The eighth graders of last year have joined the high school children and are attending school at Canby, which makes quite a bunch attending high school from here.

How to Give Good Advice

The best way to give good advice is to set a good example. When others see how quickly you get over your cold by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they are likely to follow your example. This remedy has been in use for many years and enjoys an excellent reputation. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

LIBERAL.

LIBERAL, Ore., Sept. 14.—(Special)—Gus Collins, of Wilsonville, stopped to see his friend, Mr. Dickerson, on his way through Liberal with a bicycle. Mr. Collins had the misfortune to break his handle bar, so was walking and leading his wheel.

D. Engle passed through Liberal one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Watske returned from Macksburg where they had gone expecting to spend a whole week working with the hops. Mildew had shortened the task.

S. Knapp and son, of Molalla, passed through Liberal by auto one day last week.

W. J. E. Vick went to Molalla one day last week.

E. Vaughn, of Portland, was in Liberal one day last week to help Mr. Taylor start his portable drag saw, which he purchased recently. Mr. Taylor had two fingers quite badly crushed in the flywheel.

Mr. Tate has cut more than 250 cords of wood with one set of dry cuts on his wood saw. It is believed that this unusual amount is due to the fact that Mr. Tate saws but a short time, then splits the wood, giving the dry cuts time to recuperate.

Mr. Olson is camping in the Doeppel woods. He is splitting cordwood. C. Wolter has been helping Mr. Doeppel fall timber. Messrs. Dickerson, Stier, Waltz brothers and Wilson brothers are splitting, and D. W. Badger is saving cordwood with his drag saw in the Doeppel woods.

Mrs. Dimick had 21 men to supper one night last week, when the threshers returned to thresh for her brother, Richard Wright. The clover threshers had already been there. Mrs. Dimick cooked, ready for the threshers, once when they did not come.

Fred Otz, of Portland, has been buying and selling stock around Liberal the past week for the Portland market.

The Kraxberger boys of Macksburg, loaded a car of cordwood at the Liberal W. V. S. station, from their Liberal ranch.

WEATHER IS HELPTO MACKSBURG THRESHERS

DRYING WIND UNDOES DAMAGE OF RAIN—CROPS ARE USUALLY HEAVY.

MACKSBURG, Ore., Sept. 14.—(Special)—The weather, contrary to all hopes, turned out to be the finest possible for the grain. The drying winds of Saturday and Sunday putting it in the best shape for the threshers, who were out early on Monday morning. The hay whir coming not save for meal time, till the late at night.

The corn is a striking repetition of the old-time theory that Oregon can never be made a corn growing state. In many of the fields a view of the giant stalks, reaching far above the head of the tallest rancher, no stalk bearing less than two and many having three proportionally sized ears, carries one back in memory to the middle west where corn is the farmer's pride.

Hoppicking occupied most of the past week, the weather being ideal for the pickers, overcast and cool. On Friday, however the threatened rain came in the morning, but ceased before noon.

The Evergreen blackberry is now in its prime and is ripening in such quantities that our language seems inadequate to convey any idea of the overwhelming supply. The words "abundance" and "profusion" appear weak when used to create a thought of their inconceivable multitude.

Pickers come from every direction, many in their autos from the adjacent towns to carry away this luscious fruit not only for preserve use and for the winter's store, but to be converted into home made wine and still the number left on the vines seems as great as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hepler were deterred by rain from making their contemplated trip to the coast, but will go later on.

Mr. David Kauffman who has been visiting relatives in Ohio and Pennsylvania is expected home before the end of the week.

Abe Hepler, with his party, returned on Saturday from his mountain trip, bringing a load of mountain huckleberries.

HALEY AND ANDREGG ARE EACH FINED $5

EAST CLACKAMAS MEN ENTER PLEA OF GUILTY BEFORE JUSTICE SIEVERS.

John Haley, of Sandy, and John Andregg, of Boring, were each fined $5 and costs Saturday by Justice of the Peace Sievers, after entering a plea of guilty to charges of assault. They were arrested Friday by Sheriff Wilson and Deputy Frost.

Haley is alleged to have attacked William Still, of Eagle Creek, following a debate on the merits of cigarettes. Still, declares the Sandy man, smokes and attempted to force him to take a cigarette. Haley resented the defiance of cigarettes made by Still and a fight is alleged to have followed.

Andregg and his son, a minor, are alleged to have struck an aged man they met on the county road near Boring.

Solve Plans Changed.

ECREKA, Cal., Sept. 12.—Finding that there is little to be accomplished by pulling on the steamer Bear, ashore near Cape Mendocino, the salvage crew now is packing its reliance on being able to pump away enough sand from around the steamer to make a basin for her.

CURB ON MARRIAGE URGED.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Marriage parties divorced for any cause, either of whom has a husband or wife living, will not be permitted hereafter in the Protestant Episcopal church, if a new canon recommended by the commission on marriage and divorce is adopted by the general convention of the church.

Three British Ships Sunk. LONDON, Sept. 8.—The British steamship Strathgair and the Ellerman Line steamship Tagus have been sunk. The crew of the Strathgair was saved. The British steamship Heathdene, of 3541 tons gross, has been sunk, according to announcement made at Lloyd's.

Oregon Hens Are First.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Sept. 8.—The forty-third week of the fifth annual international egg-laying contest, now being held at Storrs, Conn., finds the pen of Oregoners entered by the Oregon Agricultural college, gaining steadily and in seventh place among the 109 different entries.

SCHOOL OPENING POSTPONED.

Owing to the fact that many of the children of Mount Pleasant are in the hopfields, the school board of that district has decided to postpone the opening day to September 18. It was the intention of the board to open the school Monday morning, September 11.

Encouraging Reports From Many Towns Concerning The Republican Banquet Saturday

M. A. Deaton, cashier of the Clackamas County bank of Sandy, and F. E. Beckwith, city recorder of Sandy, were in Oregon City Wednesday and gathered much information concerning the Republican banquet which will be held Saturday night at the Busch hall, Eleventh and Main streets. "I'm going to come in to the banquet, and I'm going to bring in as many as I can," said Mr. Deaton. "One thing is certain, and that is Sandy will be well represented." Such cheerful messages as this were received from all parts of the county Wednesday by officers of the county central committee. Molalla, Canby, Estacada, Milwaukie, Jennings Lodge, Oswego and Wilsonville will have representatives at the banquet as well as Sandy. Oregon City Republicans, cheered by the interest shown, predict that the meeting will be better attended than any political gathering this year. Judge Grant H. Dimick, president of the Willamette Valley Southern, said last night that the schedule for the special train which will run from Mt. Angel the night of the banquet would probably be completed today.

TWO COUNTY OFFICIALS VISIT STATE CAPITOL

COUNTY JUDGE AND COMMISSIONER TALK OVER FEDERAL AID WITH STATE BOARD.

County Judge H. S. Anderson and Commissioner Adam Knight went to Salem Monday to discuss road matters in general and federal aid in road work in particular with the State Highway commission. Mr. Knight returned to Canby and Judge Anderson to Gladstone late Monday night. Clackamas county will seek federal assistance in road construction, and the two county officials made the trip to the state capital city to learn more about the recent act of congress under which the national government of funds aid. A request for $2000 to pave the playground at the State Training school, and for an equal amount to pay for compiling the supreme court records was also rejected for the same reason.

Could Not Do Her Cooking.

Mrs. F. E. Hartmeister, Tea, Mo., writes: "I was affected with kidney trouble for two years. I was so bad this summer I could hardly do my cooking. I got Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me. I feel like a new person." Too many women neglect symptoms of kidney derangement. When the kidneys are not properly doing their work poisons left in the system cause weak back, dizziness, puffiness under eyes, swollen ankles, joints, and rheumatism. Jones Drug Co.—Adv.

P. B. KELLOGG IS BOUND OVER.

P. B. Kellogg, arrested Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Frost and Harington on a charge of indecent exposure, waived preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace John Sievers Thursday and was bound over to the grand jury. His bail was raised from $100 to $200.
