STAFFORD, Ore., June 1.—(Special.)—We all went boosting for Clackamas county and our beautiful Oregon City last Saturday and had the time of our lives.

A majority of us got there in a hurry with our gas wagons, some in farm wagons, in buggies, carts, on foot, any old way, and we got there in time for the program.

Bob Schatz harnessed his splendid black plow team to the farm wagon with the hay rack and collected 41 girls and boys and drove down to compete for the prize, but another driver had collected a few more of the "hope of the nation" than Bob did so won the prize, but the whole 41 claimed to have a good time; drove across the bridge into a shady place and enjoyed thoroughly the picnic dinner the girls had provided, supplemented by oranges and candies, purchased by the boys.

As the governor is presumed to be still feasting on the fish our gracious queen presented him and King Earl killed old Pessimism, we are all feeling on the hopeful side especially in regard to the primary election next fall and the fate of the country in general, but it is our private opinion publicly expressed, that the booster exercises and parade will have to be moved in the near future to level stretches in the country or up the hill, for that day is getting to be such a big affair that the one level stretch is getting to be too narrow for street cars and a big parade too, but all were good natured and stood the crowding without a murmur, and it was an ideal day.

Mrs. Otto Peters has been for the past five days very sick, and was reported Sunday evening as a very little more hopeful. She has always been a general favorite and all hope for a speedy return to health. She is the only daughter of Mr. Frank Weddte, a butcher shop. Since the Smith butcher shop abandoned the local field, the residents have been quite inconvenienced and they welcome the coming of the new concern.

E. C. WARREN NOT TO RUSH NEW BUILDING

OAK GROVE, Ore., June 1.—(Special.)—E. C. Warren, the well-known local contractor, who recently announced plans for the erection of a new building on the site of the present Warren Building on Railroad avenue, has decided that in view of the present conditions he would not be justified in going ahead with his plans.

Negotiations had advanced so far that Mr. Warren had already had the plans made for the new building, excepting that he would rush the structure through to completion at the earliest possible moment but existing business conditions influenced Mr. Warren to delay his plans for the present.

He has, however, not altered his intention of erecting a modern business block, but will time this move until conditions appear more opportune than they do at the present time.

Mr. Warren stated that he was anxious to make this addition to Oak Grove's business center but that he would delay until matters warranted his making this new investment.

We sometimes feel like growing at the cool weather and rain, but a letter from near Burns in Harney county says it rained there the 18th and 19th and everybody stayed in doors so as to let it hit the ground, as it was the first rain since the first day of March but frosts had taken all early gardens and fruits except apples.

The Misses Wastle are visiting their sister, Mrs. George Aden, and brought flowers for their father's grave.

GRANDMA DAVIS HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

OSWEGO, June 2.—(Special.)—Everyone knows Grandma Davis, who has been a resident of Oswego for over 30 years, and Monday celebrated her 89th birthday. She is active and able to wait upon herself, which few at that age are able to do.

The ladies who attended the party are as follows: Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Stella Shipley, Mrs. Milton, Mrs. Thos. Fox, Mrs. Skool, Mrs. Wm. Neal, Mrs. Ernest, Mrs. Quigley, Mrs. Cora Bullock, Mrs. Flora Jarish, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Hallman, Mrs. Will Bickner, Mrs. John Bickner, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. W. C. Stewart, Mrs. Ed. Wint, Miss Lucinda Kiser.

A dainty lunch of fruit salad, cakes, coffee, sandwiches and candy was served.

All had a good time and hope to be with Mrs. Davis on her 90th birthday.

The additions to the local telephone exchange has just about been completed and as a result Oak Grove can boast of as well an equipped exchange as anywhere in the state outside of Portland. Besides an enlarged switchboard, modern mahogany fixtures have been installed, which not only add to the appearance but makes possible greater efficiency.

OAK GROVE LOCALS.

OAK GROVE, Ore., June 1.—(Special.)—Dr. H. C. Randall, formerly of Nehalem, Ore., has leased part of the building by the barber shop and will open offices within the next few days.

Large parties of picnickers from Portland are daily arriving at Oak Grove, going down to the river to enjoy their outing. Few places offer the pretty and picturesque spots that Oak Grove does.

Mrs. L. A. Bullard received a message last Monday from Portland to the effect that an old friend of hers, Mrs. Dan Kerry, formerly of South Dakota, was at the point of death and that it would be necessary for her to come at once if she would see Mrs. Kerry before she died. Mrs. Bullard was fortunate in reaching the bedside a few minutes before Mrs. Kerry died. Her husband is connected with the Portland Railway, Light & Power company.

The epidemic of whooping cough has just about disappeared. Doris Brumley, Dorothy Blackby and Mildred Waldron who were a few of the victims have completely recovered.

Mrs. Adeline Schubert, who has had an attack of rheumatism, is improving rapidly.

C. C. George, who recently conducted a barber shop in Oak Grove, is now conducting a similar enterprise at First and Stark streets, in Portland.

Oregon City's Booster day drew many from Oak Grove. Among those attending were Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. William Sederson, Mrs. Charles Higham, Mrs. E. C. Warren, Mr. John Halsey and family, Charles Halsey and family and Rex Lampman.

The additions to the local telephone exchange has just about been completed and as a result Oak Grove can boast of as well an equipped exchange as anywhere in the state outside of Portland. Besides an enlarged switchboard, modern mahogany fixtures have been installed, which not only add to the appearance but makes possible greater efficiency.

W. B. STOKES MOVES IN HIS NEW STORE

OAK GROVE, Ore., June 1.—(Special.)—W. B. Stokes, the local grocer, has just finished moving into his new store in the Green building. He is now occupying two large stores, one facing on Railroad avenue, which is his main department and one facing on Center street which is used for a shipping and storage room. The building which is a modern fire-proof one, gives Mr. Stokes much improved facilities for handling his business. It is reported that Mr. Stokes has leased the premises for a period of five years. Inasmuch as his store is conducted along the most progressive lines, which makes for a maximum of value for his many customers, he will be able to continue to a greater extent, his idea of giving his trade the best to be had at the least possible cost.
