Two children survive, Mrs. Harry Morrell, of Willamette, and Lew Pendergast, of Osgood, Ind. He was a member of Meade Post No. 2, Grand Army of the Republic, and was an active Methodist before his illness. Rev. J. K. Hawkins, pastor of the First Methodist church, will officiate at the short funeral services from the Myers & Brady undertaking parlors noon today. The body will be shipped to Versailles for interment.
