DESERTION FAVORED DIVORCE SUIT PLEA

ONE HUSBAND SAYS WIFE DECLARED SHE DID NOT LOVE HIM ANY MORE.

Mrs. Helen M. Hager once said that she did not love her husband, Peter U. Hager, any more and that he was distasteful to her so she packed up her belongings, gathered in their two children and left their home, alleges the husband in a divorce suit filed in the circuit court Tuesday. They were married June 15, 1904, in Crowell, Mich. The time honored plea of desertion is favored by a majority of the plaintiffs in the others of the latest batch of divorce suits filed here. Sarah Gibbons and John P. Gibbons married August 1, 1904, and she alleged, she deserted her August 23, 1912. She asks for the custody of their four children.

Mary Hesel says in her divorce complaint that her husband, John, left her soon after their marriage, June 14, 1912, at Centralia. She asks that she be allowed to take her maiden name, Mary Schultz. LeVaughn E. Sorenson alleges that her husband, Wallace J. Sorenson, now a salesman of San Francisco, was tired of her and departed. They were married October 24, 1907, at South Falls. Circuit Judge Campbell Tuesday signed a decree divorcing Minnie Smith from Seth Smith.

CANBY VOTERS PASS NEW CHARTER ALONG WITH WATER BONDS

LARGE MAJORITIES GIVEN TWO ISSUES AT SPECIAL CITY ELECTION.

By large majorities, the voters of Canby at a special election Friday authorized the council to issue $18,000 for the construction or purchase of a municipal water system and approved the new city charter. The vote follows:

Table with 2 columns: Issue, Vote. Water Bonds: Yes 178, No 54. City Charter: Yes 188, No 51.

The measure authorizing the bond issue leaves the manner of acquiring a city water system largely with the council. M. J. Lee owns the water system which now supplies the town, and the council may purchase it or build a new system if a satisfactory agreement on the price cannot be reached. The new charter is not different from the old in any material way, and was drafted to correct mistakes in the old.

TOWNSEND BOY WILL GO TO STATE SCHOOL

JUVENILE OFFICER FROST UNABLE TO FIND SUITABLE HOME FOR 12-YEAR-OLD YOUTH.

Lester Townsend, the 12-year-old boy who confessed to breaking into and practically wrecking the home-stand cable of A. Rakek in the mountains back of Colton, will be taken to the state training school. Juvenile Officer Frost said yesterday that the youth needed the strict discipline of the state school to start him on the right path. Moreover, the officers were unable to find a suitable home for the lad, preventing him from being adopted.

The boy's parents, who live in the mountains beyond the Colton district, have waived all interest in the case. The lad will probably be taken before County Judge Anderson within the next day or two and committed to the training school. Juvenile Officer Frost will make the long trip across the county to the boy's home today to reclaim the property taken from the Rakek cabin. Young Townsend has told where it is hidden.

Drain the Roads. PORTLAND, Ore., May 22.—(Editor of The Enterprise).—Political excitement having now somewhat subsided, I venture to ventilate one more idea in the drainage of roads; which is that when it is decided to drain a road, the same be laid out for two tile drains about 20 feet apart, but that but one of them be put down at first, and when that is settled so that travel can pass along over it, then that the other one be put down at the convenience of the people—and the finances. One drain will render it unnecessary to scrape up the dirt in the middle of the road. The expense of that can be saved and expended on the drainage. Let us drain the roads and build them no longer on water ballast.

DOCTORED ABSTRACT CHARGED IN SUIT

OLAF HEGDALE ALLEGES HE KNEW NOTHING OF DEDICATED STRIP AT TIME OF SALE.

Charging that years after he bought a tract in West Linn from George G. Brown he found that a part of the land had been dedicated for road purposes, Olaf Hegdale has filed a suit against Brown in the circuit court, asking for $2500 damages. Joseph E. Hedges appears as Mr. Hegdale's attorney. The land is situated in the Armstrong donation land claim and lies on the top of the hill in West Linn. The abstract, Hegdale alleges, contains no mention of the strip dedicated to the county and the fact that his property is divided by the dedicated strip was not discovered until recently.

A. L. Lake Tuesday filed a suit against J. A. Bradbury to foreclose a chattel mortgage for $400. William M. Stone appearing as Lake's attorney. REPUBLICANS DEFEAT FEDERAL OWNERSHIP

DEMOCRATS ARE CAUGHT NAPPING AND MINORITY PARTY KILLS IMPORTANT BILL.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Republicans in the house caught the Democrats napping today and knocked out the government ownership provision in the ship purchase bill. The vote on the proposition was 192 to 87. Democrats plan to nullify the action before the bill goes to the floor. The section which was killed provides that the shipping board shall have power to build, lease and equip vessels for the marine trade, using army transports and auxiliaries in case they are needed.

Rowe, of New York, offered the amendment. The Republicans had been secretly notified to be ready. Only 73 Democrats were present before the call for reinforcements and the vote was forced. If the amendment stands, the bill will merely provide for a shipping board with powers to regulate commerce. Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, Democratic whip, introduced a bill empowering the government to build 109 ships immediately with money obtained by issuing bonds secured by the ships' earnings, the ships to be leased to private concerns but controlled by the government and used as auxiliaries in event of war.

Lewis expects that Democratic senators who joined the Republican filibuster last year will support the bill.

ANOTHER SUSPECT IN MURDER CASE FOUND

MAN IS DRAGGED FROM HOUSE AT POINT OF GUNS—THOMPSON THOUGHT INNOCENT.

TUALATIN, Ore., May 19.—Another suspect in the Jennings murder case was taken here tonight in an old, deserted house belonging to a man named O'Connell, situated about two miles from the Jennings home. He declined to talk about the case. He refused to come out of the house when the party surrounded it and demanded he "come forth." He was dragged out when covered by guns. When asked what he knew about the Jennings murder he said: "I don't think anything about it." He went give his name, George Andrews, a man named Reed, a deputy sheriff from Washington county, and another man made the capture.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 19.—Further weakening of the circumstantial chain connecting Bennett Thompson with the double murder near Tualatin Monday night and the strengthening of the robbery motive for the crime were developments of the investigation, chiefly conducted in Portland today.

Could Bennett Thompson, the suspect in jail at Hillsboro, wear a shirt with a 15 neckband? Investigation today revealed that he wears, ordinarily, a 16 shirt, and at the present time is wearing size 16 1/2 because of two small goiters on his neck. The bloody shirt that the authorities are now convinced was worn by the murderer apparently was size 15 1/2.

That was the figure deciphered on the neckband by Deputy Sheriffs Bob Phillips and George Hurlburt of Portland. The big "5" could scarcely be distinguished and might have been a "6," say the officers. Should measurement show that it was 16 1/2 the case against Thompson would be much improved. Sheriff Reeves, of Washington county, has the shirt, which, so far as known, has not been measured.
