TEACHERS NAMED FOR THE GRADES BY SCHOOL BOARD

ONLY TWO POSITIONS IN BARCLAY AND EASTHAM REMAIN TO BE SUPPLIED.

SEVERAL NEW INSTRUCTORS FOR HIGH SCHOOL ARE SECURED

Burr E. Tatro, Frank O. Olson, Lloyd Harding, Miss Evelyn Todd and Miss Cecilia Spoots Are Retained by Directors.

Every teacher in the grades in the Barclay and Eastham building was Wednesday night elected for the next school year, with the exception of two, and these two were not chosen because of the fact that the board will be required in the primary work at the Barclay school building.

Eastham—Emma W. Anderson, Grace Crooks, Bertha Dallinger, Gusale Hull, Agnes Harris, Edith Leatherman, Margaret Neilson, Eva Scott.

Several new teachers were elected in the high school. Miss Rose Marie Price, a graduate of this year's class of the University of California, was chosen as instructor in German.

ANTI-SALOON LEADER ATTACKED PORTLAND, Ore., May 11.—Knocking off the glasses of R. P. Hutton of the Anti-Saloon league and kicking him cost Elmer L. Amidon, a Republican politician and supporter of C. N. McArthur, $25 this morning after he had attempted to stage a fight with Hutton in Judge Gatens' court room.

Hutton charges that Amidon's attack today is the second attempt made by McArthur supporters to get him into a fight.

The trouble occurred in the court room shortly after 9 o'clock this morning. Judge Gatens had just convened court to hear witnesses in the libel suit of C. N. McArthur against Hutton, and was waiting for the stenographer, when Amidon walked over to Hutton.

BRYAN WARNS HIS PARTY LINCOLN, Neb., May 13.—In a signed article published today W. J. Bryan declares the Democratic party in order to win the coming campaign must "move toward peace" and thereby capture the peace element in the Republican party.

He begins his article by quoting from a Chicago newspaper's editorial in which Mr. Wilson is called a minority president, in that he received fewer votes than Roosevelt and Taft combined and says the Democrats must face the fact that a united Republican party will enter the campaign with a popular majority of 1,300,000 votes.

Ways of the Crocodile.

The crocodile differs from his cousin, the alligator, in that the lower maxillary, or jawbone, moves in the "gator," whereas it is the crocodile's upper jaw that is movable.

A raiser of epinephrine is J. F. Masquart of The Dalles, of whom the Chronicle says: "J. F. Masquart has contributed a display of cactus to the Chamber of Commerce. Spineless cactus is an excellent stock food, for which purpose Mr. Masquart is cultivating it. He also raises a variety of cactus with spine, for table use."
