

Jennings Lodge Department

JENNINGS LODGE, May 29.—(Special)—Beautiful in all its appointments was the silver wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Howard N. Smith, which was very prettily observed at the Grace Congregational church when, on Wednesday evening, May 24th, they were happily surprised by the members of the congregation. At 7 o'clock they were taken to the church by auto and met at the door by friends who placed a tulle cap and veil on Mrs. Smith and presented her with a bouquet of bride roses and maiden hair fern.

Hosts of friends, who had gathered before the appointed time, had transformed the church into a bower of beauty with roses and other white blossoms, making a beautiful setting for the bride party. Mrs. Edes played the wedding march and Rev. G. N. Edwards led the bridal procession to the altar, following were Mrs. Le Claire and Mrs. M. A. Shaver, with their white gowns carrying baskets of daisies as charming flower girls. Mrs. George Ostrom was matron of honor and Mr. Will Jacobs attended the groom.

The marriage vows were again renewed and congratulations were extended.

A sumptuous wedding dinner followed. The table was especially attractive with its beautiful pieces of silver and the low bowls of garden heliotrope, white carnations and pink columbine centering the table was a huge wedding cake.

After the first course of the dinner, Rev. Mr. Edwards, in behalf of the friends, presented Mr. and Mrs. Smith with twenty-four pieces of silverware and both responded.

Covers at the well-appointed dinner were laid for Rev. and Mrs. Edwards, Rev. and Mrs. Smith, Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Tucker, W. J. Blinestone, James Bernard, Carl L. Smith, E. A. Sanders, R. F. Deter, A. F. Russell, Hugh Roberts, Ben Losey, Frank Fisher, T. Woodham, A. C. McFarlane, H. J. Robinson, Will Jacobs, Walter Beckner, Mesdames Bea Brucechert, Zel Kesal, Ella Edes, Geo. A. Ostrom, M. A. Shaver, Sarah Le Claire, Bertha Hart, Calvin Morse, Mrs. Hall, Miss Farnum and Harold Smith. After singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the guests departed and the bride and groom were showered with rice.

Rev. Mr. Smith has been the pastor here for two years and was formerly Sunday school organizer for the Congregational church in Oregon and has many friends in the Willamette valley towns.

Miss Farnum left for Eugene Tuesday to attend the graduation exercises at the university. Miss Esther

Campbell being one of those graduates.

On Wednesday last a number of veterans visited the school. Mr. Clyde and Mr. Grant spoke of the battles they were in. Captain Hawkins told of his capture of the Confederate flag and Mrs. Beach wife of an old soldier, also spoke. The drum corp furnished music.

The Grant family of Portland has again returned to the lodge and will spend the summer at the Jaeger cottage on the Willamette. The Schafer family, also of Portland, will join them this week.

Twenty-eight children of Mrs. Altman's room enjoyed a picnic Saturday at Schooner's park at Willamette. As Mrs. Altman was unable to attend the Mesdames Edd Roeths, A. C. McFarlane and Bess Brucechert accompanied the young people to the picnic.

George Thompson, of Willamette, has purchased the Laifield property, according to a report here. The house was recently destroyed by fire.

J. A. Roese, who came out for over the week-end from Portland, was taken suddenly ill.

Wednesday Mrs. Albert Pierce entertained Mrs. Brown and Miss Laura Brown of Portland at a lunch in honor of her mother, Mrs. De Forrest. Mrs. DeForrest has changed her plans for the summer and will not go south.

As her son, De Forrest Pomeroy, of Minneapolis, will be here by June 15.

Miss Georgia Kesal, a teacher in the Mora schools, has closed a successful term and enjoying a visit with her home folks.

The J. A. Soesbe family has taken apartments in Portland, but will spend the week-ends at their cottage here.

The Misses Daisy, Annie and Laura Larsen, Miss Allen and Miss Detrick of Portland, were guests of the Tucker family on Sunday.

Mrs. Raynes and two children, of Mt. Angel, who have spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Rex Deter, have returned home.

Fifteen of the junior militia of Portland and their girl friends were entertained by Miss Mary Pierce Sunday at her home, four matrons coming out with the young folks.

May 26th was a special day for the school children to devote to study of the mode of life of the feathered creatures and to prepare bird houses. The day was set aside by Governor Withycombe through the efforts of the state biologist, who has been a recent visitor at his summer home here.

The designation of such a day in many of the other states has given a real impetus to education work in this field and it is hoped we may take it up next year with the Parent-Teacher association and teachers and arrange a program.

UPPER GARFIELD.

UPPER GARFIELD, June 1.—(Special)—The Porter school closed last Wednesday with a picnic at the Country club grounds, and a number were in attendance, many of the parents were present.

Miss Katherine Hancock, teacher of the Porter school, returned to her home in Portland last Friday.

Garfield Grange Meets.

The Garfield grange held one of its regular meetings Saturday at the hall with a large attendance and an unusually interesting program. E. E. Paville, editor of the Western Farmer and C. M. McAllister, of the Portland Union Stock yards, were both present and each made a very pleasing address. The Garfield grange quartette, composed of A. O. Whitcomb, Phil Standish, Harry Reid and Wm. Field, gave several selections, which were well received. Miss Roberta Reid was accompanist. Mrs. H. A. Lallure gave a reading; Gilbert Shearer, recitation. The program was ended by a talk from E. W. Bartlett, on the coming fair in October and a short talk by Walter Givens who took first and second degree in the strange that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Higelow and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boyce were week-end guests at Log Lallure.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Christman spent the week-end in Portland.

MRS. ANNA WOODWARD 82, DIES IN O. C.

Mrs. Anna Hill Woodward, wife of Rogers O. Woodward, died at the home of her grandson, Harry Woodward, Thursday night. She was born October 10, 1833, at Bennington, Vt., and she lived until her 82 years old had she lived until her next birthday. She was married to Rogers O. Woodward, January 14, 1853, making their home in Bennington, Vt., until 1877, then coming to California and from there to Turner, Oregon.

The last three years have been spent with their children in Portland and Oregon City. She leaves her husband, Rogers O. Woodward, and the following daughter and sons: Mrs. Will Nisley, Mrs. Joe Mathews and Gilbert Woodward, Portland, Mrs. Gilbert Wagner and Fred Woodward of Turner and R. E. Woodward of Oregon City as well as 25 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren.

The funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Staub of Portland, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Harry Woodward on Center street. The honorary pallbearers are Grant B. Dimick, H. S. Clyde, J. J. Gorbett, A. Stokes, A. J. Hobbie and William McClellan. The acting pallbearers are grandsons of the deceased, Roy, George, Harry, Dudley, Bradley and Kenneth Woodward.

ESTACADA CANNERY NEARS COMPLETION

PLANT WILL EMPLOY 50 DURING SEASON—"DEMESTORE" IS TRADEMARK ADOPTED.

Estacada will boast its first industrial payroll in the course of the next few weeks, when the small fruits begin to ripen.

Arrangements have been completed by R. C. Deming, one of the leading small fruit growers of Clackamas county, for the opening of a modern cannery plant at Estacada, which will plant and fully 100 pickers during the berry season. The initial payroll for this season will run about $6000, according to Mr. Deming, who is completing details regarding equipment of the plant.

For a number of years Estacada has made intermittent efforts to start such a project with co-operative financing, but the plans have never materialized. The plant will confine its operations this season to the canning of loganberries, raspberries, evergreen loganberries, blackberries and gooseberries.

Last year Mr. Deming and other fruit growers of Clackamas county canned their fruits at the Gresham plant and marketed their product through brokers with wholesalers' label.

This year, however, all goods from Estacada cannery will go under the trademark "Demestore Delicous Quality," the "Demestore" trademark being the first syllables of Deming's, Estacada and Oregon.

SOL DOC HOTEL BURNED

PORT ANGELES, Wash., May 26.—The Sol Doc hotel, in the heart of the Olympic mountains and one of the most famous resorts in the northwest, was destroyed by fire today. Telephone wires between this place and Sol Doc are down, but messenger reports received say that the hotel is a total loss. The main building of the hotel was reported in ashes at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The loss probably will exceed half a million.

North Bend company formed of Coos Bay capital has leased for a term of years the old mill of the Simpson Lumber company and will operate same.

There is more Catarah in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarah to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarah Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only effective constitutional cure on a market. It is taken internally in doses from 1 drop to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They effect one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

COFFEE RUINED HIS STOMACH, SAYS MAN WHO WANTED $1000

STRANGER TRIES TO COLLECT FOR ALLEGED INJURY—SHERIFF AND DEPUTY DODGED.

Thursday morning a stranger appeared at the home of T. E. Kraft, a farmer three miles east of Canby, and asked for food and a cup of coffee. The Kraft family took pity on the stranger and fed him.

Half an hour later he returned. "I want $1000," he demanded.

Mr. Kraft was thunderstruck. "What for?" he asked.

"The coffee you gave me was no good and it ruined my stomach," was the reply. "The damage is at least $1000."

Mr. Kraft called for the sheriff and the stranger disappeared. Less than an hour later Sheriff Wilson and Deputy Frost were at the Kraft farm, but a search of the country for five miles in every direction failed to reveal a trace of him. The officials believe that the man hid in the brush. He is believed to be insane.

WILLIAM BOYD DIES AFTER AN OPERATION

END COMES AFTER ILLNESS OF SEVERAL MONTHS—MRS. T. P. RANDALL HIS SISTER.

William Boyd, son of the late Charles Boyd, and of Mrs. Margaret Boyd of this city, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Randall, the latter a sister of Mr. Boyd, Sunday morning, after an illness of several months. Mr. Boyd was operated upon March 3 for gallstones, but failed to recover from the operation.

William Boyd was born in the state of Illinois June 27, 1862, and lived in Wheeler county, Oregon, until four years ago, when he came to Oregon City with his mother to make his home with his sister, Mrs. Thomas P. Randall. Besides his mother he leaves the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Elizabeth Black, of Ashwood, Oregon; Mrs. Elsie Nelson, of Portland; Mrs. Margaret Wood, of Moro; Mrs. T. P. Randall, of Oregon City; Alexander Boyd, of Portland; James Boyd, of Pendleton, and John Boyd, of Mitchell, Oregon. His father, Charles Boyd, died about 26 years ago.

The funeral services will be conducted at St. Paul's Episcopal church 2 o'clock this afternoon and the interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery.

MRS. CLARA HALL DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

WIFE OF MERCHANT AND FORMER COUNCILMAN SUCCEMS AT HER HOME.

Mrs. Clara Hall, wife of W. J. Hall, died at the family home at Mountain View Sunday night at 11:30 o'clock, after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Hall was born in Iowa February 1, 1864, and came to Oregon 26 years ago. She is survived by her husband, W. J. Hall, who for a number of years served as a councilman, and is a member of the firm, Hall & Everhart; two sisters, Mrs. Laura Carrico and Mrs. Pearl Everhart; and one brother, F. P. Curran, all of whom reside in Oregon City, and two other brothers, Frank Curran, of Colorado, and Al Curran, of Kansas.

The funeral services will be conducted at the family home at Mountain View Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the interment will take place in the Mountain View cemetery. She was a member of the Artisan lodge, and the Artisans will have charge of the services. All members of the lodge who can be requested to meet at the home of J. M. Gillette, 801 Molalla avenue, so that they can attend the funeral in a body.

MAN CAUGHT TRYING TO APPROACH COLONEL

ATTEMPT IS MADE TO FORCE WAY INTO ROOSEVELT SUITE AT KANSAS CITY.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 30.—Edward McDaniel, of Tulsa, Okla., today tried, according to the police, to force his way into the hotel suite occupied by ex-President Roosevelt.

"I've got business with Roosevelt and I've got to see him," McDaniel is quoted as saying. He was unarmed and is being held at the police station.

An open knife was reported to have been thrown at Colonel Roosevelt just before he left the union station in an automobile.

E. C. Shell, who as a member of the American Legion, was walking by the side of the Roosevelt motorcar, said that he heard the knife hit the machine and picked the weapon up from the street, handing it to a policeman.

Chief of Police Hamill said he had been unable to certify the story of the knife or find the officer to whom it was handed. He said he doubted the correctness of the story.

CANBY DEPARTMENT

CANBY, Ore., June 1.—(Special)—Saturday morning, Hill McFarland, the well known mechanic for Miller-Parker Auto Co., enlisted the service of several of his friends to help decorate an auto float to represent the Canby branch of the firm in the Hooper Day parade at Oregon City. When the float was finally dressed up in evergreen and ready for the finishing touches, which was a shower of beautiful roses, (to be placed when they reached their destination) Hill, Mrs. H. A. Berkman and daughter, Barbara, and the five young ladies, who were to grace the float, during the ride, started for Oregon City, about 45 minutes before the parade was to form. But Saturday wasn't Hill's lucky day, for somewhere between New Era and Oregon City, a tire blew out, and that meant go into Oregon City, get a new one, return, repair and continue the journey. By the time the party reached the scene of festivities, the parade was over and prizes awarded. Of course, Mr. McFarland and the young ladies weren't expecting any first prize, but they did want people to know Canby as a booming town, that Miller & Parker have a good business here, and also some very pretty girls live here, so somebody must have been disappointed.

Music Pupils Give Excellent Program.

The music pupils of the high school under the direction of Miss Smith and Mr. Garrett, gave their second semester recital at the M. E. church Thursday following in the program: Piano duet, "Pettie Gavotte Zenita," Misses Berg; violin solo, "Temptation Valse," Mr. Marks; piano solo, (a) "Morning Prayer" (b) "Song of the Mill Wheel," Miss Whipple; violin duet, "Perfume of Flowers," Messrs Yoder and Garrett; piano solo, "Romance," Miss Berg; violin duet "Queen of Drossy Land," Messrs Garrett and Zimmerman; piano solo (a) "Aragonaire," (b) "To the Rising Sun," Miss Aldrich; violin solo (a) "Fraum der Serein" (b) "Love's Old Sweet Song," Mr. Haines; vocal solo, "If You But Whisper," Miss Brown; violin solo, "The Last Chord," Mr. Hain; piano solo (a) "The Swan," (b) "Zug der Zigeuner," Miss Lee; violin duet, "If I Were in Love With You," Messrs Garrett and Walt; piano solo, "Snow Drops," Miss Emma Berg; violin solo, "In Merry Mood," Mr. Deets; violin solo, "German Folk March," Mr. Huston; orchestra, "Louis du Soir," Messrs Harrell, Marks, Yoder, Zimmerman, Hain, Walt, Deets, Huston. Accompanists Misses Smith, Lee, Huston, Mrs. F. M. Roth and Mr. Garrett.

Canby and Aurora Schools Meet.

The baseball team of the Canby grammar school defeated the Aurora baseball team Friday by a score of 7 to 2. The batteries were Canby—Willie Huiras, Wayne Hampton, Ray Yergen; Aurora—Prof. McCurry.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. White entertained the following guests from Oswego Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Steffins, Mr. and Mrs. Bethke and Clarence Haines.

E. Kiser, O. Bethke and C. Didsand, of Oswego, spent Sunday in Canby. Miss Lucke, of Portland, was a guest of her brother, W. H. Lucke, Sunday.

Mrs. Spagle of Needy was a Canby visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. G. W. White was called to Oswego Wednesday by the death of the infant son of her niece, Mrs. Clingheim.

Phillip L. Hammond Returns.

Phillip L. Hammond, who for some time has been very ill with rheumatism, is able to be about again, and spent Monday in his office here, resuming his old duties. "We are glad to see Mr. Hammond on the road to recovery."

Silver Tea Given by Church.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church held a silver tea Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. J. Kaupisch. A large number of ladies were present and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

Miss Emily Spulak spent the week-end at her home in New Era.

Tom Roberts and Harry Morrison of Salem, called on Canby friends Saturday, while en route to Portland by auto.

Miss Nellie Hampton and Walt Leismann made the trip up the Columbia Highway Sunday by auto.

How to Get Rid of a Cold.

Summer colds are serious. Read how C. E. Summers, Holdrege, Neb., got rid of his: "I contracted a severe cough and cold and could hardly sleep. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and the very first dose relieved me. I took a second dose before going to bed and can truthfully say I did not cough all night. By using as directed the next two days my cough was entirely cured and I give Foley's Honey and Tar full credit for my speedy recovery." Foley's always soothes and heals. Children love it. ### MOLALLA DEPARTMENT

MANY IMPROVEMENTS NOTED IN MOLALLA

NEW BUILDINGS AND SIDEWALKS ARE PLANNED, WHILE ALL KINDS OF BUSINESS SHOW PROGRESS.

MOLALLA, June 1.—(Special)—George Gregory, the tassel farmer, was a Portland visitor last week.

D. W. Hadger was in Portland on business, one day last week.

With springtime come improvements. A new board fence is being built between the Ben Harless property and that belonging to W. W. Everhart. A new board sidewalk is being built between the Oliver Robbins property and the creamery. And the first kite of the year was seen sailing high this week, too.

W. F. Wilson stopped over a few hours at Mr. Hibbard's before going out to his home beyond Chilcote's mill, last week. He returned to Washington where he is farming for his niece and her husband.

Frank Adams was a Molalla visitor last week.

William Shepard was in town last week.

The firm of Glutch & Worth have hung a large map in their shop. It was made by Surveyor Abbott and was intended primarily to show the routes covered by the butcher wagon, but in so doing it names all the owners of land for miles around.

Surveyor Abbott will estimate the cost of procuring water in such amount as is needed in case a sugar beet factory is established here.

Three cars filled with hogs, sheep, calves and cows were shipped to Portland last week.

J. J. Metzler and a friend from Seattle were business visitors in Molalla last week.

Miss Dewitt addressed the congregation at the regular hour for preaching in the Methodist church last Sunday. During Sunday school she spoke to the children a few minutes about missionary work.

Mrs. Davidson, who has been sick for so long, is greatly improved.

Arthur Wright, of Liberal, had his sister visiting him last week.

Friends visited Mrs. Engle and daughter, last week, while on their way out to Wilhoit Springs.

Rev. Curtis preached at Mulino last Sunday.

After church was over Sunday morning, great tubs of flowers were brought from the basement and the church was dressed in honor of the graduating class. The scheme was worked out with ferns and Scotch broom. "Class 1916" was worked in large figures and letters of the yellow blossoms in the green background of ferns.
