

News From All Over the County

MEADOWBROOK.

MEADOWBROOK, Ore., July 20.—(Special.)—Charles Shepherd and family are camping on what is known as the Snodgrass place.

Quite a few from here attended the funeral of Amy Brandt at Colton Thursday, July 15.

The parties that left Wednesday for hot springs were forced to return on account of the snow.

Most everybody is wishing for sunshine as they have hay down.

Several from here attended the chautauqua at Gladstone Sunday in spite of the rain.

Miss Hannah O. Johnson visited at A. L. Larkins Saturday afternoon.

Mrtle and Hazel Larkins spent the week-end in Oregon City visiting with friends and attending the chautauqua.

MOLALLA.

MOLALLA, Ore., July 20.—(Special.) A letter from Mrs. Frank Kramer, formerly of Molalla, but residing now at Mount Angel, brings the news of the arrival of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Teachout started north Wednesday last week. They are going by wagon.

The concrete is being mixed for the basement of the new Old Fellows building.

Mrs. Badger and children are camping near Liberal, where Mr. Badger is cutting wood with his drag saw.

Mrs. John Pearson was in Molalla the past week from her homestead on the middle fork of the Molalla. She is expecting her husband from Vancouver, B. C., very soon.

Says They are Wonderful.

Hot weather is doubly dangerous to a person whose digestion is bad. The hot sun keeps the body heated and a decomposing mass of undigested food in the stomach will more quickly send disease-causing impurities through the blood and poison the entire system.

Indigestion, constipation, sick headache, biliousness, bloating, or other conditions caused by clogged bowels yield quickly to Foley Cathartic Tablets.

Mrs. Elizabeth Slauson, So. Norwalk, Conn., writes: "I can honestly say they are wonderful." Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

KELSO WOMAN DEIS IN SOUTHERN STATE

KELSO, Ore., July 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. Elia Dickinson, formerly the wife of Marvin Dickson, who has been a resident of Kelso for many years, died after a lingering illness at a sanitarium in El Paso, Texas.

The body was brought to Pleasant Home for burial Monday, July 17. She is survived by a son, Willie Dickinson, who lives in Kansas.

Another son, John Dickson, died about a year ago. A considerable amount of hay has been damaged by the rain in this vicinity.

MACKSBURG.

MACKSBURG, Ore., July 20.—(Special.)—The rain, beginning on Friday night and lasting through Sunday, has caused such a growth of the crops that even the most pessimistic have given up predicting drought and belated harvest for the coming fall.

These weeds, too, have come up in the newlyhoed fields and gardens in such innumerable ranks that we all turned one in battle array against them.

Never did the rancher present a more charming picture to the eye than they do at the present time. The freshly drenched trees and turf, the newly cultivated and weeded ground, the long rows of thriving vegetables.

The profusion of roses and other flowers and the sleek contented cattle create the wish always to stay on the farm. The only ranchers who are not now enjoying the weather, are those who have hay cut and they, fortunately, are few.

The loss in hay is almost certain to be recompensed in some measure at least by the new impetus all other crops are receiving from the moisture of the soil in these days of lengthened sunshine and heat.

The potato crop for one has advanced at a fabulous rate since the rain began and the beans are not behind in growth.

Much more land than heretofore has been put into the latter crop owing to its high price. Now and the almost certain prospect of a still higher one as the foreign demand for this best of all army supplies is continued.

Mrs. David Kanfmann, with her two youngest children started on Tuesday morning for her former home in Pennsylvania, whether she has been called by the illness of her father, Mrs. Kanfmann expects to be absent some time, visiting other relatives in the east.

Frank Hilton, with his son Ivan, came from his mountain ranch last week to spend a few days at his former home in this place.

Mr. Hilton gives a glowing account of the property both present and prospective his mountain ranch affords. He finds the soil of exceptional richness and the pasture consequently of the most luxuriant kind.

Stock-raising and dairy farming are at present the most hopeful industries. Later on they intend to explore the coal deposits they have discovered on the land.

Mrs. G. M. Baldwin is having material hauled for improvements on her cottage to be made before the coming winter.

ALSPAUGH.

ALSPAUGH, Ore., July 20.—(Special.)—Miss Ethel Tracy and Ruth and Blanche Thomas, of Garfield, spent several days at the home of Edgar Heiple last week.

Frank Dowdy, of Portland, spent Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. Harry Frank's father of Castle Rock, Wash., is sending several days with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown were Portland visitors one day last week.

Miss Alta Sarver, of Currinsville, returned home from Kelso, Wash., where she has been visiting friends.

Fred Lins and Leo Rath motored to Kelso on business last Saturday.

Peter Ruhl was a Portland visitor last Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Irene and Hulda Paulsen went to Portland last Sunday to spend a few weeks with their sister, Miss Emma Paulsen.

C. A. Johnson was transacting business in Portland last Monday and Tuesday.

The Presbyterian Sunday school is planning on a Sunday school picnic to be given on July 30 at the George picnic grounds.

Taking Big Chances.

It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and everyone should go prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)

WORLD-WIDE MARKET FOR FIR IS SOUGHT

$200,000 CORPORATION WILL SELL NORTHWEST PRODUCT IN EVERY CORNER OF THE GLOBE.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 17.—Douglass fir is to be pushed into every market of Europe and even into the more remote quarters of the world as soon as the restoration of peace will make its transoceanic transportation possible.

Tentative plans for a world-wide campaign of exploitation and exportation were considered at a meeting of representative lumber men from all the Pacific coast states at the Benson hotel today.

The proposed work will be carried through the Douglas Fir Exploitation & Export company, a $200,000 concern, which was organized about two years ago and which has been compelled to lie dormant ever since this on account of the depressing effects of the war.

In preparation for the eventuality last fir is to be pushed into every day's meeting persuaded A. A. Baxter, of the Charles Nelson company, of San Francisco, to accept the general management of the organization.

Nearly every important lumber manufacturer in the northwest, as well as most of the principal dealers in California, will be affiliated with the new concern. It is the intention to confine activities exclusively to a development of the foreign trade.

Patriotism—What and When.

Woodburn Independent: Patriotism is not alone by word of mouth or pen. Neither is it a desire for change of scenery, a desire to travel, to go on a picnic, to be game. It is a love for one's native land and the nation's flag, and a voluntary willingness to lay down one's life, if necessary, for that country and that flag.

Son, 70, Leaves Mother as Heir.

Salem Statesmen: Samuel Sebastian Glimble was more than 70 years old when he died in Salem July 9, but his mother survives him and is the only heir mentioned in his will which was admitted to probate yesterday by the county court.

COLLIER WITH 142 ABOARD SUNK; MEN'S FATE UNKNOWN

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 14.—The big naval collier Hector, carrying 60 mariners, in addition to her crew of 70 men and 12 officers, sank off Charleston late today, according to a report tonight from Captain Hunt, of the tug Vigilant, which tried to go to the Hector's assistance. He was unable to say whether those aboard escaped.

The schooner Alamo had been standing by the collier today, having responded to her calls when she was disabled some 60 miles offshore in last night's hurricane. Static conditions were such that no wireless report could be obtained from the Alamo tonight. The sea still was running high.

The Hector left Port Royal for Santo Domingo yesterday. She attempted to put into port here when the storm disabled her, but, according to Captain Hunt, went down about nine and one-half miles from the Charleston lightship.

Captain Hunt said part of the collier's superstructure remained about water, the Hector displaced 11,300 tons, was 284 feet long and was built in 1908.

WIND AND RAIN END EASTERN HEAT WAVE NO BIDS RECEIVED AT GOVERNMENT SALE

CHICAGO, July 13.—Heavy rains in the east and parts of the middle west served to halt the deadly heat wave temporarily today, but weather forecasters say the torpidity will return inside of 48 hours and continue several days.

A two-day respite from the heat was granted to Chicago today, due to a cool wind that came from the north across the lake. It also served to divert the rain and thunder clouds, and only a trace of rain fell in this district. There were no heat deaths today, and only four prostrations and one drowning. The annual peril of rabid dogs, driven mad by the heat, appeared today, three persons being bitten.

Yesterday's fierce heat was followed in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania and adjacent states by heavy rains and considerable wind. Wire service to Philadelphia is badly crippled tonight, indicating destructive storms. It is of a local nature, however, as wires to New York are working uninterruptedly.

A number of prospective buyers attended what was to have been a sale of a 16-acre tract, formerly used as a fish hatchery on the Clackamas river, Saturday, but no bid was submitted.

D. Wina, in charge of the government work in the northwest states, conducted the sale. He said he held a sealed bid, offering the government $5,000 for the tract, and none of the bidders would raise that figure. Mr. Wina did not make public the name of the person who offered $5,000 for the land.

The sale was set for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the courthouse steps. A score of Oregon City and Portland men were prepared to bid for the tract.

Molalla is Encouraged. Molalla Pioneer: J. S. Fice was in town for several days this week and accompanied by members of the committee who have charge of the boxing of the sugar factory were examining the sugar beets being grown for a test and found them doing well. A few neglected to keep the beets as clean as they should be but the majority are giving them a fair show. The outlook is very encouraging and about the only element of doubt in the whole matter of having a factory located here is the sugar content of the beets. However the sugar people feel confident that this will be alright. The test has been made on small lots and they have analyzed as high as seven-tenths per cent. This is five per cent more than the minimum required.

East Clackamas News: Walt Givens claims they never intended to leave for Turner, Oregon, to attend the state convention of the Christian Church, until this week, but the News chronicled the fact last week, supposing the convention was then in progress.

Anyway, Mr. and Mrs. Givens and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Drill are supposed to be at Turner now, where Mr. Givens is taking a leading part on the program.

Billousness and Stomach Trouble. "Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbruyke, Lima, Ohio. "I could eat very little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach that I had to take hold of something to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere. (Adv.)
