

HAMPSHIRE WITH ALL ON BOARD IS SUNK BY GERMANS

ANNOUNCEMENT IS CAUSE OF GREAT GLOOM THROUGHOUT ENGLAND.

BRITISH WAR LORD WAS ON WAY TO GIVE COUNSEL TO RUSSIANS

Admiral Jellicoe Reports Patrols on North Sea and Shore Have Found No Survivors—Four Aides Are Among the Victims.

LONDON, June 6.—Earl Kitchener, British minister of war, and four of his aids were lost at sea off the Orkney Islands last night, when the British cruiser Hampshire, which was conveying them to Russia, was sunk, either by a torpedo or a mine. All on board the cruiser are believed to have perished.

This announcement, made officially by the Admiralty this morning, caused a sensation in London and the feeling of gloom that followed was even greater than that produced by the early accounts of the recent Jutland naval battle, when it seemed that the British navy had met a complete reverse.

That all on board the Hampshire probably were lost is admitted in the official account, which says that patrol vessels dispatched to the scene immediately after the tragedy and search parties found nothing more than a few bodies and a capsize boat. London holds no hope that either Earl Kitchener or any of the ship's company has been saved.

Earl Kitchener was going to Russia at the request of the Russian government. He intended to land at Archangel and visit Petrograd and probably go to the Russian front. His mission had chiefly to do with the supply of munitions for Russia.

The earl expected to be back in London for the reopening of parliament June 20.

An official statement issued tonight says that Earl Kitchener was to have discussed important military and financial questions with Emperor Nicholas.

As soon as the news of Earl Kitchener's death was circulated in special editions of the newspapers, crowds started toward Whitehall. That thoroughfare and its extension, Parliament street, were soon filled with persons hoping that the first reports were exaggerated. They found no comfort.

Every blind of the big block which houses the war office was drawn and the flag was at half mast.

RANDALL WILL PROBATED

A petition for the probate of the will of Mary C. Randall, who died May 20, was filed in the probate department of the county court Monday by her widower, George Randall. Her estate is valued at $3585.

O. C. MILITIAMEN TO RECEIVE FROM $200 TO $300 EACH MONTH

FEDERALIZATION ACT AND PROPOSED ARMORY PUT NEW LIFE IN COMPANY G.

With the proposed armory erected and with the bill federalizing the National Guard passed by congress, Captain Lowell Blanchard, of Company G, Oregon National Guards, believes that the local company of militia can be recruited to 100 members.

The federalization bill means that between $200 and $300 will be distributed among Oregon City militiamen monthly, figuring on the present enrollment of the company at 55 men. The act provides that militiamen must attend at least 50 per cent of the drills, that they shall be subject to call into regular service and that they shall receive one-fourth of the pay of the regular. A private, for instance, serving his first enlistment in a militia company will draw about $44 annually from the government, while the officers will be paid proportionately.

Captain Blanchard has put Sergeant Miller at work recruiting, and considerable interest is manifested. The summer encampment, when the militiamen will receive $12.25 a day and expenses, is proving an attraction to prospective recruits.

MANY WILL ATTEND G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Members of Meade Relief Corps No. 18 are making arrangements to attend the Grand Army of the Republic encampment to be held at Eugene, June 14, 15, 16. The delegates to the encampment from the local relief corps are Mrs. Minnie Donovan, Mrs. Harriet Webster, Mrs. Catherine Webster, Mrs. Clema Martin, Miss Emma Roman, Mrs. A. J. Hobbie, Mrs. Susan Linn. Among the past presidents who will attend are Mrs. N. M. Alldredge, Mrs. Pauline Schwartz, Mrs. Amelia Martin, Mrs. G. A. Harding, Mrs. Julia Tingle, Mrs. Margaret Williams, Mrs. Sadie Ackley, Mrs. Martha Beach, Mrs. H. S. Clyde.

2 WIVES ASK FOR DECREE OF DIVORCE

Charging that her husband would not come home often before 1, 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning, Mabel H. Ashford Monday filed a suit for divorce in the circuit court against Francis Ashford. They were married April 20, 1907, in Denver, and she asks for the custody of their two children. She further alleges that she and her husband are not suited for each other.

Eleanor Whitaker charges that her husband, Loring Whitaker, will not live with her, in a divorce complaint filed Monday. They were married January 17, 1912, in Vancouver, Wash., and have one child of whom she asks the custody. She wants $40 monthly alimony and $25 monthly for the support of their baby after it reaches the age of two years.

JENNINGS LODGE MEN LEASE CEDAR ISLAND

IMPROVEMENTS ARE MADE IN PARK ON WILLAMETTE—PAVILION ENLARGED.

John J. Jennings and Vincent Newell, both of Jennings Lodge, have taken a lease on Cedar Island. During the last year many improvements have been made. Music is to be provided for the dancing, and it is the intention to have an orchestra on special occasions. The dancing pavilion has been enlarged, and bath houses have been built.

The beach is exceptionally good for bathing, which has become a favorite pastime at the resort. During the high waters of the winter the sand has formed over the rocky beach, and many enjoyed the sport of bathing on Saturday and Sunday, although early in the season for such.

As many Portlanders have wished to camp on the grounds during the summer months, Mr. Jennings and Mr. Newell have arranged for their comfort, and will erect tent houses for those who do not have their own. There is an ample supply of pure drinking water close at hand.

M'MOUGH FAMILY IN THE COURTS AGAIN

CIRCUIT COURT DIMISSES CASE—ORDERS CHILDREN TO PAY $30 MONTHLY TO FATHER.

John McMaugh and his daughter, Ida McMaugh, whose differences have been up in the courts several times during the last three months, appeared again Saturday before Circuit Judge Campbell. Both father and daughter live in Oswego.

Mr. McMaugh deeded his Oswego property, consisting of a house in town and several acres nearby, to Ida McMaugh and Ethan A. McMaugh, on the condition that they would provide for him during the rest of his life. Several months ago he had Miss Ida McMaugh arrested on an assault charge. The first jury was unable to agree and the second acquitted her. He then filed a suit to regain possession of the property, alleging that his children had not provided for him.

Judge Campbell signed an order dismissing the case, but ordered the children to pay him $30 a month.

MAN SUED FOR WIFE'S FUNERAL EXPENSE

H. H. Emmons, doing business as the Lowell Mortgage & Adjustment company, Friday filed a suit in the circuit court for Dunning & McEntee, Portland undertakers, against Clarence Reynolds, to collect a bill of $125.50, alleged to be due for the funeral of the defendant's wife, June 15, 1914.

ENDEAVORERS PLAN COUNTY CAMPAIGN

SOCIETIES AIM TO DO THEIR SHARE OF WORK IN NATION. WIDE MOVEMENT.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Clackamas County Christian Endeavor union plans were made for the local end of the "Campaign for Millions" which the Endeavorers will carry on during the next year.

It is a campaign for new members for the various branches of Endeavor work, carried on all over the world. Each state and county has been given its proportionate share of the campaign. Clackamas county's share is: 200 new Christian Endeavor members, 200 new church members, 200 new converts, $200 for missions, 150 quiet hour comrades, 30 ten legionaries, 25 new Christian Endeavor experts, and 15 new Christian Endeavor societies, beside minor items.

In order to fulfill the requirements of this campaign, each Endeavor society in the county has been given its share of the county's apportionment to secure, and the societies are now hard at work. The 35 Christian Endeavor experts can be qualified only after they have taken a standard course in Endeavor work and passed an examination of 100 questions on the subject.

An "expert class" has been started to accomplish this. It had its third weekly meeting at Gladstone last Sunday afternoon, with almost 40 in attendance. Next Sunday the class meets in the Congregational church at Jennings Lodge at 5 p. m., and the following Sunday afternoon at Parkside church.

CADDIES ON STRIKE; SHERIFF IS CALLED

Fifty caddies at the Waverly Golf club went on a strike Saturday afternoon for a rise of five cents an hour. They were receiving 20 cents an hour. Sheriff Wilson was called and returned Saturday night with the report that the boys were orderly and did not threaten to fight two or three boys who were working as strikebreakers or to injure the property.

Most of the players were compelled to carry their own golf bags and sticks.

Candidates Show What It Costs To Run For Offices

EXPENSE ACCOUNTS FOR PRIMARIES RUN FROM FIVE CENTS TO NEAR $100.

Saturday, the last day upon which candidates at the primary election had to file their campaign expense accounts, found a number of local aspirants for office on the missing list at the office of County Clerk Harrington. Under the law the county clerk will notify the district attorney of these failures to report, and the district attorney will call upon the candidates for their expense accounts.

Candidates seeking county offices spent sums ranging from five cents to $99. Ed Fortune, Democratic candidate for constable, spent five cents, while Harvey Gibson, one of the Republican candidates for commissioner, hit the high mark.

The three aspirants for honors in the sheriff's race turned in accounts that seem to indicate that the less spent, the greater the result. Sheriff Wilson, who won the Republican nomination, spent but $14.30, while John P. Albright, whom he defeated, spent $53.20. Maxwell Victor, who won the Democratic nomination, spent $34.06. The odd six cents on Victor's account is blamed on postage: two cents for a letter to J. E. Hedges "acquainting him with certain details regarding my candidacy," and four cents postage expended, so Victor says, in an effort to "get a square deal" from the Oregon City Courthouse.

E. T. Mass, who was not officially a candidate, but who came within eight votes of wresting the nomination from Victor, did not submit any statement of his expenses or of expenses in his behalf.

The sums spent by the various county candidates are as follows:

County commissioner—R. L. Mullan, $79.20; Harvey Gibson, $99; W. A. Proctor, $96; J. D. Reed, $78.90; C. W. Raley, $10.50.

Sheriff—John P. Albright, $53.20; William J. Wilson, $14.30; Maxwell Victor, $34.06.

County clerk—Iva M. Harrington, $2.50.

County recorder—Pearl Selby, $45; Clyde Hughes, $49.70; H. C. Boyles, $64.

County assessor—R. E. Woodward, $85.05; C. P. Romig, $63.20; W. W. Everhart, $83.60; G. F. Johnson, $12.65.

County school superintendent—J. E. Calavan, $1.40.

County coroner—W. E. Hempstead, $10.

County treasurer—M. E. Dunn, $3.20. Constable—(Fourth District)—D. E. (Jack) Frost, $15; Lee French, $10.85; Ed Fortune, 5 cents.

9 Candidates Fail To File Expenses

DISTRICT ATTORNEY SENDS OUT WARNINGS—ONE SOUGHT COMMISSIONERSHIP.

Complying with the provisions of the corrupt practices act, Deputy District Attorney Thomas A. Burke Tuesday afternoon sent notices to nine candidates at the primaries that they had failed to file statements of their expenses within the required time.

The period for filing these statements with the county clerk expired Saturday and Clerk Harrington promptly turned the names over to the district attorney's office. The candidates are believed to have unintentionally overlooked the filing of the accounts, rather than to have ignored the law purposely.

The delinquent candidates and the offices they sought are: W. H. Bottemiller, county commissioner; W. A. Beck, justice of the peace at Molalla; J. E. Pomeroy, justice of the peace at Sandy; Charles E. Austin, constable at Oswego; Arthur McVey, constable at Estacada; W. A. Heylman, precinct committeeman at Estacada; M. J. Leo, precinct committeeman at Canby.

LAURA KAHLER WINS DECREE OF DIVORCE

WIFE CLAIMS HUSBAND DID NOT PROVIDE FOR HER—ANOTHER SUIT IS FILED.

Laura Kahler Thursday won a divorce from James Kahler on the general grounds of cruelty. The case was contested. The Kahlers live at Oak Grove.

Kahler is a paperhanger and an able bodied man, according to his wife, who alleges that she was forced to work for a living. She charged that he was addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, that he deserted her and did not properly provide for her. In his answer, he said that she hit him and called him names. The couple had property valued between $1800 and $2000.

Robert Andross charges cruelty against Jesse B. Andross in a suit for divorce filed in the circuit court Thursday. They were married December 20, 1909, in Portland. Brownell & Slevens are his attorneys, and filed the complaint.

Circuit Judge Campbell Thursday signed an order dismissing the divorce suit of Margaret E. Williams against Clarence R. Williams.

STOCK RUN IS SMALL AT PORTLAND YARDS

QUIET MARKET IS RESULT OF FEW ARRIVALS—OREGON 'STRAWBERRIES SLOW.

The run of stock at the North Portland Stock Yards last week was small, and a quiet market was the result. The markets of Oregon City are well supplied with vegetables including asparagus, lettuce, radishes, spinach, turnips, green onions, while the cabbage shipped from California points find a good demand, although the retail price is five cents per pound.

Owing to weather conditions the strawberry market has been somewhat dull. Berries have been slow in ripening, and with the present fine weather the strawberry growers are confident that there will be plenty of berries for the market by the middle or latter part of this week. Saturday berries were bringing a price from $1.50 to $2 per crate, this depending on the condition of the berries and the variety.

Cherries in small lots have been shipped here from California but the home grown cherries are now taking on a color so that the early varieties will be ready for the market within a few weeks. The cherries, like the strawberries are backward, caused by the cold rains and hail, but there is every indication of a large crop.

MT. PLEASANT PLANS BIG ROSE DISPLAY

DATE FOR SHOW IS NOT YET SET, BUT ARRANGEMENTS ARE NOW BEING MADE.

The meeting of the Mount Pleasant Rose society held at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening was well attended. Although the date for the show was not determined owing to the backwardness of the roses, plans were made for the holding of the show, to be held in the Mount Pleasant hall.

Among the features of the show will be individual table exhibit, and a prize will be offered for the best and largest collection. Ribbons will be presented for other exhibits. During the evening a program will be given.

It is planned to have the hall elaborately decorated for the show. The decorations of last year attracted much attention, as also did the excellent exhibit of roses. The rose show will probably be held during the coming week.

The officers of the Mount Pleasant society are: President, Mrs. A. C. Warner; vice-president, Mrs. J. M. Hlatt; secretary, Miss Ella Williams; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Stafford. The committee for the rose show will be appointed at a meeting to be held this week when final arrangements will be completed for the holding of the rose show.

SCANDINAVIANS WILL GATHER ON JUNE 25

The Swedish national holiday will be celebrated by Clackamas county Scandinavians with a midsummer festival to be held on Sunday, June 25 at Chautauque park in Gladstone. The national holiday is on June 24 but the celebration has been postponed one day in order to give all who wish to attend an opportunity to do so.

The program is in charge of committee of Scandinavians from Oregon City, Willamette, Gladstone and Outlook. Rev. John Ovall was in Oregon City Friday assisting in arranging some of the details. Speeches will be made by well known men, some in English and others in the native tongue. A musical program is being arranged. Miss Elva Blanchard has been engaged to sing.

Lunch will be served under the branches of the mammoth trees in the park. E. B. Anderson of Oregon City is chairman of the refreshment committee.

Over 100 attended the midsummer festival held last year, and the committee feel that in selecting Sunday for the day, the attendance will far surpass that of last year.

DIPLOMAS ARE SENT TO 26 WINNERS OF ARITHMETIC TESTS

RESULTS OF RECENTLY COMPLETED COUNTY-WIDE CONTEST ARE ANNOUNCED.

County Superintendent of Schools Calavan this week sent out diplomas to the winners of his recently completed, county-wide contest in arithmetic. This contest took the place of the spelling bees of former years, and began several months ago. By a series of tests, Superintendent Calavan determined the best 26 pupils in arithmetic in the county.

The names of the winners, their schools and their grade follow: May Hullock, Canby, 10th; Richard Nixon, Holton, 14; Elveto Tienbaare, district No. 11, 10; Albert Grossbacher, Canemah, 13; Lester Bateson, Viola, 9; Muriel Linnett, Harmony, 9; LaVern Martin, Mountain Road, 9; Bertha Ross, Lower Logan, 9; Edith Sprague, Lower Logan, 9; Eileen Nixon, Bolton, 9; Marion Barnum, Kelso, 9; Charles Cook, Clarke, 9; Cinda Butterfield, Liberal, 9; Gerald Ramsey, Lone Elder, 9; Elmer Olson, Viola, 9; Marion Patterson, Willamette, 9; Norma Moulton, Kruse, 9; Adolphus Kruse, Kruse, 9; Alfred Boche, Mackburg, 9; Fred Ganshe, Mackburg, 9; Estes Griddle, Mackburg, 9; Elsie Kall, Mackburg, 10; Lucile Baker, Canby, 9; Bernhard Reese, Canby, 9; Erwin Mackey, Sandy, 9; Rachel Miller, Bear Creek, 9.

Of the 37 graduates of the University of Oregon who received their diplomas Monday morning, two are from Clackamas county. They are Miss Katherine Bridges, of Oswego, and Miss Erna Eleonora Petzold, of Oregon City. Both received degrees in bachelors of arts.

Carver Railroad Reaches Portland

Construction on the Oregon City & Portland railway, known as the Carver line, is progressing rapidly into Portland, and this week has reached Powell street on East Twenty-second street in that city. The track goes into Portland on East Twenty-fourth street along the east side of the Southern Pacific track, and switches to Twenty-second street on Center, after which the track follows East Twenty-second to Powell.

Between Milwaukie and Portland limits the track passes under the Southern Pacific track at one point, and the viaduct on Hybe avenue on the east side of the Southern Pacific track. Heavy steel rails are used in construction.

Between Milwaukie and the present city limits the track is in operation, the cars making regular trips. A considerable passenger traffic has been built up and cordwood is being shipped. A station will be erected at Baker's bridge on the Clackamas river, and it will be called Carver, after the name of the promoter of the line. It is asserted that the Portland end will be completed before the line is extended any further into the country. The line is projected to Logan.
