MONEY WILL BE SAVED IN TAX COLLECTING

NEW METHOD IS WORKED OUT WHICH WILL LESSEN WORK—RUSH BEGINS SOON.

Sheriff W. J. Wilson and his deputy George Harrington, have worked out a method for handling the collection of the last half of taxes which will save time and expense in tax collecting this fall. Office work is so much reduced that it will not be necessary to employ as many clerks as in previous years and the cost of the office will be materially reduced.

When the taxpayer who has paid his first half brings in his receipt, a system has been devised whereby a number is stamped on the receipt for the second half and it is unnecessary to write in again the description of the property involved.

"It is of much importance that the taxpayer bring in the receipt for the first half of his taxes," said Tax Collector Harrington Wednesday. "It will not only enable us to save time for him, but will greatly reduce the work in the office as well."

Taxes not paid after October 5 become delinquent. The annual rush of taxpayers to pay the second half of their taxes is expected to begin about the first of next month and continue steadily until the time they become delinquent.

The county has yet to collect about $250,000 out of the total of $816,000 to be raised for all purposes this year.

WEST LINN FIREMEN FORM FIRST COMPANY

Officers elected and organization completed by sunset firefighters.

West Linn is now prepared for a fire of any kind and almost any place in the city limits. The first volunteer fire company was organized Monday night in the town across the river, although the first apparatus arrived four months ago.

This first company is known as the Sunset Hose company No. 4, and its firehouse is located at Sunset avenue and Walnut street. It was organized under the ordinance which was passed by the city council on its second reading early this month. Half of its maximum strength of 30 members have already joined and the charter members believe that by the time the by-laws are ready to be acted upon two weeks from now the company will be "recruited" up to full strength.

John E. Clark was elected president of the new company Monday night. Other officers are: Secretary, M. E. Clancy; treasurer, Harvey Farmer; foreman, Ed Fredericks; first assistant foreman, Gooley Green; second assistant foreman, Henry Ast; sergeant-at-arms, Guy Simpkins.

J. M. CHRIST FREE UNDER $100 BONDS

It was to Christ that Chris Lassen, at one time believed to be implicated in the San Francisco bomb outrage, made his first alleged confession. Christ was placed under $1,000 peace bonds in the Sandy justice court upon petition of his wife and a man, both of whom were later convicted in the Washington county circuit court on a statutory charge. The bonds were reduced from $1,000 to $100 this week.

Opinions of Our City Fathers hat Mr. Dooley said.

OREGON CITY, Aug. 4.—(Editor of The Enterprise.)—When I read the reports of the august sayings of our city council I am led to believe that one or two members of that body would just about fit into Mr. Dooley's description of Commodore Peary. He said: "Dr. Cooke is a liar and a gentleman—and Commodore Peary is neither."

It is an insult to the intelligence of Oregon City to be represented by men who cannot meet with their fellow city fathers without the use of Billingsgate that would shame a set of Whitechapel fishermen. Most of us know nothing and care less about the personal differences between our councilmen. All we want is less vituperation and more common sense in their method of conducting the business of the city. And, because of the reflection that otherwise goes out into the state upon the intelligence and good sense of the electors who choose them as their representatives, we hope they will try to act the part of gentlemen in their public meetings, whether they really are or not.

W. T. MILLIKEN.

From a Councilman.

OREGON CITY, Aug. 4.—(Editor of The Enterprise.)—I noticed in The Enterprise of August 4 that Mr. Hackatt was not pleased with the council Wednesday night. I will say that if Mr. Hackatt would have better control of his council they would do better when a certain member gets up and abuses everybody that he can lay his tongue to and the mayor just sits there and grins like a possum. What else does he expect?

SOUTHERN CLACKAMAS CROPS LOOKING FINE

W. W. EVERHART SAYS MOLALLA OAT YIELD THIS YEAR WILL BE HEAVY.

Farmers of southern Clackamas county are preparing to harvest the biggest crops of recent years, according to residents of that section who have been in Oregon City recently. The condition of crops in southern Clackamas, however, is no better than the crops this year throughout the northern part of the valley.

W. W. Everhart, mayor of Molalla, and Republican nominee for county assessor, who was in the county seat recently, declares that the oat crop of his district will be excellent. "The oats are large and full and the average yield to the acre will be great," he said. "Other crops in the Molalla county also are thriving. This is a good year for the farmers."

Hundreds of acres of stamper in the southern part of the county are being put under cultivation this year. Particularly is this true of the Macksoberg country, where the cultivated area is greatly increased.

Clackamas county hop growers this year predict a good crop. Franz Kraxberger, who is probably as well posted on the hop industry as any man in this county, looks forward not only to a good crop, but to good prices as well.

AVERAGE FARMER IN THIS STATE DOESN'T MAKE OVER $1 DAILY

SO SAYS DR. HECTOR McPHERSON, OF O. C. A.—COUNTRY FAMILY TOO INDEPENDENT.

The average Oregon farmer is not making $1 a day for himself and for each member of his family who is working and 2 per cent interest on his investment, Dr. Hector McPherson, of the Oregon Agriculture college, told over a hundred teachers at the annual Clackamas county teachers' training school Tuesday.

Because of excessive taxes and because the average farmer paid too much for his lands, Dr. McPherson declared that farming under average conditions in Oregon does not pay.

"Man is a combination of wants," he said. "He wants things he can't get and gets things he shouldn't have. Every country person craves city life, yet the boys and girls in the home of the average working men in the city are not as well fed, as well clothed or as happy as the boys and girls in the country."

Dr. McPherson deplored the lack of interest of the average country community in community activities, particularly in school work. He declared that the typical country family was too independent.

Dr. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the First Baptist church, will speak this afternoon.

SUDDEN DEATH OF ALONZO PAGE

MILWAUKIE, Aug. 10.—(Special)—Alonzo Page, father of Mrs. George Johnson, died at the family home on Lake road Friday, August 4, at 6:30 a. m. of heart failure. Funeral services were from Holman Undertaking parlors at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Deceased was born in Springfield, Illinois. He has resided in Portland and vicinity for the past 20 years. Four months ago he came to Milwaukie, during which time he has been in the employ of the city until the Menefee shingle mills were re-opened after which he had been engaged as night fireman. A few days previous to his death he was taken ill which illness confined him to his home and resulted in a sudden severe attack of the heart which caused his death. A wife, who resides here, seven children, a brother and two sisters of Vancouver, Wash., survive him.

Many friends of the departed and his family attended the funeral services and the last rites at the grave at Riverview cemetery. Numerous and beautiful floral offerings covered the last resting place of the beloved and respected Milwaukie resident.

SEPARATED 20 YEARS BROTHER SEES SISTER

Mrs. Fred Dodd, of Grand Island, Neb., is here visiting her brother, S. O. Curtis and family, whom she has not seen for over 20 years. Mrs. Dodd was accompanied by her daughter and husband as far as Portland, who are delegates from Provo, Utah, to the Knights of Pythias convention now being held in Portland. Mrs. Dodd says the scenery along the Columbia river was grand and she was greatly surprised to find the weather so cool in the month of August in Oregon, as it was very warm in Nebraska the day she left, being 114 degrees. Mrs. Dodd and daughter expect to visit Tacoma and Seattle, Wash., before returning to their home.

WILLIAM WAGNER, OF RUPERT STATION, DIES

William A. Wagner, of Rupert station, died Wednesday evening at Rupert station, where he has resided for the last four years. William Wagner was born at St. Johns, New Brunswick, and since boyhood has resided at Lincoln, Neb., until coming to Oregon four years ago. He leaves a wife and an adopted daughter, also five brothers and one sister.

HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Denison, Texas.—"After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told my husband if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get your medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could not do and I will always praise it wherever I go."—Mrs. G. O. LOWERY, 419 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

If you are suffering from any form of female ills, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commence the treatment without delay.

FATHER HAS HIS SON PUT IN CITY JAIL

BOY "BORROWS" PARENTS' AUTO MOBILE AND POLICE ARE PUT ON HIS TRAIL.

Tom Moore, aged 17 years, was arrested early Friday morning by Night Patrolman Henry Cooke on the complaint of his own father for taking his father's automobile while the father was asleep. Young Moore is now in the city jail, and a charge may be placed against him to a quadry as to what to do with the car. He was paroled out of the state training school recently and may be sent back, although his father does not desire this action.

While his father was asleep, young Moore drove the automobile, a new machine, out of the garage. With several boys of the Mount Pleasant neighborhood he spent several hours driving about the county, returning after midnight. He was caught on Main street by the police. The boy says he merely borrowed the car for a ride.

The father, however, claims that he cannot make the boy mind. Several months ago, he says, his son went to the mill, declared that his father had quit and asked for money due. The money was given the boy, and the boy disappeared for several days.

Harry Worswick on Way Home to Head Paving Work Again

(Written for The Enterprise by Seth Bailey.)

IMPERIAL BEACH, Cal., Aug. 5.—That the county paving now under way in Clackamas county is of more importance than the Mexican situation on the border, seems to be the opinion of Harry Worswick of Company G, who today received a 30-day leave of absence, during which time he will spend in Clackamas county, superintending paving construction there.

Harry is like many more of the Oregon City boys. He is well pleased with the many offerings of border life, and is in robust health. He thinks, however, the change will do him good, for he will get a taste of home life for the time being. But he will be glad to join his comrades on the border, he says, and will wonder, during his absence, what is going on in camp. Mr. Worswick will leave in the next few days for Oregon City.

As for the rest of the boys, they are doing nicely. The moving of the camp from Palm City to Imperial Beach has taken up most of their time during the week. The whole of the regiment, with the exception of three companies doing border duty further along the line, is now encamped at the beach. The new camp is a "fliver," as one of the boys remarked yesterday. "We are within a few hundred yards of the beach, one mile from the border. The camp is situated, it seems, over an old stubble of a grain field, that was a producer for some pioneer of the long ago. The ground is covered with green weeds and wild blossoms. In pioneer days someone planted a row of trees on either side, and they have grown into tall shade trees.

The climate is all that a West Coast soldier could pray for. It never gets hotter than 70 or 75 degrees. The ocean breeze blows steadily from the salty waters. One bad feature, however, is that the salt breeze keeps the boys busy cleaning their guns. The salt causes rust; that is one of the soldier's worst enemies. But, considering the difficulties that confronts such a life, the boys are more than satisfied. Three times they have come camped since leaving Oregon, but no camp was as pleasant as this one.

The Oregon City boys have done their part in preparing the present camp for the remainder of the regiment that finished moving Thursday. Companies E and G were the first to move, and since then they have been busy digging ditches for water mains, sewer lines and lake ovens. However, the hard work is over, and the boys will settle down now to the regular routine of drill. A target range is to be constructed also.

Company G, it was learned tonight, has the promise of a ham-and-egg breakfast to be served three times a week. And they are looking forward to same with great pleasure.

SHERIFF PUTS O. K. ON BATHING SUITS

Bathing suits at Clackamas county beaches along the Willamette are not so scanty, declared Sheriff Wilson Sunday after a visit to the resorts between here and Portland on the river.

The sheriff visited the beaches Sunday afternoon, making a careful watch for short and tight-fitting one-piece suits which had been reported to his office. He found conditions generally all right.

Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, of the Portland police, was in Clackamas last Saturday to investigate conditions at local beaches. She, too, is satisfied.

ROAD ACROSS GRAVES WILL NOT BE OPENED

Because the proposed route would cut across several graves, the county court Friday denied the petition of Philip Ogle and others for a road near Ogle station on the Willamette Valley Southern.

The proposed road would be about a mile long. The county court also found that there was little call for a road in the Ogle station district, and that damages were underestimated in the petition.

Should Sloan's Liniment Go Along?

Of course it should! For after a strenuous day when your muscles have been exercised to the limit an application of Sloan's Liniment will take the soreness and stiffness away and yet you in fine shape for the morning. You should also use it for a sudden attack of toothache, stiff neck, backache, stings, bites and the many accidents that are incidental to a vacation. "We would as soon leave our baggage as go on a vacation or camp out without Sloan's Liniment." Writes one vacationist: "We use it for everything from cramps to toothache." Put a bottle in your bag, be prepared and have no regrets. (Adv.)
