Rebekah lodge, No. 142, enjoyed a social hour after their regular meeting Tuesday evening. Light refreshments were served.

Fred Roth made a business trip to Portland Friday, returning Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson had as their guests Sunday, their son, W. A. Johnson and wife, from Portland.

Rube Smith made a trip to Oregon City Friday to interview the dentist, Claire Haines and Chester Douglas, were Portland visitors Sunday.

Miss Lexy Graham spent the weekend with her brother, Charles, of Oregon City.

J. Stenford Moore, of Willamina, made a short visit this week with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. Boyd Moore.

Canby Leads in Arithmetic.
 The Canby school won the highest grades in Clackamas county in the recent arithmetic contest. May Ballack of the eighth grade passed with a grade of 100 per cent, and Bernhard Reuse of the fourth grade passed with a grade of 99 per cent.

Miss Lucile Wolfe, who has been with Mrs. Chet Wills for some time, returned Sunday to her home in Salem.

Miss Helen Spulak, of New Era, was a guest of her sister, Miss Emily, this week.

ARDENWALD NEWS.

(Too late for last week.)
 ARDENWALD, April 27.—(Special).—Miss Hazel and Mina Bulger, of Mt. Tabor, are visiting Mrs. Minnie Stewart, of Sellwood Gardens.

Miss Gertrude Hargreaves, who is attending State Normal school at Mounmouth, spent the Easter vacation visiting her mother here.

The family of James Baker has moved into Sellwood Gardens and the one son has enrolled in school here.

Elsie Stewart spent the weekend visiting her aunt at Mt. Scott.

Mrs. Holly, an aged resident of this place, passed away Tuesday morning. She was 88 years old, and had made her home with her son, Jean Holly, for some years.

James McTold has moved from Mrs. Gold's residence into the Milwaukee district.

Clarke Hughes, a former pupil of Miss Ulen, of Hutton, Wash., visited school here Tuesday. Master Hughes is a freshman in Jefferson high school of Portland.

Miss Maude Walters, of Eugene, and Miss Esther Rayot of Monmouth, spent the week's vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rayot.

The pupils of the seventh grade had their first debate Friday, April 21. The question was, "Resolved, that the tariff of 1832 was just to the south." Those taking part were, affirmative, Mildred Lynch, Vera Derry and Maxwell Kelsner; negative, Dorothy Price, Kenneth Rayot and Lena Ulen. Visitors present were Mrs. J. J. Lynch, Edith Lynch, Bertha Hansen, Ester Rayot, Maude Walters and Wilma Heavner.

Monday morning N. C. Maris, field worker for the Industrial club, and Brenton Vedder, county supervisor, held their first of a series of meetings at the school here. H. J. Attnow, chairman of the board of directors, was present. Mr. Maris gave a very helpful talk to the children. Recent visitors at school were, Ruth and Hazel Crana, Mary Richmond, Gertrude Hargreaves and Gerald Attnow.
