MR. AND MRS. CAUFIELD HAVE AUTO ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Caufield narrowly escaped serious injury Sunday afternoon in an automobile accident while on the way from Oregon City to Forest Grove. They were on their way to the Washington county town in their automobile when Mr. Caufield, who was driving, attempted to cross a culvert. The ditch was deeper than they thought and both were thrown against the windshield. Mrs. Caufield was slightly bruised and Mr. Caufield's head was cut by the glass. Mr. Caufield is cashier of the Bank of Oregon City.

He Was Worried and Hopeless.

"For ten or twelve years I was bothered with bad kidney trouble," writes T. F. Hutchinson, Little Rock, Ark. "I tried many remedies and doctors, but grew worse all the time. I was worried and had almost given up all hopes. I tried Foley's Kidney Pills and they helped me a lot. I have since used five boxes and am now a well man." Foley's Kidney Pills drive out aches and pains due to kidney trouble; also sleep disturbing bladder disorders.—Jones Drug Co.—Adv.

MILWAUKIE WOMAN SUES.

Charging that her husband called her names and threatened her life, Mrs. Mary A. Day Wednesday brought a suit for divorce against Charles W. Day, of Milwaukie, in the Clackamas county circuit court. George C. Brown and Charles T. Slevers appear as her attorneys. They were married September 25, 1884, in Portland and have two children over whom she asks the custody.

He Uses the Safe and Sure Thing at Home

F. A. Ehrd, Concho, Calif., writes as follows: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and also other lines of cough medicines for a number of years, but never use anything but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for my family or myself, as I find it produces the best results, always cures severe colds and sore chest and does not contain opiates or other harmful drugs."

Lowell Kent, Charles Peckover and Carl Hogg, Parkplace young men, who left this city in May for a trip, are at the present time in Colorado, where they are employed, and earning enough money to carry them further east, and will probably be home in time to eat Christmas dinner at their homes. The young men so far have visited in California, arriving in that state after leaving their homes, and being employed in that state long enough to earn money to travel further. They visited Salt Lake City, Utah, where they remained for three weeks, and also at Reno, Nevada. They are at the present time making their headquarters at Denver, Colorado. They do not walk, but instead ride in the Pullman cars. They are having a "time of their lives."

J. W. Morris, watchman at the head works of the South Fork pipeline, about nine miles from Cazadero, was in this city on business Friday. Mr. Morris estimates the number of persons visiting in that section of the county this summer about 1000, the wonderful water system attracting many of these visitors. For several weeks the fishing in that part of the county was excellent, but during the last few weeks the fish have become scarce. So far the hunting has been very poor, but Mr. Morris says that he expects to get a deer before the closing of the season. He is planning a larger building at the waterworks in the near future for his own use, and where he may accommodate the Oregon City visitors who are interested in the plant while they are enjoying a few days' outing in the wilds.
